DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE OF BILL

House Bill 1842 amends the Osteopathic Medical Practice Act (Act 261 of 1978) by removing the requirement that a temporary graduate perfusionist license shall expire immediately upon notice that the licensee has failed the licensing examination.

This legislation will allow a graduate perfusionist to take a licensing examination more than one time before the temporary graduate license is revoked. Temporary graduate licenses are valid for two years.

This legislation would take effect in 60 days.

FISCAL IMPACT

Enactment of this legislation will have no adverse impact on Commonwealth funds.
