DESCRIPTION

House Bill 666 amends the Housing Authorities Law to repeal provisions that require executive-level employees of the Philadelphia Housing Authority to be at-will employees and that prohibit the authority from providing payment or other things of value to those employees in connection with separation from employment.

This legislation is scheduled to take effect immediately.

FISCAL IMPACT:

This legislation will have no fiscal impact on Commonwealth funds.

This legislation permits the Philadelphia Housing Authority to set the terms of employment for executive-level employees, including terms that could increase costs for the authority. Any such changes would be at the discretion of the authority members.
