10 (j) Voting conflict.--

11 (1) Where voting conflicts are not otherwise addressed
12 by the Constitution of Pennsylvania or by any law, rule, 13 regulation, order or ordinance, the following procedure shall 14 be employed. Any public official or public employee who in 15 the discharge of his official duties would be required to 16 vote on a matter that would result in a conflict of interest
17 shall abstain from voting and, prior to the vote being taken, 18 publicly announce and disclose the nature of his interest as

1 a public record in a written memorandum filed with the person
2 responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting at which 3 the vote is taken[, provided that whenever a governing body
4 would be unable to take any action on a matter before it
5 because the number of members of the body required to abstain 6 from voting under the provisions of this section makes the 7 majority or other legally required vote of approval
8 unattainable, then such members shall be permitted to vote if 9 disclosures are made as otherwise provided herein. In the 10 case of a three-member governing body of a political 11 subdivision, where one member has abstained from voting as a 12 result of a conflict of interest and the remaining two 13 members of the governing body have cast opposing votes, the 14 member who has abstained shall be permitted to vote to break
15 the tie vote if disclosure is made as otherwise provided 16 herein].

17 (2) If a governing body would be unable to take any 18 action on a matter before it because the number of members of 19 the body required to abstain from voting under this section
20 makes the majority or other legally required vote of approval
21 unattainable or if, in the case of a three-member governing 22 body of a political subdivision, where one member has 23 abstained from voting as a result of a conflict of interest
24 and the remaining two members of the governing body have cast 25 opposing votes, the governing body shall, immediately after 26 disclosure of the conflict of interest by the member, appoint
27 alternate members as follows:

28 (i) If the appointment of alternate members is 29 provided for by law, the appointment shall be made
30 according to that law.

1 (ii) If the appointment of alternate members is not 2 provided for by law, the appointment shall be made by the 3 chairperson of the governing body.

4 Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
