2 the construction of a Penn Memorial at the Independence Mall
3 National Historical Park in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

4 WHEREAS, William Penn and Hannah Callowhill Penn made
5 significant contributions to the foundation of the United States
6 of America and to the human condition with the establishment of 7 the 1682 "Holy Experiment"; and

8 WHEREAS, William and Hannah Penn are two of only seven people
9 ever granted Honorary Citizenship by the Congress of the United 10 States; and

11 WHEREAS, The William Penn Tercentenary drew commemorations
12 from at least 16 states, the Ambassador from Great Britain and 13 other international dignitaries to honor and recognize William 14 Penn as "one of the great men of his age and of all time" and 15 his 1682 "Holy Experiment" in government as "the keystone of the

1 rich philosophy later adopted by the fathers of the Constitution
2 of the United States"; and

3 WHEREAS, In Penn's promotion of the ideals of the new colony
4 of Pennsylvania throughout Europe, "the American Dream" and its 5 idealization as a melting pot was established and still impacts 6 the world today; and

7 WHEREAS, The 1682 Treaty of Friendship with the Native
8 Americans, more widely known as the Shackamaxon Treaty, became a 9 universal historical symbol of religious and civil liberties and 10 is one of the few events in American history noted for its just 11 and fair treatment of peoples of different cultures; and

12 WHEREAS, William Penn was directly involved in the founding
13 of three of the original 13 colonies, specifically Delaware,
14 Pennsylvania and New Jersey, which became the first three states
15 to ratify the Constitution of the United States; and

16 WHEREAS, William Penn initiated the first call for a "united 17 states" in his 1696 "A Plan for Union for the English Colonies 18 in America"; and

19 WHEREAS, William Penn developed the first practical plan for 20 world peace and a "united nations" in 1693, which was 251 years
21 before the United Nations was established; and

22 WHEREAS, Hannah Callowhill Penn became the first female 23 Governor and Proprietor in the New World and of its largest and 24 most prosperous colony, served effectively for 14 years and set
25 the course of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through the mid-26 1750s; and

27 WHEREAS, William Penn had a direct influence on popular
28 national symbols, including the Liberty Bell and Independence
29 Hall, as well as the United States Constitution, which are all 30 included in the Independence Mall National Historic Park in

1 Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and

2 WHEREAS, The Liberty Bell was originally a 50th Anniversary
3 commemoration of Penn's 1701 Charter of Privileges, the most 4 democratic document in the world at that time, before
5 transforming into its present stature as an international symbol
6 of freedom, liberty and independence; therefore be it
