1 (P.L.277, No.60) and June 29, 2012 (P.L.657, No.76), is amended
2 to read:

3 Section 5.2. Criteria for review of regulations.

4 (a) [In] The commission, in determining whether a proposed, 5 final-form, final-omitted or existing regulation is in the 6 public interest, [the commission] or an agency, in determining 7 whether an existing regulation is in the public interest, shall, 8 first and foremost, determine whether the agency has the 9 statutory authority to promulgate the regulation and whether the 10 regulation conforms to the intention of the General Assembly in 11 the enactment of the statute upon which the regulation is based.
12 In making its determination, the commission or agency shall 13 consider written comments submitted by the committees and 14 current members of the General Assembly to the commission,
15 pertinent opinions of Pennsylvania's courts and formal opinions
16 of the Attorney General.

17 (b) Upon a finding that the regulation is consistent with 18 the statutory authority of the agency and with the intention of 19 the General Assembly in the enactment of the statute upon which 20 the regulation is based, the commission or agency shall consider 21 the following in determining whether the regulation is in the 22 public interest:

23 (1) Economic or fiscal impacts of the regulation, which 24 include the following:

25 (i) Direct and indirect costs to the Commonwealth,
26 to its political subdivisions and to the private sector.

27 (ii) Adverse effects on prices of goods and 28 services, productivity or competition.

29 (iii) The nature of required reports, forms or other 30 paperwork and the estimated cost of their preparation by

1 individuals, businesses and organizations in the public
2 and private sectors.

3 (iv) The nature and estimated cost of legal,
4 consulting or accounting services which the public or 5 private sector may incur.

6 (v) The impact on the public interest of exempting
7 or setting lesser standards of compliance for individuals 8 or small businesses when it is lawful, desirable and 9 feasible to do so.

10 (2) The protection of the public health, safety and 11 welfare and the effect on this Commonwealth's natural 12 resources.

13 (3) The clarity, feasibility and reasonableness of the 14 regulation to be determined by considering the following:

15 (i) Possible conflict with or duplication of 16 statutes or existing regulations.

17 (ii) Clarity and lack of ambiguity.

18 (iii) Need for the regulation.

19 (iv) Reasonableness of requirements, implementation
20 procedures and timetables for compliance by the public
21 and private sectors.

22 (v) Whether acceptable data is the basis of the 23 regulation.

24 (4) Whether the regulation represents a policy decision 25 of such a substantial nature that it requires legislative 26 review.

27 (5) Comments, objections or recommendations of a 28 committee.

29 (6) Compliance with the provisions of this act or the 30 regulations of the commission in promulgating the regulation.

1 (7) Whether the regulation is supported by acceptable
2 data.

3 (8) Whether a less costly or less intrusive alternative 4 method of achieving the goal of the regulation has been 5 considered for regulations impacting small business.

6 Section 3. Section 8.1 of the act, amended December 6, 2002
7 (P.L.1227, No.148), is amended to read:

8 Section 8.1. Existing regulations.

9 [The commission, on its motion or at the request of any 10 person or member of the General Assembly, may review any 11 existing regulation which has been in effect for at least three 12 years. If a committee of the Senate or the House of 13 Representatives requests a review of an existing regulation, the 14 commission shall perform the review and shall assign it high 15 priority. The commission may submit recommendations to an agency 16 recommending changes in existing regulations if it finds the 17 existing regulations to be contrary to the public interest under 18 the criteria established in section 5.2. The commission may also 19 make recommendations to the General Assembly and the Governor 20 for statutory changes if the commission finds that any existing 21 regulation may be contrary to the public interest.]

22 (a) Every five years, each agency shall perform a regulatory 23 analysis of its existing regulations to determine whether a 24 regulation is in the public interest using criteria established 25 in section 5.2. An agency may choose not to perform a regulatory 26 analysis on an existing regulation if the regulation has been in 27 effect for less than three years.

28 (b) If an agency finds that an existing regulation is not in 29 the public interest, the agency shall include with its analysis 30 the recommended changes it proposes to the existing regulation.

1 In making its proposal, the agency shall consider each of the 2 following:

3 (1) Less costly or less intrusive alternative methods of 4 achieving the goal of the regulation.

5 (2) Special provisions that minimize the adverse impact 6 of the regulation on affected groups and persons, when 7 consistent with health, safety, environmental and economic 8 welfare, and accomplish the objectives of the applicable
9 statutes. These special provisions may:

10 (i) Establish less stringent compliance or reporting
11 requirements.

12 (ii) Establish less stringent schedules or deadlines 13 for compliance or reporting requirements.

14 (iii) Consolidate or simplify compliance or 15 reporting requirements.

16 (iv) Establish performance standards for affected
17 groups or persons to replace design or operational 18 standards required in the regulation.

19 (v) Exempt affected groups or persons from all or 20 any part of the requirements contained in the regulation.

21 (3) Recommendations to the Governor and the General
22 Assembly for statutory changes.

23 (4) Repeal of the regulation.

24 (c) An agency shall have the discretion whether to compile 25 regulations into one analysis or multiple analyses, provided 26 that an analysis is performed on each of its existing 27 regulations and all analyses are completed within two years of 28 each five-year period.

29 (d) Regulatory analyses of existing regulations shall be:

30 (1) Submitted to the applicable committee or committees.

1           (2) Posted on the agency's publicly accessible Internet
2           website.

3           (3) Published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

4           (4) In a case where a regulation was promulgated
5           pursuant to a Federal statute or Federal regulation,
6           submitted to each member of Congress from Pennsylvania.

7           (e) Upon publication of an agency's analysis of an existing 8           regulation in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, the commission, on its 9           motion may, within 120 days, review the agency's analysis of an 10           existing regulation to determine if a regulation is in the 11           public interest using criteria established in section 5.2. If a 12           committee of the Senate or the House of Representatives requests 13           a review of an existing regulation, the commission shall perform 14           the review and shall assign it high priority. Before conducting 15           a review of an agency's analysis of an existing regulation, the 16           commission shall publish a notice of review in the Pennsylvania 17           Bulletin and allow for a 30-day public comment period. The 18           commission shall submit recommendations to an agency
19           recommending changes in existing regulations if it finds the 20           existing regulations to be contrary to the public interest under 21           the criteria established in section 5.2. The commission shall 22           also make recommendations to the Governor and the General 23           Assembly for statutory changes if the commission finds that any 24           existing regulation may be contrary to the public interest.

25           Section 4. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
