1 Designating September 13 through 19, 2010, as "Young
2 Professionals Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, The Pennsylvania Young Professionals (PaYP) is an 4 umbrella organization of regional young professional groups
5 across this Commonwealth; and

6 WHEREAS, There are 20 regional PaYP organizations across this 7 Commonwealth, stretching from Erie to Philadelphia; and

8 WHEREAS, PaYP makes the effort of tackling critical State 9 issues, including brain drain, economic development and urban 10 decay; and

11 WHEREAS, PaYP was born out of the success of ImPAct, an 12 annual young professionals Statewide conference; and

13 WHEREAS, Young professionals are dedicated, civic-minded

1 people who have a clear vision for making their communities
2 great places to live, work and play; and

3 WHEREAS, Participating in young professional groups
4 strengthens the bonds that members have to their cities and 5 towns and increases the chances that they will stay and 6 contribute to future growth and success; and

7 WHEREAS, The mission of PaYP is to empower talented young 8 people in this Commonwealth by bringing together dynamic young 9 professional groups across the State over issues concerning 10 their demographic; and

11 WHEREAS, The goals of PaYP include communicating issues to 12 legislators and business leaders regarding the attraction and 13 retention of talented young people, serving as a powerful
14 marketing tool for the Commonwealth, battling the brain drain
15 from a peer perspective and addressing economic issues;
16 therefore be it

17 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate
