THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE BILL

No. 804

Session of 2013

INTRODUCED BY CUTLER, REED, KAUFFMAN, AUMENT, HICKERNELL, PICKETT, ROCK, BAKER, SWANGER, TURZAI, LAWRENCE, GINGRICH, EVANKOVICH, GABLER, HESS, MILNE, TALLMAN, MOUL, GROVE, DENLINGER AND EVERETT, FEBRUARY 25, 2013

REFERRED TO COMMITEE ON INSURANCE, FEBRUARY 25, 2013

AN ACT

Amending the act of March 20, 2002 (P.L.154, No.13), entitled "An act reforming the law on medical professional liability; providing for patient safety and reporting; establishing the Patient Safety Authority and the Patient Safety Trust Fund; abrogating regulations; providing for medical professional 5 liability informed consent, damages, expert qualifications, 6 limitations of actions and medical records; establishing the 7 Interbranch Commission on Venue; providing for medical professional liability insurance; establishing the Medical 9 Care Availability and Reduction of Error Fund; providing for 10 medical professional liability claims; establishing the Joint 11 Underwriting Association; regulating medical professional 12 liability insurance; providing for medical licensure 13 regulation; providing for administration; imposing penalties; 14 and making repeals," providing for emergency care. 15 16 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 17 hereby enacts as follows: Section 1. The act of March 20, 2002 (P.L.154, No.13), known 18 as the Medical Care Availability and Reduction of Error (Mcare) 19 20 Act, is amended by adding a section to read: 21 Section 517. Emergency care. 22 (a) Qualified immunity. -- In a medical professional liability action arising out of the provision of emergency health care, no

23

- 1 physician or other health care provider shall be held liable for
- 2 any act or failure to act unless it is proven by clear and
- 3 convincing evidence that the physician or health care provider's
- 4 actions or omissions were grossly negligent.
- 5 (b) Mitigating circumstances.--In a medical professional
- 6 liability action arising out of the provision of emergency
- 7 health care, the trier of the fact shall consider, together with
- 8 all other relevant matters:
- 9 (1) Whether the person providing the care had the
- 10 patient's pertinent medical history, either from medical
- 11 records or from a reliable person, including information as
- 12 to preexisting medical conditions, allergies and medications
- 13 being taken.
- 14 (2) The preexistence of a physician-patient relationship
- or health care provider-patient relationship.
- 16 (3) The circumstances constituting the need for
- 17 emergency health care.
- 18 (4) The circumstances surrounding the delivery of the
- 19 emergency health care, including, if relevant, factors such
- as where the care was provided, the demands on the emergency
- 21 department at the time and the promptness with which it was
- 22 necessary to make medical decisions and to order and provide
- care.
- 24 (c) Definitions. -- The following words and phrases when used
- 25 in this section shall have the meanings given to them in this
- 26 subsection unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:
- 27 "Emergency health care." As follows:
- 28 (1) Health care services that are provided to an
- 29 individual:
- 30 (i) after the onset of a medical or traumatic

absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in placing the individual's health in serious jeopardy, serious impairment of bodily functions or serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part; or (ii) pursuant to a mandate under Federal or State law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of receiving medical treatment as a nonemergency patient or care be expected to result in placing the individual's health in serious jeopardy, serious impairment of bodily functions or serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part; or (ii) pursuant to a mandate under Federal or State law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of in serious jeopardy, serious impairment of bodily functions or serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part; or (ii) pursuant to a mandate under Federal or State law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of functions or serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part; or (ii) pursuant to a mandate under Federal or State law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
(ii) pursuant to a mandate under Federal or State law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
(ii) pursuant to a mandate under Federal or State law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of law, including the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of Labor Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (dd). (2) The term includes: (i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
(i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
(i) The described care in all settings, including prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of prehospital emergency care by a medical command physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of physician, emergency care in a hospital emergency department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of department or obstetrical unit or emergency care in a surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of surgical suite immediately following the evaluation or treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of treatment of a patient in a hospital emergency department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of department. (ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
(ii) All care or treatment, regardless of setting, until the individual is stabilized. (3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of 20 until the individual is stabilized. 21 (3) The term does not include care or treatment that 22 occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
(3) The term does not include care or treatment that occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of occurs after the patient is stabilized and is capable of
-
receiving medical treatment as a nonemergency patient or care that is unrelated to the original emergency or mandate.
"Emergency health care provider." Any health care provider 26 providing emergency medical care, including physicians in all
27 specialties.
"Health care service." Any act or treatment that is 29 performed or furnished, or that should have been performed or

- 1 patient during a patient's medical care, treatment or
- 2 confinement. The term includes the direction to perform, not
- 3 perform, furnish or not furnish a health care service.
- 4 Section 2. The addition of section 517 of the act shall
- 5 apply to all medical professional liability actions arising on
- 6 or after the effective date of this section.
- 7 Section 3. This act shall take effect in 60 days.