3 sixth, seventh and eighth classes; amending, revising,
4 consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto,"
5 providing for an independent audit of county fiscal affairs.

6 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
7 hereby enacts as follows:

8 Section 1. Section 1702, act of August 9, 1955 (P.L.323, 9 No.130), known as "The County Code," is amended to read:

10 Section 1702. Functions of the Controller.--(a) Subject to 11 the power and duty of the county commissioners to manage and 12 administer the fiscal affairs of the county, the controller 13 shall supervise the fiscal affairs of the county including the 14 accounts and official acts relating thereto of all officers or 15 other persons who shall collect, receive, hold or disburse the 16 public moneys of the county. The discretionary powers of the 17 controller shall not be applicable to the management of the 18 fiscal policies of the county commissioners, or to matters not 19 involving the accounts and transactions of officers or other

1 persons of the county, but the controller shall refuse to 2 authorize any fiscal transaction which is, by law, subject to 3 his supervision or control where it appears that such 4 transaction is not authorized by law, or has not been undertaken
5 according to law, or has not received approval according to law,
6 or as to which he desires upon reasonable grounds to investigate 7 for or has already discovered any fraud, flagrant abuse of 8 public office or any criminal act or neglect of any officer or 9 other person of the county relating to their public accounts and 10 transactions. He may at any time require from any such officers 11 or other persons, in writing, an account of all moneys or 12 property which may have come into their control. Immediately, on 13 the discovery of any default or delinquency, he shall report the 14 same to the commissioners who shall immediately take action to 15 recover the money and to the district attorney of the county for 16 such prosecution as may be warranted, and shall take immediate 17 measures to secure the public moneys or property.

18 (b) Pursuant to subsection (a), the county commissioners
19 may, for the purpose of meeting Federal or State requirements, 20 contract with or employ an independent public accountant for the 21 purpose of preparing or conducting a report or audit of the 22 fiscal affairs of the county, independent of and/or in addition 23 to, that conducted by the county controller or auditors.

24 Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
