INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
JULY 2, 2004

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating October 10, 2004, as "Tenth Amendment Day" in 2 Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, While Federal interests and initiatives continually 4 evolve, certain powers are reserved and rights guaranteed to 5 states and individuals under specific constitutional provisions;
6 and

7 WHEREAS, The Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the 8 United States, also known as the States' Rights Amendment, 9 reads:

10 The powers not delegated to the United States by the 11 Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are 12 reserved to the States respectively, or to the people;

13 and

14 WHEREAS, This Constitutional amendment, the final amendment

1 in the Bill of Rights, was proposed by the Congress of the 2 United States on September 25, 1789, and ratified by the states
3 on December 15, 1791; and

4 WHEREAS, The Commonwealth has asserted its sovereignty under 5 the Tenth Amendment over all powers not otherwise enumerated or 6 granted to the Federal Government by the Constitution of the 7 United States, such as education and local government; and

8 WHEREAS, The Commonwealth retains authority over its 9 legislative and regulatory processes in exercising these 10 reserved powers and shares certain powers with the Federal 11 Government; and

12 WHEREAS, The Commonwealth opposes the imposition of Federal 13 mandates which are beyond the scope of constitutionally
14 delegated powers; therefore be it

15 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate October
16 10, 2004, as "Tenth Amendment Day" in Pennsylvania, setting 17 aside the tenth day of the tenth month to celebrate the 18 importance of the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the 19 United States in shaping the governmental, political and 20 administrative systems of this Commonwealth.
