REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON RULES, JANUARY 24, 2001

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 Creating a joint select committee of the General Assembly to 2 examine, investigate and make a complete study of 3 Pennsylvania's election laws, practices and procedures
4 relating to voter eligibility, to the methods of voting, to 5 the casting, counting and recounting of votes, to voter 6 registration, to absentee balloting, to protections against 7 fraud and to legal remedies related thereto.

8 WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court, in its recent 9 decision in Bush v. Gore, ruled that the absence of uniform 10 standards in Florida for the conduct of a statewide recount of 11 the votes cast for President of the United States at the 12 election held on November 7, 2000, violated the Equal Protection
13 Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States
14 Constitution; and

15 WHEREAS, It is uncertain how expansively the United States
16 Supreme Court and other courts will apply the precedent
17 established by the United States Supreme Court decision in Bush 18 v. Gore whenever those courts are called upon to determine the 19 outcome of elections in future cases; and

20 WHEREAS, It is important that the General Assembly review the

1 election laws of this Commonwealth and make appropriate
2 revisions where necessary in order to assure that Pennsylvania
3 avoids any electoral problems should the Commonwealth experience 4 an extremely close Statewide election; and

5 WHEREAS, It is necessary for the General Assembly to review
6 the adequacy of the various types of voting systems that are 7 being used throughout this Commonwealth; and

8 WHEREAS, It is imperative that laws, practices and procedures 9 relating to voter eligibility, to the methods of voting, to the 10 casting, counting and recounting of votes, to voter 11 registration, to absentee balloting and legal remedies related 12 thereto are sufficient to assure the conduct of an accurate and 13 fair election; therefore be it

14 RESOLVED (the Senate concurring), That a joint select 15 committee on election reform be created and be authorized to 16 examine, investigate and make a complete study of Pennsylvania's 17 election laws, practices and procedures relating to voter
18 eligibility, to the methods of voting, to the casting, counting
19 and recounting of votes, to voter registration, to absentee
20 balloting, to protections against fraud and to legal remedies
21 related thereto; and be it further

22 RESOLVED, That the committee consist of ten members of the 9 co-chairman of the committee; and be it further

10 RESOLVED, That the committee may hold hearings, take 11 testimony and conduct its investigations at such places in this 12 Commonwealth as it deems necessary. It may issue subpoenas under 13 the hand and seal of the co-chairmen commanding any person to 14 appear before the committee and to answer questions touching 15 matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to 16 produce such books, papers, records and documents as the 17 committee deems necessary. The subpoenas may be served upon any 18 person and shall have the same effect as subpoenas issued out of 19 the courts of this Commonwealth and any person who willfully 20 neglects or refuses to testify before the committee or to 21 produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject 22 to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in 23 such case. Each member of the committee shall have power to 24 administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before

2 with its recommendations for any remedial legislation or other 3 appropriate action, at the earliest practicable date, to the 4 House of Representatives and to the Senate, provided that the 5 committee is authorized to issue such interim reports as it
6 deems appropriate.
