A RESOLUTION

1 Designating December 5, 2003, as "Safe80 Day" in Pennsylvania.

2 WHEREAS, The Safe80 Task Force was formed in January 2001 to 3 make Interstate 80 in Monroe County safer; and

4 WHEREAS, The Safe80 Task Force includes citizens, local 5 officials and representatives of the Pennsylvania State Police,
6 the Department of Transportation and the Pennsylvania Public
7 Utilities Commission; and

8 WHEREAS, The Safe80 Task Force has promoted a strategy of 9 education, enforcement and engineering to make Interstate 80 10 safer; and

11 WHEREAS, The Safe80 Task Force received the 2002 Governor's 12 Highway Safety Award; and

13 WHEREAS, The Pennsylvania State Police have received a

1 Governor's Highway Safety Award for their enforcement records on 2 Interstate 80; and

3 WHEREAS, The Safe80 Task Force continues to focus on short-
4 term, intermediate-term and long-term solutions to highway 5 safety issues and has secured funds for a $4 million grant to 6 study Interstate 80 in Monroe County, including the exit and 7 entrance ramps; therefore be it

8 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives applaud the 9 efforts of the Safe80 Task Force and designate December 5, 2003, 10 as "Safe80 Day" in Pennsylvania.
