

A RESOLUTION

1 Urging the United States Secretary of Homeland Security to 2 reconsider the resettlement of Syrian refugees in the 3 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania until such time as systems are 4 in place to thoroughly conduct security and background checks
5 on Syrian refugees and to send a report detailing the 6 increased measures to the states that are under consideration
7 to receive Syrian refugees.

8 WHEREAS, In order to address the migrant crisis in Syria, the 9 Federal Government has indicated that the United States will 10 accept at least 10,000 Syrian refugees during fiscal year 2016;
11 and

12 WHEREAS, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has an abundant and 13 successful history of embracing immigrants; and

14 WHEREAS, The most important responsibility of government is 15 to protect the safety and security of the residents of the 16 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and

17 WHEREAS, On November 13, 2015, coordinated terror attacks
18 were carried out in Paris, France, killing at least 129 people 19 and injuring more than 350 people; and

20 WHEREAS, On November 14, 2015, the Islamic State (ISIS), a

1 deadly terrorist organization based in Raqqa, Syria, claimed
2 responsibility for the attacks and pledged further attacks
3 worldwide; and

4 WHEREAS, According to the French police, a Syrian passport
5 belonging to a Syrian asylum seeker who entered Europe through 6 Greece was found near the body of one suicide bomber; and

7 WHEREAS, This raises concerns that the security vetting
8 procedures used in addressing the Syrian migrant crisis are 9 inadequate; and

10 WHEREAS, On February 11, 2015, Francis X. Taylor, Under 11 Secretary for Intelligence and Analysis for the United States
12 Department of Homeland Security, stated, "We are concerned about 13 any group of people coming to the United States who may be 14 coming to the United States for nefarious purposes"; and

15 WHEREAS, Under Secretary Taylor further testified that 16 officials "want to make sure that if we are asked to vet 17 individuals from any part of the world to come to the United 18 States, that we have applied the most rigorous screening that's 19 available within the U.S. government"; and

20 WHEREAS, On February 11, 2015, Nicholas J. Rasmussen, 21 Director of the National Counterterrorism Center, testified in 22 front of the United States House of Representatives' Committee
23 on Homeland Security that Syrian refugees are:

24 clearly a population of concern and, as Under Secretary 25 Taylor said, what we want to be able to do is apply the 26 full weight of U.S. intelligence community holdings to 27 the vetting and screening process so that we can unearth 28 any information that we may have in our holdings that 29 gives us concern about particular individuals;

30 and

31 WHEREAS, On February 11, 2015, Michael B. Steinbach, 32 Assistant Director, Counterterrorism Division, Federal Bureau of 33 Investigation, testified in front of the United States House of

1 Representatives' Committee on Homeland Security that:
2 You have to have information to vet, so the concern in 3 Syria is that we don't have systems in place on the 4 ground to collect the information to vet. That would be 5 the concern we would be vetting--databases don't hold the 6 information on those individuals, and that is the 7 concern;
8 and

9 WHEREAS, Increased security measures are necessary following
10 the recent terror attacks in order to protect the security,
11 safety and basic freedoms of the residents of the Commonwealth
12 of Pennsylvania; therefore be it

13 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 14 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the United States Secretary of 15 Homeland Security to reconsider the resettlement of Syrian 16 refugees in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania until such time as 17 systems are in place to thoroughly conduct security and 18 background checks on Syrian refugees and to send a report 19 detailing the increased measures to the states that are under 20 consideration to receive Syrian refugees; and be it further

21 RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to 22 the United States Secretary of Homeland Security.
