SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE AMENDMENTS, NOVEMBER 18, 2002

AN ACT

1 Amending Titles 18 (Crimes and Offenses) and 23 (Domestic
2 Relations) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes,
3 providing for newborn protection.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
5 hereby enacts as follows:

6 Section 1. Title 18 of the Pennsylvania Consolidated
7 Statutes is amended by adding a section to read:

8 § 4306. Newborn protection.

9 (a) General rule.--A parent of a newborn shall not be 10 criminally liable for any violation of this title solely for 11 leaving a newborn in the care of a hospital pursuant to 23
12 Pa.C.S. Ch. 65 (relating to newborn protection) providing that 13 the following criteria are met:

14 (1) The parent expresses, either orally or through 15 conduct, the intent to have the hospital accept the newborn
16 pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. Ch. 65.

17 (2) The newborn is not a victim of child abuse or

1 criminal conduct.

2 (b) Definition.--As used in this section the term "newborn"
3 shall have the meaning given to it in 23 Pa.C.S. § 6502
4 (relating to definitions) and "child abuse" shall be as defined
5 in 23 Pa.C.S. § 6303 (relating to definitions).

6 Section 2. Section 6303(a) of Title 23 is amended by adding 7 definitions to read:

8 § 6303. Definitions.

9 (a) General rule.--The following words and phrases when used
10 in this chapter shall have the meanings given to them in this 11 section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

12 * * *

13 "Child." Includes a newborn.

14 * * *

15 "Newborn." As defined in section 6502 (relating to 16 definitions).

17 * * *

18 Section 3. Section 6315(a) and (c) of Title 23 are amended
19 to read:

20 § 6315. Taking child into protective custody.

21 (a) General rule.--A child may be taken into protective
22 custody:

23 (1) As provided by 42 Pa.C.S. § 6324 (relating to taking 24 into custody).

25 (2) By a physician examining or treating the child or by 26 the director, or a person specifically designated in writing
27 by the director, of any hospital or other medical institution
28 where the child is being treated if protective custody is 29 immediately necessary to protect the child under this 30 chapter.

1 (3) By a physician or the director, or a person
2 specifically designated by the director, of a hospital
3 pursuant to Chapter 65 (relating to newborn protection) if 4 the child is a newborn.

6 (c) Notice of custody.--[An]

7 (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), an individual
8 taking a child into protective custody under this chapter
9 shall immediately, and within 24 hours in writing, notify the 10 parent, guardian or other custodian of the child of the 11 whereabouts of the child, unless prohibited by court order, 12 and the reasons for the need to take the child into 13 protective custody and shall immediately notify the 14 appropriate county agency in order that proceedings under 42
15 Pa.C.S. Ch. 63 (relating to juvenile matters) may be 16 initiated, if appropriate.

17 (2) In the case of a newborn taken into protective
18 custody pursuant to subsection (a)(3), the county agency
19 shall within 24 hours make diligent efforts to notify a 20 parent, guardian, custodian or other family member of the 21 whereabouts of the newborn, unless prohibited by court order,
22 and the reasons for the need to take the newborn into
23 protective custody.

25 Section 4. Section 6316(b) of Title 23 is amended and the 26 section is amended by adding a subsection to read:

27 § 6316. Admission to private and public hospitals.

28 * * *

29 (a.1) Newborns.--A newborn taken into protective custody 30 pursuant to section 6315(a)(3) (relating to taking child into protective custody) shall be admitted to, treated and maintained in facilities of public and private hospitals on the basis of medical need and shall not be refused or deprived in any way of proper medical treatment and care. Once a newborn is taken into protective custody pursuant to section 6315(a)(3), the newborn shall be considered immediately eligible for Medicaid for payment of medical services provided. Until otherwise provided by court order, the county agency shall assume the responsibility for making decisions regarding the newborn's medical care.

(b) Failure of hospital to admit child or newborn.--The failure of a hospital to admit and properly treat and care for a child pursuant to subsection (a) or (a.1) shall be cause for the department to order immediate admittance, treatment and care by the hospital which shall be enforceable, if necessary, by the prompt institution of a civil action by the department. The child, through an attorney, shall also have the additional and independent right to seek immediate injunctive relief and institute an appropriate civil action for damages against the hospital.

Section 5. Sections 6365(a) and 6383(a) of Title 23 are amended to read:

§ 6365. Services for prevention, investigation and treatment of child abuse.

(a) Instruction and education.--Each county agency shall make available among its services for the prevention and treatment of child abuse instruction and education for parenthood and parenting skills, protective and preventive social counseling, outreach and counseling services to prevent ~~infant~~ NEWBORN abandonment, emergency caretaker services,

1 emergency shelter care, emergency medical services and the
2 establishment of self-help groups organized for the prevention
3 and treatment of child abuse, part-day services, out-of-home
4 placement services, therapeutic activities for child and family
5 directed at alleviating conditions that present a risk to the 6 safety and well-being of a child and any other services required
7 by department regulations.

8 * * *

9 § 6383. Education and training.

10 (a) Duties of department and county agencies.--The 11 department and each county agency, both jointly and 12 individually, shall conduct a continuing publicity and education
13 program for the citizens of this Commonwealth aimed at the 14 prevention of child abuse and child neglect, including the 15 prevention of ~~infant~~ NEWBORN abandonment, the identification of <— 16 abused and neglected children and the provision of necessary
17 ameliorative services to abused and neglected children and their 18 families. The department and each county agency shall conduct an 19 ongoing training and education program for local staff, persons
20 required to make reports and other appropriate persons in order
21 to familiarize those persons with the reporting and 22 investigative procedures for cases of suspected child abuse and 23 the rehabilitative services that are available to children and 24 families. In addition, the department shall, by regulation,
25 establish a program of training and certification for persons
26 classified as protective services workers. The regulations shall 27 provide for the grandfathering of all current permanent
28 protective services workers as certified protective services
29 workers. Upon request by the county agency and approval of the 30 department, the agency may conduct the training of the county's

1 protective services workers.

9 6503. Nonliability.

10 6504. Accepting newborns.

11 6505. Reporting acceptance of newborns.

12 6506. Failure to report acceptance of newborns.

13 6507. Immunity granted to health care providers and
14 hospitals.

15 6508. Duty of hospital.

16 6509. Duties of department.

17 § 6501. Short title of chapter.

18 This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Newborn
19 Protection Act.

20 § 6502. Definitions.

21 The following words and phrases when used in this chapter
22 shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the 23 context clearly indicates otherwise:

24 "Child abuse." Child abuse as defined in section 6303(b)
25 (relating to definitions).

26 "County agency" or "agency." County agency as defined in 27 section 6303(a) (relating to definitions).

28 "Department." The Department of Public Welfare of the 29 Commonwealth.

30 "Health care provider." A person who is licensed or

1 certified by the laws of this Commonwealth to administer health
2 care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a
3 profession. For purposes of accepting a newborn as provided in 4 section 6504(a)(1) (relating to accepting newborns) and for 5 immunity provided pursuant to section 6507 (relating to immunity
6 granted to health care providers and hospitals) the term
7 includes administrative, managerial and security personnel and 8 any other person employed by a hospital.

9 "Hospital." An institution having an organized medical staff
10 which is primarily engaged in providing to inpatients, by or 21 determined by a physician.

22 § 6503. Nonliability.

23 A parent of a newborn shall not be criminally liable under 24 any provision of Title 18 (relating to crimes and offenses) if 25 the criteria set forth in 18 Pa.C.S § 4306 (relating to newborn 26 protection) are met.

27 § 6504. Accepting newborns.

28 (a) General rule.--A health care provider at a hospital
29 shall do all of the following relating to a newborn accepted
30 under this chapter:

1 (1) Take the newborn into protective custody as provided
2 in section 6315(a)(3) (relating to taking child into
3 protective custody).

4 (2) Perform a medical evaluation as well as perform any 5 act necessary to care for and protect the physical health and 6 safety of the newborn.

7 (3) Notify the county agency and the local municipal
8 police department or the Pennsylvania State Police where no
9 municipal police jurisdiction exists as provided in section
10 6505 (relating to reporting acceptance of newborns).

11 (b) Accepting newborns.--When accepting a newborn pursuant 12 to this chapter, a parent may provide a health care provider
13 with information about the newborn's medical history and any 14 identifying information.

15 § 6505. Reporting acceptance of newborns.

16 A health care provider at a hospital shall in all cases
17 notify the county agency and the local municipal police
18 department or the Pennsylvania State Police where no municipal 19 police jurisdiction exists immediately by telephone regarding a 20 newborn accepted by a hospital under this chapter. A written 21 report shall be submitted to the county agency and local 22 municipal police department or the Pennsylvania State Police
23 within 48 hours after the oral report. For purposes of this
24 section, the term "health care provider" shall include
25 administrative, managerial and security personnel employed by a 26 hospital.

27 § 6506. Failure to report acceptance of newborns.

28 A health care provider at a hospital who intentionally or 29 knowingly fails to report the acceptance by a hospital of a
30 newborn as required by this chapter commits a summary offense. A

1 second or subsequent failure to report such acceptance is a
2 misdemeanor of the third degree.

3 § 6507. Immunity granted to health care providers and
4 hospitals.

5 Except for a violation of section 6506 (relating to failure
6 to report acceptance of newborns), no hospital or health care
7 provider at a hospital shall be subject to civil liability or 8 criminal penalty solely by reason of complying with the 9 provisions of this chapter.

10 § 6508. Duty of hospital.

11 A hospital shall insure that its officers, health care
12 providers and employees are familiar with the provisions of this 13 chapter, section 6315(a)(3) (relating to taking child into 14 protective custody) and other applicable provisions of Chapter 15 63 (relating to child protective services) that relate to 16 newborn protection and shall insure that the appropriate 17 officers, health care providers, and employees, as the case may 18 be, receive ~~information provided by the department's training~~ <—

3 regarding this chapter, section 6315(a)(3) (relating to taking 4 child into protective custody) and other applicable provisions
5 of Chapter 63 (relating to child protective services) that
6 relate to newborn protection. The department shall promulgate
7 ~~regulations~~ SUCH REGULATIONS AS MAY BE NECESSARY to implement <—
8 this chapter, section 6315(a)(3) and other applicable provisions
9 of Chapter 63 that relate to newborn protection. The department
10 shall also provide health care providers and hospitals with an 11 informational pamphlet regarding this chapter, section
12 6315(a)(3) and other applicable provisions of Chapter 63 that 13 relate to newborn protection which may be distributed to the 14 public. In addition, the department shall comply with the 15 provisions regarding infant abandonment in sections 6365
16 (relating to services for prevention, investigation and 17 treatment of child abuse) and 6383 (relating to education and 18 training). A report shall be made annually to the General 19 Assembly on the number and disposition of newborns accepted in 20 accordance with this chapter, section 6315(a)(3) and other
21 applicable provisions of Chapter 63 that relate to newborn
22 protection.

23 Section 7. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
