MEMORANDUM

TO: All House Members
FROM: Representative Marguerite Quinn
DATE: March 23, 2012
SUBJECT: Resolution Commemorating the Bicentennial Anniversary of the Doylestown County Seat

In the near future, I will be introducing a resolution commemorating Doylestown, Bucks County, on the occasion of its bicentennial celebration.

The seat of Bucks County moved from Newtown to Doylestown in 1812. Doylestown is located near the geographic center of Bucks County. The decision to name Doylestown as the county seat has helped the borough grow politically and transform it into a transportation and commercial hub. Doylestown continues to grow culturally and economically and sustains a vibrant community for its citizens. The borough has enjoyed a rich, prosperous history over the past 200 years.

Thank you for your consideration. If you wish to co-sponsor this resolution, please contact Nicole Wilbourn in my office at nwilbourn@pahousegop.com or 717-772-1413.
