MARCH 18, 1987

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON LABOR RELATIONS, MARCH 18, 1987

AN ACT

1 Providing for the licensing of professional home inspectors;
2 granting powers to and imposing duties on the Secretary of 3 Labor and Industry; and providing a civil penalty.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
5 hereby enacts as follows:

6 Section 1. Short title.

7 This act shall be known and may be cited as the Professional
8 Home Inspector Licensure Act.

9 Section 2. Definitions.

10 The following words and phrases when used in this act shall 11 have the meanings given to them in this section unless the 12 context clearly indicates otherwise:

13 "Associate home inspector." A person who is employed by a 14 licensed professional home inspector to conduct inspections of 15 residential homes or buildings on behalf of the professional 16 home inspector.

17 "Professional home inspector." A person who, for

1 compensation, engages in the business of inspecting residential
2 homes or buildings for buyers or others.

3 "Secretary." The Secretary of Labor and Industry of the 4 Commonwealth.

5 Section 3. Professional home inspector to be licensed.

6 (a) System established.--The secretary shall establish a
7 system for the licensure of professional home inspectors.

8 (b) License requirement.--No person may engage in the 9 business of home inspections, either part time or full time, or 10 in any other manner act as a professional home inspector or 11 associate home inspector unless the person is licensed by the 12 secretary.

13 (c) Application.--A professional home inspector or associate
14 home inspector shall be licensed by the secretary upon
15 submission of an application and payment of a reasonable 16 application fee sufficient to cover the cost of implementing the 17 provisions of this act. The fee shall be prescribed by the 18 secretary.

19 (d) Renewals.--The secretary may require biennial renewal of 20 application for licensure and may stagger the renewal dates and 21 adjust the application fees accordingly.

22 Section 4. Application for professional home inspector license.

23 (a) License criteria.--The secretary shall establish the 24 criteria for the granting of a license. The applicant for a
25 professional home inspector's license shall, as a condition
26 precedent to obtaining a license, take a licensing examination
27 as prescribed by the secretary, and score a passing grade. Prior 28 to taking the examination:

29 (1) the applicant shall:

30 (i) be at least 21 years of age;

1 (ii) be a high school graduate or produce proof
2 satisfactory to the secretary of an education equivalent
3 thereto; and

4 (2) the applicant shall:

5 (i) have been engaged as a licensed associate home
6 inspector for at least two years and have completed 250
7 fee-paid inspections; or

8 (ii) possess educational or experience
9 qualifications which the secretary deems to be the 10 equivalent of the qualifications listed in subparagraph
11 (i). If this subparagraph is used as the basis for 12 licensing, an equivalency examination shall be 13 administered by the secretary and a passing grade shall 14 be required.

15 (b) Written application.--An application for a license as a 16 professional home inspector shall be made in writing, to the 17 secretary, upon a form provided for the purpose by the 18 secretary, and shall contain such information concerning the
19 applicant as the secretary shall require.

20 (c) Place of business.--The application shall state the 21 place of business for which the license is desired.

22 (d) Time for submission.--The application must be received
23 by the secretary within three years of the date upon which the 24 applicant took the examination.

25 Section 5. Application for associate home inspector license.

26 (a) Examination required.--Each applicant shall, as a
27 condition precedent to obtaining a license, take the associate
28 home inspector's license examination and score a passing grade.
29 Prior to taking the examination, the applicant shall be at least 30 21 years of age.

1 (b) Written application.--An application for a license as an
2 associate home inspector shall be made in writing, to the
3 secretary, upon a form provided for the purpose by the
4 secretary, and shall contain such information concerning the
5 applicant as the secretary shall require.

6 (c) Sworn statement.--The applicant shall submit a sworn 7 statement by the professional home inspector with whom he 8 desires to be affiliated certifying that the professional home
9 inspector will actively supervise and train the applicant.

10 (d) Time for submission.--The application must be received
11 by the secretary within three years of the date upon which the 12 applicant took the examination.

13 Section 6. Exception.

14 (a) Eligibility for professional home inspector's license.--
15 A person who has engaged in the business of home inspections for 16 a minimum of one year prior to the effective date of this act
17 and has conducted at least 250 fee-paid inspections, and who 18 successfully completes the written examination to be 19 administered by the secretary, shall be eligible to apply for a 20 professional home inspector's license.

21 (b) Exemption.--A person eligible for licensing under 22 subsection (a) shall be exempt from the provisions of this act
23 relating to associate home inspectors.

24 (c) Duration of exception.--This section shall remain in 25 effect for a period of three years after the effective date of 26 this act.

27 Section 7. Secretary to investigate.

28 The secretary shall, on his initiative or in response to 29 complaints, investigate on a continuous basis allegations of 30 violations of this act and gather evidence of violations of this

1 act or any regulation adopted under this act.

2 Section 8. Grounds for fines or revocations.

3 The secretary may fine or refuse to grant or may suspend or 4 revoke a license of a professional home inspector for any of the 5 following acts or omissions related to the conduct of the 6 business of inspecting residential homes or buildings:

7 (1) Making or authorizing any material statement,
8 written or oral, which is known to be untrue or misleading.

9 (2) Failing to carry appropriate general liability and 10 professional liability insurance policies providing coverage
11 for negligent acts.

12 (3) Expressing an opinion not based on practical
13 experience and honest conviction.

14 (4) Acting in bad faith toward a client.

15 (5) Disclosing any information concerning the results of 16 an inspection without first obtaining the approval of the 17 client for whom the inspection was performed.

18 (6) Accepting compensation, monetary or otherwise, from 19 more than one interested party for the same service without 20 first obtaining the consent of all interested parties.

21 (7) Accepting or offering commissions or allowances,
22 directly or indirectly, from other parties dealing with his 23 client in connection with work for which the professional 24 home inspector is responsible.

25 (8) Failing to promptly disclose to a client any 26 interest in a business that may affect the client.

27 (9) Allowing an interest in a business other than home
28 inspection to affect the quality or result of an inspection.

29 (10) Using a home inspection as a vehicle to obtain
30 additional work in another field.

1 (11) Attempting to appraise or express an opinion
2 concerning the market value of any property under inspection.

3 (12) Engaging in a pattern of conduct which includes any 4 of the acts or omissions prohibited in this section or any
5 other unconscionable or fraudulent commercial practice
6 prohibited by the secretary pursuant to regulations
7 promulgated under this act.

8 Section 9. Notice to be given.

9 Upon refusal to grant a license or upon suspension or 10 revocation of a license issued to a professional home inspector, 11 the secretary shall notify the professional home inspector, in 12 writing, by certified mail. The person shall be given a hearing 13 by a review board if, within 60 days after receipt of notice, he 14 files with the secretary a written request for a hearing.

15 Section 10. Review board.

16 The review board for the hearings provided for in section 9
17 shall be convened and appointed by the secretary when necessary
18 and shall consist of one professional home inspector, one lay 19 person and the secretary. Appointments to the review board shall 20 be rotated to prevent any indication of permanent appointment.

21 Section 11. Civil penalties.

22 The secretary may impose upon a professional home inspector
23 who violates this act a civil penalty of not more than $2,000
24 for the first offense and not more than $5,000 for the second
25 and each subsequent offense. The civil penalty shall be issued 26 for and recovered by and in the name of the secretary and shall 27 be collected and enforced by summary proceedings.

28 Section 12. Rules and regulations.

29 The secretary shall promulgate rules and regulations to 30 administer and enforce this act.

1 Section 13. Effective date.

2 This act shall take effect in 90 days.
