

AN ACT

1 Amending the act of May 1, 1933 (P.L.103, No.69), entitled, as 2 reenacted and amended, "An act concerning townships of the 3 second class; and amending, revising, consolidating and 4 changing the law relating thereto," in election of officers 5 and vacancies in office, further providing for vacancies in 6 general.

7 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
8 hereby enacts as follows:

9 Section 1. Section 407 of the act of May 1, 1933 (P.L.103, 10 No.69), known as The Second Class Township Code, is amended to 11 read:

12 Section 407. Vacancies in General.--(a) If the electors of 13 any township fail to choose a supervisor, tax collector or 14 auditor, or if any person elected to any office fails to serve
15 in the office, or if a vacancy occurs in the office by death, 16 resignation under subsection (b), removal from the township or 17 otherwise, the board of supervisors may appoint a successor who 18 is [an] a registered elector of the township and has resided in 19 that township continuously for at least one year prior to their

1 appointment_[, and, upon their failure to make the appointment
2 within thirty days after the vacancy occurs, the vacancy shall 3 be filled within fifteen additional days by the vacancy board.
4 The vacancy board shall consist of the board of supervisors and 5 one elector of the township, who shall be appointed by the board
6 of supervisors at the board's first meeting each calendar year
7 or as soon after that as practical and who shall act as chairman 8 of the vacancy board. If the vacancy board fails to fill the 9 position within fifteen days, the chairman shall, or if there is 10 a vacancy in the chairmanship the remaining members of the 11 vacancy board shall, petition the court of common pleas to fill 12 the vacancy. If two or more vacancies in the office of 13 supervisor occur on a three-member board or three or more
14 vacancies on a five-member board, the court of common pleas 15 shall fill the vacancies upon presentation of petition signed by 16 not less than fifteen electors of the township. The successor so 17 appointed shall hold the office until the first Monday in 18 January after the first municipal election which occurs more 19 than sixty days after the vacancy occurs, at which election an 20 eligible person shall be elected for the unexpired term.]

21 (b) A resignation:

22 (1) Shall not create a vacancy until the date that the 23 resignation is accepted by a majority vote of the board of 24 supervisors at a public meeting or the effective date of the 25 tendered resignation, whichever is later. The board of 26 supervisors must accept a tendered resignation no later than 27 forty-five days after the resignation has been tendered to the 28 board of supervisors, unless the resignation is withdrawn in 29 writing prior to acceptance.

30 (2) That is not accepted as under paragraph (1) shall be

1 deemed accepted forty-five days after the resignation has been 2 tendered to the board of supervisors.

3 (c) If, for any reason, the board of supervisors refuses,
4 fails, neglects or is unable to fill a vacancy within thirty 5 days after the vacancy occurs, as under this section, the 6 vacancy shall be filled within fifteen additional days by the 7 vacancy board. The vacancy board shall consist of the board of 8 supervisors and one registered elector of the township, who 9 shall be appointed by the board of supervisors at the board's 10 first meeting each calendar year or as soon thereafter as is 11 practical. The appointed elector shall act as the chairperson of 12 the vacancy board.

13 (d) If the vacancy board fails to fill the position within 14 fifteen days, the chairperson, or if the position of the 15 chairperson is vacant, the remaining members of the vacancy 16 board shall petition the court of common pleas to fill the 17 vacancy.

18 (e) If two or more vacancies in the office of supervisor
19 occur on a three-member board, or three or more vacancies occur 20 on a five-member board, the court of common pleas shall fill the 21 vacancies upon presentation of a petition signed by at least 22 fifteen registered electors of the township.

23 (f) A successor appointed under this section shall hold 24 office until the first Monday in January after the first 25 municipal election which occurs at least sixty days after the 26 vacancy occurs, at which election an eligible person shall be 27 elected for the unexpired term.

28 Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
