10 (c) Validity of consent.--No consent shall be valid if it 11 was executed prior to or within 72 hours after the birth of the 12 child. A putative father may execute a consent at any time after 13 receiving notice of the expected or actual birth of the child.
14 Any consent given outside this Commonwealth shall be valid for 15 purposes of this section if it was given in accordance with the 16 laws of the jurisdiction where it was executed. A consent to an 17 adoption under subsection (a)(3) may only be revoked within 30

1 days of the signing of the consent. Any other consent to an 2 adoption may only be revoked prior to the earlier of either the 3 entry of a decree of termination of parental rights or the entry
4 of a decree of adoption. The revocation of a consent shall be in 5 writing and shall be served upon the agency or adult to whom the 6 child was relinquished.

7 (d) Contents of consent.--

8 (1) The consent of a parent of an adoptee under 18 years
9 of age shall set forth the name, age and marital status of 10 the parent, the relationship of the consenter to the child,

16 my intent to permanently give up all rights to this 17 child.

18 I understand such child will be placed for adoption.

19 I understand I may, within 30 days of the signing of 20 this consent, revoke this consent to permanently give up 21 all rights to this child by placing the revocation in 22 writing and serving it upon the agency or adult to whom 23 the child was relinquished.

24 I understand I may not revoke this consent after a 25 court has entered a decree confirming this consent or 26 otherwise terminating my parental rights to this child.
27 Even if a decree has not been entered terminating my 28 parental rights I may not revoke this consent after a 29 decree of adoption of this child is entered.

30 I have read and understand the above and I am signing

1 it as a free and voluntary act.
