Dear Colleagues,

One area of continuing confusion about the right to know law is whether government phone numbers and email addresses should ordinarily be considered public records available under the Right-To-Know Law. I believe that was the intent of the current law but the question keeps arising.

I will be introducing legislation to make the point certain.

Of course, exceptions related to security and so forth would still apply.

If you wish to be a cosponsor, please notify Shelly Weaver at 717-783-1522 or SWeaver@pahousegop.com

There will be no notification via interoffice mail.
