
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE RESOLUTION

No. 1077 Session of 2020

INTRODUCED BY BOBACK, PICKETT, SCHLEGEL CULVER, HILL-EVANS,
HELM, LONGIETTI, BURNS, RYAN, POLINCHOCK, KULIK, READSHAW, MACKENZIE, ROTHMAN, MENTZER, DAVANZO, ISAACSON, THOMAS,
FREEMAN, MILLARD, SCHMITT, WEBSTER, SCHLOSSBERG, GLEIM,
HOHENSTEIN, STRUZZI AND SNYDER, OCTOBER 20, 2020

INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
OCTOBER 20, 2020

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the week of October 18 through 23, 2020, as 2 "National Business Women's Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Working women constitute more than 72 million of 4 this nation's workforce and they strive to serve their 5 communities, their states and their nation in professional, 6 civic and cultural capacities; and

7 WHEREAS, Women-owned businesses account for 40% of all United 8 States businesses, generating $1.9 trillion in sales; and

9 WHEREAS, In 1928, President Herbert Hoover designated the 10 third week of October as "National Business Women's Week"; and

11 WHEREAS, The major goals of Business and Professional 12 Women/USA are to promote equality for all women and help create 13 better conditions for working women through the study of social, 14 educational, economic and political issues; and

15 WHEREAS, For more than 85 years, various women's business
16 groups have been spotlighting the achievements and contributions

1 of working women during "National Business Women's Week";

2 therefore be it

3 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate the

4 week of October 18 through 23, 2020, as "National Business

5 Women's Week" in Pennsylvania.