

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

SENATE RESOLUTION

No. 89 Session of 2022

INTRODUCED BY SANTARSIERO, KEARNEY, HUGHES, MUTH, CAPPELLETTI
AND KANE, FEBRUARY 7, 2022

REFERRED TO RULES AND EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS, FEBRUARY 7, 2022

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing February 15, 2022, as "Love is Love Day" in 2 Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Each year, February 14, Valentine's Day is 4 celebrated and receives a great deal of media attention with 5 couples and loved ones proclaiming their love for each other;
6 and

7 WHEREAS, Individuals who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, 8 transgender, queer or questioning, asexual and other sexual 9 minorities (LGBTQ+) are often excluded from mainstream media
10 coverage of Valentine's Day; and

11 WHEREAS, Being an adolescent during a time when those around 12 you are expressing their love for each other can be 13 overwhelming, especially if you do not see examples you identify 14 with; and

15 WHEREAS, Twenty-six percent of LGBTQ+ youths say their 16 biggest problems are not being accepted by their family, trouble 17 at school and fear to be out or open; and

18 WHEREAS, Consequently, it is crucial for residents of this

1 Commonwealth to offer love to LGBTQ+ youths and become their 2 allies; and

3 WHEREAS, The manner in which parents and guardians engage 4 with their LGBTQ+ youths can have a tremendous impact on their 5 current and future mental and physical health; and

6 WHEREAS, LGBTQ+ students describe how hearing slurs, lacking
7 resources relevant to their experience, being discouraged from 8 having same-sex relationships and being regularly misgendered 9 have made school a hostile environment; and

10 WHEREAS, LGBTQ+ students describe persistent patterns of 11 isolation, exclusion and marginalization that make them feel 12 unsafe or unwelcome at school; and

13 WHEREAS, Supporting and accepting LGBTQ+ youths around you,
14 especially during a time when love is being celebrated, can 15 often help these youths better deal with life challenges and how 16 they are feeling; and

17 WHEREAS, In order to continue to promote the health and 18 safety of LGBTQ+ youths, schools and programs where youths spend 19 most of their time should advance the message of respecting 20 those different from you and prohibit bullying, harassment and 21 violence against those who identify as LGBTQ+; and

22 WHEREAS, Approximately 73% of LGBTQ+ youths say that they are 23 more honest about themselves online than in the real world,
24 making it urgent that more communities in this Commonwealth
25 offer support to LGBTQ+ youths around them; and

26 WHEREAS, Encouraging families and allies to facilitate access 27 to community-based providers who have experience providing 28 health services, including medical testing and counseling,
29 social and psychological services to LGBTQ+ youths is extremely 30 beneficial; and

1       WHEREAS, Accepting LGBTQ+ youths in our communities and in 2 society at large helps remind those who we care about that love
3 is love regardless of how they identify; therefore be it

4       RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize February 15, 2022, as 5 "Love is Love Day" in Pennsylvania.
