FEBRUARY 10, 2000

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing March 2000 as "National Women's History Month" and 2 March 8, 2000, as "International Women's Day" in 3 Pennsylvania.

4 WHEREAS, An unbiased look at women's role in history clearly 5 shows that thousands of women did not suffer from lack of 6 courage, commitment or conviction; and

7 WHEREAS, Since the formation of the American colonies, 8 thousands of Pennsylvania women have been in the forefront for 9 the benefit of all generations to come; and

10 WHEREAS, By telling history in ways to include and appreciate

1 the accomplishments and stories of women who made a difference,
2 a treasure chest of historical information can be opened to 3 benefit all who read it; and

4 WHEREAS, Dispelling the stereotypes helps to teach people of 5 all ages that limited roles typically ascribed to women are no
6 longer acceptable; and

7 WHEREAS, Women have played integral roles in all aspects of 8 Pennsylvania and United States history since before the American 9 Revolution; and

10 WHEREAS, Leadership, steadfastness and creativity are 11 embodied in the business and social acumen demonstrated by women
12 as we have moved along the path of progress toward the 21st 13 century; and

14 WHEREAS, In 1989 the Congress of the United States declared 15 the month of March as "National Women's History Month"; and

16 WHEREAS, Since the turn of the century, March 8th has been 17 observed as "International Women's Day"; therefore be it

18 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives acknowledge March 19 2000 as "National Women's History Month" and March 8, 2000, as 20 "International Women's Day," and urge all citizens to join in a 21 celebration of the heritage of women and to observe this month
22 and day with appropriate programs, ceremonies and activities.
