

Section 2803-E. Judicial facilities.

(a) The Administrative Office shall no later than the effective date of this section move operations for the Commonwealth Court and the Superior Court to the Judicial Center in the City of Harrisburg.

(b) The Administrative Office shall no later than the effective date of this section move operations of the Supreme Court to the Supreme Court Chambers Judicial Center in the City of Harrisburg

(c) In order to facilitate the move, the Administrative Office shall:

(1) terminate any lease used for the operations of the Commonwealth, Superior Court and Supreme Court outside the City of Harrisburg

(2) sell any building owned by the administrative office used for the operations of the Commonwealth Court, Superior Court or Supreme Court outside of the City of Harrisburg

(3) take any other step necessary to facilitate the transfer of court operations under this section to the Judicial Center

(d) As used in this section the Administrative office shall mean the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts under section 1902 of Title 42 (relating to Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts).