MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 11, 2011
RE: Reintroduction of Legislation (former HB 779)
TO: All House Members
FROM: Representative Ed Staback ES

In the near future, I plan to reintroduce legislation that will remove the prohibition of Sunday hunting from Title 34 (Game). This proposal was introduced as House Bill 779 during the 2009-10 Legislative Session.

Specifically, my measure removes all prohibitions against Sunday hunting that are now in Pennsylvania law and, thereby, gives the Game Commission complete regulatory power regarding if, when, and where Sunday hunting can occur.

Since the Game Commission is the state's authority as to when people can hunt, it makes sense to me that they should have the responsibility to decide whether to include Sunday in any or all of the seasons they establish.
