

AN ACT

1 Amending the act of December 5, 1936 (2nd Sp.Sess., 1937 2 P.L.2897, No.1), entitled "An act establishing a system of 3 unemployment compensation to be administered by the 4 Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly 5 created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) 6 selected on a civil service basis; requiring employers to 7 keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay 8 contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the 9 payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; 10 providing procedure and administrative details for the 11 determination, payment and collection of such contributions 12 and the payment of such compensation; providing for 13 cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies;
14 creating certain special funds in the custody of the State 15 Treasurer; and prescribing penalties," in preliminary 16 provisions, further providing for definitions; in 17 contributions by employers and employees, further providing 18 for relief from charges; in compensation, further providing 19 for ineligibility for compensation; and providing for 20 applicability.

21 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 22 hereby enacts as follows:

23 Section 1. Section 4 of the act of December 5, 1936 (2nd Sp.
24 Sess., 1937 P.L.2897, No.1), known as the Unemployment 25 Compensation Law, is amended by adding definitions to read:

26 Section 4. Definitions.--The following words and phrases, as

1 used in this act, shall have the following meanings, unless the 2 context clearly requires otherwise.

3 * * *

4 (z.8) "Abuse" means one or more of the following:

5 (1) Attempting to cause or causing physical harm.

6 (2) Placing another in fear of imminent serious physical 7 harm.

8 (3) Causing another to engage involuntarily in sexual 9 relations by force, threat or duress or engaging or threatening 10 to engage in sexual activity with a dependent child.

11 (4) Engaging in mental abuse, which includes threats, 12 intimidation or acts designed to induce terror.

13 (5) Depriving another of medical care, housing, food or 14 other necessities of life.

15 (6) Restraining the liberty of another.

16 (z.9) "Domestic violence" means abuse committed against a 17 claimant by:

18 (1) a current or former spouse of the claimant;

19 (2) an individual with whom the claimant shares a child in 20 common;

21 (3) an individual who is cohabiting with or has cohabited
22 with the claimant;

23 (4) an individual who is related by blood or marriage to the 24 claimant; or

25 (5) an individual with whom the claimant has or had a dating 26 or engagement relationship.

27 Section 1.1. Section 302.1(a)(1) and (c)(1) of the act, 28 added June 17, 2011 (P.L.16, No.6), are amended to read:

29 Section 302.1. Relief from Charges.--Notwithstanding any 30 other provisions of this act assigning charges for compensation

1 paid to employes, except for section 302(a)(2), the department 2 shall relieve an employer of charges for compensation in 3 accordance with this section and section 213 of this act.

4 (a) Circumstances allowing relief:

5 (1) If an individual was separated from his most recent work
6 for an employer due to being discharged for willful misconduct
7 connected with that work, or due to his leaving that work 8 without good cause attributable to his employment, or due to his 9 being separated from such work under conditions which would 10 result in disqualification for benefits under the provisions of 11 section 3 or 402(e.1) and (e.2) of this act, the employer shall 12 be relieved of charges for compensation paid to the individual 13 with respect to any week of unemployment occurring subsequent to 14 such separation. Relief from charges under this paragraph 15 terminates if the employe returns to work for the employer.

16 * * *

17 (c) Relief from charges without a request:

18 (1) If a claimant is determined ineligible for benefits 19 under section 3 or 402(b), (e) [or], (e.1) or (e.2) of this act 20 pursuant to a notice of determination that has become final, the 21 department shall grant relief from charges in accordance with 22 subsection (a)(1) to the employer from whom the claimant was 23 separated, beginning with the earliest week for which the 24 claimant is eligible for benefits following the week or weeks 25 governed by the notice of determination.

27 Section 2. Section 402(b) of the act, amended October 22, 28 1981 (P.L.301, No.106), is amended and the section is amended by 29 adding a subsection to read:

30 Section 402. Ineligibility for Compensation.--An employe

1 shall be ineligible for compensation for any week--

2 * * *

3 (b) In which his unemployment is due to voluntarily leaving 4 work without cause of a necessitous and compelling nature 5 attributable to his employment, irrespective of whether or not 6 such work is in "employment" as defined in this act: Provided, 7 That a voluntary leaving work because of a work-related 8 disability if the employer is able to provide other suitable 9 work, shall be deemed not a cause of a necessitous and 10 compelling nature attributable to his employment: And provided 11 further, That no employe shall be deemed to be ineligible under 12 this subsection where the Federal Unemployment Tax Act requires 13 eligibility, and provided that no employe shall be deemed 14 ineligible under this subsection if the employe is a spouse of a 15 full-time member of the United States Armed Forces or a full-16 time member of any of its reserve components, including the 17 Pennsylvania National Guard, and the employe is leaving 18 employment due to the reassignment of the military member to a 19 different geographical location: And provided further, That no 20 employe shall be deemed to be ineligible under this section for 21 voluntarily leaving work if the individual reasonably believes 22 that due to a domestic violence situation such individual's 23 continued employment would jeopardize the safety of the 24 individual. The domestic violence situation shall be verified by 25 reasonable and confidential documentation as the department may 26 require, to include a statement supporting the existence of 27 recent domestic violence from a qualified professional from whom 28 the individual has sought assistance, such as a counselor, 29 shelter worker, member of the clergy, attorney or health care 30 worker and any type of evidence that reasonably proves domestic

1 violence, but the department may not require an active or 2 recently issued protective or other order documenting domestic 3 violence, or a police record documenting recent domestic 4 violence, although a claimant may present such documentation as 5 evidence: And provided further, That no employe shall be deemed 6 to be ineligible under this subsection where as a condition of 7 continuing in employment such employe would be required to join 8 or remain a member of a company union or to resign from or 9 refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization, or to 10 accept wages, hours or conditions of employment not desired by a 11 majority of the employes in the establishment or the occupation, 12 or would be denied the right of collective bargaining under 13 generally prevailing conditions, and that in determining whether 14 or not an employe has left his work voluntarily without cause of 15 a necessitous and compelling nature attributable to his 16 employment, the department shall give consideration to the same 17 factors, insofar as they are applicable, provided, with respect 18 to the determination of suitable work under section four (t):
19 And provided further, That the provisions of this subsection
20 shall not apply in the event of a stoppage of work which exists 21 because of a labor dispute within the meaning of subsection (d).
22 Provided further, That no otherwise eligible claimant shall be 23 denied benefits for any week in which his unemployment is due to 24 exercising the option of accepting a layoff, from an available 25 position pursuant to a labor-management contract agreement, or 26 pursuant to an established employer plan, program or policy: 27 Provided further, That a claimant shall not be disqualified for 28 voluntarily leaving work, which is not suitable employment to 29 enter training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the Trade Act 30 of 1974. For purposes of this subsection the term "suitable

1 employment" means with respect to a claimant, work of a 2 substantially equal or higher skill level than the claimant's 3 past "adversely affected employment" (as defined in section 247 4 of the Trade Act of 1974), and wages for such work at not less 5 than eighty per centum of the worker's "average weekly wage" (as 6 defined in section 247 of the Trade Act of 1974).

7 * * *

8 (e.2) In which his unemployment is due to discharge or 9 temporary suspension from work for any of the following reasons:

10 (1) Failure to obey any reasonable workplace rule or work-11 related government regulation or law of which the employe was 12 aware.

13 (2) The deliberate damage to property of the employer or 14 another employe or the theft of an employer's or another 15 employe's property.

16 (3) Reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or 17 illegal drugs or consuming alcohol or using illegal drugs while 18 at work.

19 (4) Threatening a coworker or supervisor with physical harm 20 or threatening to harm the interests of the employer.

21 (5) Disregard of a supervisor's reasonable directives or 22 orders or acts of negligence which indicate substantial 23 disregard for the employer's interests.

24 (6) Failure to maintain a valid license or certificate that 25 has been issued by a Federal or Commonwealth agency or political 26 subdivision and which is a requirement of employment, unless 27 such failure was for reasons beyond the control of the employe.

28 (7) Failure to provide good cause for being absent from work 29 on two or more occasions or failure to report in a proper manner 30 under the employer's policy for absences from work on two or

1 more occasions.

3 Section 3. The amendment of section 402(b) of the act shall 4 apply to initial claims filed on or after January 1, 2015.

5 Section 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
