A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing the week of October 2 through 6, 2017, as "Financial 2 Planning Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, The House of Representatives affirms the value of 4 financial literacy, consumer education and professional outreach 5 by representatives of the financial services industry; and

6 WHEREAS, The House of Representatives further affirms the 7 value, in establishing long-term financial stability, of 8 identifying our personal financial habits and establishing and 9 revising our personal financial goals; and

10 WHEREAS, The Financial Planning Association is a nationwide
11 network of advocates and public educators providing financial 12 planning services and pro bono financial counseling, and is a 13 leading sponsor of "Financial Planning Week" events; and

14 WHEREAS, Personal spending, responsible financial planning
15 and awareness of the available resources needed to meet evolving 16 financial needs and access trusted independent advice are key

1 considerations of "Financial Planning Week"; therefore be it
2 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the 3 week of October 2 through 6, 2017, as "Financial Planning Week"
4 in Pennsylvania.
