SUMMARY:

House Bill 703 amends the Public School Code concerning the publication of e-mail addresses for school directors and trustees. It would take effect in 60 days.

ANALYSIS:

House Bill 703 requires school districts and charter schools to publish on their websites an e-mail address for each of the members of their school boards of directors and trustees, which may be used by members of the public, school staff and students to communicate with individual directors and trustees regarding matters of school governance.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Enactment of this legislation will have no adverse impact on Commonwealth funds.
