SUBJECT: Resolution – Letterkenny Army Depot 70th Anniversary

In the very near future, I plan to introduce a Resolution recognizing Letterkenny Army Depot on their 70th Anniversary.

Letterkenny Army Depot came into existence in 1941 when the War Department chose it as one of its new Ordnance Depots to control the oncoming deluge of war material. In addition to having advantages such its safe, yet convenient distance from the eastern seaboard and Washington DC with land that was well suited for ammunition storage, good rail facilities an nearby power and water, it also had a great resource of people who historically had shown great courage and perseverance.

Today, Letterkenny Army Depot is the largest employer in Franklin County and continues to be a mainstay to the local economy. Its state-of-the-art facilities, combined with a highly skilled work force, enable Letterkenny to provide superior products and services to our nation's soldiers.
