DESCRIPTION

Senate Bill 594 amends the Workers' Compensation Act regarding safety committees established by employers.

This bill expands the requirements for employer safety committees to include "providing information regarding the risks associated with opioid use". The legislation also requires the Department of Labor and Industry to develop and make available resources for employers to comply with the new requirement.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The Department of Labor and Industry is able to develop the resources for employers to comply with this legislation within existing staffing and budget levels.
