RE: Introduction of Resolution – National Day of Prayer

I intend to introduce a resolution to recognize May 3 2012, as "National Day of Prayer" day in Pennsylvania. The National Day of Prayer is a day set aside to pray for our nation, and is held on the first Thursday of May. This annual event was not created for political reasons, but exists to encourage all citizens to pray for our leaders, communities, families, and each other, and for national healing, reconciliation and unity. It is completely nonsectarian.

We believe this resolution will be a Rule 35 noncontroversial one.
