PRINTERS NO. 1847

PRIME SPONSOR: Browne

COST / (SAVINGS)

FUND	FY 2021/22	FY 2022/23
General Fund	$597,057,000	$597,057,000

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1284, to be known as the State-related University Nonpreferred Appropriation Act of 2022, appropriates funding to the State-related universities. It would take effect immediately.

ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1284 appropriates funds to the State-related Universities for the 2022-23 fiscal year. The State-related Universities are the Pennsylvania State University, the University of Pittsburgh, Temple University, and Lincoln University. The bill also authorizes the appropriation of money contained within the Agricultural College Land Scrip Fund restricted receipt account for Agriculture Research and Extension Services. Funds provided for this account are appropriated as part of the General Appropriations Act. In addition, the legislation explicitly states that money appropriated to the University of Pittsburgh may only be used for costs directly related to the provision of instruction for graduate and undergraduate students and costs incurred in providing student-related services and community outreach services consistent with the existing laws of this Commonwealth.

Senate Bill 1284 makes the following appropriations:

- To Penn State University for general support: $242,096,000
- To Penn State for the Penn College of Technology: $26,736,000
- To the University of Pittsburgh, for general support: $151,507,000
- To the University of Pittsburgh, for rural education outreach: $3,346,000
- To Temple University for general support: $158,206,000
- To Lincoln University for general support: $15,166,000

FISCAL IMPACT: Enactment of this legislation will cost the Commonwealth $597,057,000 in 2022-23. This is the same amount that was provided for these appropriations in 2021-22.
