9 (b) [Presumption] Presumptions.--For the purposes of this 10 section as well as in any prosecution for theft committed by 11 means of a bad check, the following shall apply:

12 (1) an issuer is presumed to know that the check or 13 order (other than a post-dated check or order) would not be 14 paid, if:

15 [(1) the issuer had no account with the drawee at the 16 time the check or order was issued; or

1 (2) payment was refused by the drawee for lack of funds,
2 upon presentation within 30 days after issue, and the issuer
3 failed to make good within ten days after receiving notice of 4 that refusal.]

5 (i) payment was refused because the issuer had no
6 such account with the drawee at the time the check or 7 order was issued; or

8 (ii) payment was refused by the drawee for lack of 9 funds, upon presentation within 30 days after issue, and 10 the issuer failed to make good within ten days after 11 receiving notice of that refusal. Notice of refusal may 12 be given to the issuer orally or in writing by any 13 person. Proof that notice was sent by registered or 14 certified mail, regardless of whether a receipt was 15 requested or received, to the address printed on the 16 check, or if none, then to the issuer's last known 17 address, shall raise a presumption that the notice was 18 received.

19 (2) A check or order stamped "NSF" or "insufficient 20 funds" shall raise a presumption that payment was refused by 21 the drawee for lack of funds.

22 (3) A check or order stamped "account closed" or "no 23 such account" or "counterfeit" shall raise a presumption that 24 payment was refused by the drawee because the issuer had no
25 such account with the drawee at the time the check or order 26 was issued.

27 (c) Grading.--

28 (1) An offense under this section is [a misdemeanor of 29 the second degree if the amount of the check or order exceeds 30 $500 or if it is a third or subsequent offense within a five-year period; otherwise it is a summary offense.]:

(i) a summary offense if the check or order is less than $200;

(ii) a misdemeanor of the third degree if the check or order is $200 or more but less than $500;

(iii) a misdemeanor of the second degree if the check or order is $500 or more but less than $1,000;

(iv) a misdemeanor of the first degree if the check or order is $1,000 or more but is less than $75,000; or

(v) a felony of the third degree if the check or order is $75,000 or more.

(2) When the offense is a third or subsequent offense within a three-year period, regardless of the amount of the check or order and regardless of the grading of the prior offenses, an offense under this section is a misdemeanor of the first degree, unless the amount of the check or order involved in the third or subsequent offense is $75,000 or more, then the offense is a felony of the third degree.
