SUMMARY:

House Bill 246 amends the Crimes Code concerning evidence and defenses to human trafficking to further provide protections to victims of human trafficking. It would take effect in 60 days.

ANALYSIS:

House Bill 246 amends the Crimes Code to further provide for protections to victims of human trafficking by stating that evidence of the age of the victim of human trafficking with respect to legal consent to sex or legal age of marriage will not constitute a defense against prosecution for human trafficking.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Enactment of this legislation will have no adverse fiscal impact on Commonwealth funds.
