General Fund	$0	$0
Public Housing Authority Funds	$0	$0

SUMMARY: Amends the Housing Authorities Law to restrict the use of employment contracts by certain public housing authorities. This legislation would take effect immediately.

ANALYSIS: This legislation amends the Housing Authorities Law to prohibit any housing authority that has a contract with the State Civil Service Commission to provide for a merit system of employment for making, executing or entering into employment agreements which are presently authorized under Section 10(gg) of the act.

Any individual hired under an employment contract and working under Civil Service before the effective date of the act shall continue to serve and have the rights of an employee hired under the Civil Service Act.

FISCAL IMPACT: This legislation would have no adverse fiscal impact on Commonwealth or public housing authority funds
