REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON HEALTH, FEBRUARY 24, 2020

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the month of May 2020 as "Crohn's Disease and 2 Ulcerative Colitis Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis are 4 inflammatory bowel diseases that cause chronic inflammation and 5 damage in the gastrointestinal tract and impair the ability of 6 the affected organs to function properly; and

7 WHEREAS, The most common symptoms of these two diseases are 8 persistent diarrhea, abdominal pain, rectal bleeding, weight 9 loss and fatigue; and

10 WHEREAS, Individuals with inflammatory bowel disease often go
11 through periods of remission with few or no symptoms,
12 alternating with periods of flare-ups when the disease is active 13 and presenting symptoms; and

14 WHEREAS, The exact cause of these diseases is not entirely 15 understood, but they do involve a complex interaction between 16 genes, the immune system and environmental factors; and

1 WHEREAS, Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis affect as 2 many as 1.6 million Americans, including 80,000 children; and

3 WHEREAS, These diseases are most often diagnosed in 4 adolescence and early adulthood between 15 and 35 years of age; 5 and

6 WHEREAS, Cases of inflammatory bowel diseases are on the rise
7 in the United States, with nearly 70,000 people diagnosed each 8 year; and

9 WHEREAS, These chronic conditions can significantly affect a 10 patient's quality of life; and

11 WHEREAS, The annual financial burden of inflammatory bowel
12 diseases in the United States is estimated to be between $14.6 13 billion and $31.6 billion; and

14 WHEREAS, There is no cure for Crohn's disease or ulcerative 15 colitis, only medications and treatments that aim to suppress 16 inflammation, achieve and maintain remission and improve overall 17 quality of life; and

18 WHEREAS, Even with treatment, up to one-third of people with 19 ulcerative colitis require surgery after 30 years with the 20 disease, and approximately 70% of people with Crohn's disease 21 eventually require surgery; and

22 WHEREAS, The Crohn's and Colitis Foundation sponsors cutting-23 edge research to find a cure and works diligently to improve the 24 quality of life of children and adults affected by these 25 diseases through a wide range of educational programs and 26 support services for both patients and health care 27 professionals; and

28 WHEREAS, "Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis Awareness
29 Month" increases public awareness of these diseases,
30 acknowledges the medical and financial impact these diseases

1 have on affected individuals and their families and promotes 2 initiatives to improve treatments and find a cure for Crohn's
3 disease and ulcerative colitis; therefore be it

4 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate the 5 month of May 2020 as "Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis
6 Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania; and be it further

7 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives acknowledge 8 individuals suffering from these diseases and their desire for a 9 cure.
