OVERVIEW:

House Bill 270 further provides for persons qualified to solemnize marriages by including a former or retired justice, judge or magisterial district judge who is not serving as a senior judge or senior magisterial district judge. This individual must meet the following criteria:

- has served as a magisterial district judge, judge or justice for an aggregate period equaling one year;
- has not been defeated for reelection or retention;
- has not been convicted of, pleaded nolo contendere to or agreed to an Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition or other probation without verdict program, relative to any misdemeanor or felony offense;
- has not resigned judicial commission to avoid having charges filed or to avoid prosecution by law enforcement agencies or by the Judicial Conduct Board;
- has not been removed from office by the Court of Judicial Discipline; and
- is a resident of the Commonwealth.

This act takes effect immediately.

ANALYSIS:

According to the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, the enactment of House Bill 270 will have no adverse impact on Commonwealth funds.
