SUMMARY:

Amends Title 42 to prohibit the Pennsylvania courts, prothonotaries, peace officers, law enforcement agencies, and the Governor from cooperating with out-of-state civil and criminal cases involving reproductive health care services.

ANALYSIS:

House Bill 1786 makes the following changes to Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure):

- Amends Section 5324 to stipulate that a court of record of this Commonwealth shall have no authority to order service upon any person for any matter in a tribunal outside of this Commonwealth involving the provision or delivery of reproductive health care services;
- Amends Section 5335 to stipulate that a prothonotary shall have no authority to issue a subpoena for service upon any person for any matter in a tribunal outside of this Commonwealth involving the provision or delivery of reproductive health care services;
- Amends Section 8922 to stipulate that a peace officer of another state shall have no authority to arrest and hold in custody a person accused of a crime in such state involving reproductive health care services;
- Amends Section 9123 to stipulate that the Governor shall have no authority to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this Commonwealth for a criminal offense of another state involving the provision or delivery of reproductive health care services that would be legal under Pennsylvania law; and
- Amends Section 9146.1 to stipulate that a law enforcement agency in this Commonwealth holding a person who is alleged to have broken the terms of the person's probation, parole, bail, or any other release in the demanding state for an offense involving the provision or delivery of reproductive health care services that would be legal under Pennsylvania law shall have no authority to deliver that person to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state without the requirement of a Governor's warrant.

This legislation would take effect in 60 days upon enactment.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Enactment of this legislation will have no impact on Commonwealth funds.
