SUBJECT: Co-sponsorship of Resolution – Recognizing the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta

In the near future, we plan to introduce a resolution recognizing the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta, which will take place June 30 through July 4, 2012, in the City of Pittsburgh and western Pennsylvania.

The Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta, now entering its 35th year, is the tri-state's largest summertime event and the largest inland regatta in the United States. The 4th of July celebration alone attracts approximately half a million people, making it the region's most prolific festival of free family entertainment. The regatta was founded to celebrate community camaraderie and to promote the City of Pittsburgh's treasured waterscape, which defines the city's unique topography and personality. The Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta regularly features world championship performers in extreme air, water, and land sports. In addition, the regatta presents free concerts, water ski shows, bass fishing tournaments, national dragon boat championships, and kid zones.

If you would like to join us in recognizing the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta, please contact Jamie Fetter at (717) 783-1850 or jfetter@pahouse.net.
