

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, January 3, 1961

At 11:30 a.m., the Honorable David M. Boies, a Member from Allegheny County, accompanied by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Norman Wood, made the following announcement in the Hall of the House.

In accordance with the provisions of Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, the Members-elect of this 145th regular session of the House of Representatives will meet this day at twelve o'clock noon in the Hall of the House for the purpose of organization.

The hour of twelve o'clock having arrived, Honorable Joseph Ominsky, Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, called the Members-elect to order and announced that:

This being the day and the hour fixed by Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania for the meeting of the General Assembly, the Members-elect of the House of Representatives will come to order.

The CHIEF CLERK. At the conclusion of the prayer the Members-elect will remain standing in silence until the sound of the gavel as a mark of respect to the memory of our Members who have died during the past year, Honorable Robert Wheeler, Member from Fayette County who died June 13, 1960; Honorable Samuel Mahan, County of Butler, died June 15, 1960; Honorable Charles F. Luigard, County of Berks, a Member-elect, died December 30, 1960.

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Reverend David R. Hoover, Pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, McConnellsburg, Fulton County, Pennsylvania, as follows:

Almighty and Everlasting Father, Thou who best ordained government, and Thou who dost continually guide and direct those whom Thou hast called into this service, we look to Thee at the beginning of this new Session with confidence and assurance; grant to the Members of this House of Representatives the awareness of Thy presence, make them conscious of Thy accessibility and bestow upon them the richness of Thy grace.

We sadly regret the passing of Representative Charles Luigard who served this House capably and was to have been present at this Session.

In the troubled times which face this world of ours, we humbly pray that Thou wilt look with favor upon those who guide the destinies of this great Commonwealth; and by the exercise of Thy power in their lives, enable them to make real and lasting contributions for the welfare of all men everywhere: through Jesus Christ, Thy dear Son, Our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever One God, world without end. Amen.

RESOLUTION

OATH OF OFFICE

Mr. Sakulsky, a member-elect offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 3, 1961.

Resolved, That the Honorable David H. Weiss, a Judge learned in the law of the Court of Common Pleas of Westmoreland County, be requested to administer the oath of office required by Article VII of the Constitution, to be taken by the Members of the House of Representatives.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT HONORABLE DAVID H. WEISS TO ROSTRUM

The CHIEF CLERK. The Chair appoints the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Maxwell, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Donaldson, to escort his Honor Judge David H. Weiss to the rostrum.

The Committee will proceed with the performance of its duty.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to present Honorable David H. Weiss, Judge of Westmoreland County.

The Committee is discharged with the thanks of the House.

OATH ADMINISTERED TO MEMBERS-ELECT

The CHIEF CLERK. A Bible will be found in the desk of each Member-elect for those who swear by the Bible.

The Members-elect will rise, raise their right hands and remain standing at their desks during the administration of the oath of office to which they will swear or affirm. We will ask the visitors also to rise after the gavel has sounded.

The oath of office will be administered to two hundred and six Members-elect by Honorable David H. Weiss as follows:

Do you solemnly swear, or affirm, that you will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and that you will discharge the duties of your office with fidelity; that you have not paid or contributed, or promised to pay or contribute, either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing to procure your election, except for necessary and proper expenses expressly authorized by law; that you have not knowingly violated any election law of this Commonwealth, or procured it to be done by others in your behalf; that you will not knowingly receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for the performance or non-performance of any act or duty pertaining to your office, other than the compensation allowed by law?

The CHIEF CLERK. I have the honor to present to the Members of this House a former distinguished Member of this House and one with whom I had the honor and pleasure to serve as a Member. He just administered the oath to you, the Honorable David H. Weiss, who will have a few remarks to make.

HONORABLE DAVID H. WEISS. Reverend Hoover, Officers of the House, Members of the House: It is with a very deep sense of humility that I have accepted the honor that you as Members of the House have bestowed on me in selecting me to administer the oath of office to you on this very auspicious occasion.

This brings back many nostalgic feelings about the many things that occurred when I was a Member of this Assembly. We cannot help but turn the clock back a few years and recall many happy occurrences with the Members of this august body from the years 1937 to 1951.

It was as a Member of the House that I met my wife. It was during one of the recesses that we were married. It was as a Member of this House that our children were born. It was as a Member of this House that I had the opportunity to make an everlasting friendship with so many fine colleagues.

If I had to do it all over again, high up in the agenda would be the opportunity to again serve as a legislator in this august body. I pray that all of you may have an interesting and successful Session. Godspeed be with you!

Today is an occasion that will remain with me eternally and I will cherish every moment of it. From the bottom of my heart I thank you, each and everyone.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The CHIEF CLERK. Are there any requests for leave of absence?

(No leaves of absence were requested)

RESOLUTION

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

Mr. TAYLOR offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 3, 1961.

Resolved, That in accordance with the provisions of Article 2, Section 9 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, the House do now proceed to the election of a Speaker, and that the Clerks act as Tellers.

NOMINATION FOR SPEAKER

The CHIEF CLERK. The House will now proceed to the election of a Speaker. Nominations are in order.

The chair recognizes the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Mr. McCann.

Mr. McCann. Mr. Chief Clerk, today in this Session of the General Assembly, I have the distinct honor and pleasure to bring into nomination the first name of this great body of the House of Representatives, a man from Cambria County, who for well over half a century has been a part of the Hall of the House of Representatives, both as a newspaper reporter and editor, a Member, and twice Speaker.

Today we place his name in nomination and for the first time in the history of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the name's to be placed for the third time as the Speaker of this great House.

Words would by far be inadequate to describe the things and the work that this man has done. In behalf of the Members of the House and his colleagues therefore, I place in nomination the name of Hiram G. Andrews of Cambria County for Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The CHIEF CLERK. The gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, places in nomination for the Office of Speaker of this House, the gentleman from Cambria, the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews.

The chair recognizes the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Chief Clerk, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is with a great deal of personal pleasure that I rise to second the nomination of my very good friend, and my very close neighbor from Cambria County, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

As has been pointed out, I believe, there is probably no Member of the House who through the years has done so much for the Members of the House as the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews. I am sure no one in this Commonwealth can say that they have done more, not only to raise the dignity of being Members of this House, but the dignity of the House itself in the housing we enjoy, the salaries we receive, and the fine attention that we get as Members of this House.

Therefore, with a great deal of personal pleasure, I second the nomination of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, and at this time move that the nominations for Speaker be closed.

The CHIEF CLERK. The gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, seconds the nomination of Hiram G. Andrews, and moves that the nominations be now closed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was unanimously agreed to.

The CHIEF CLERK. There being no other nominations, the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews is unanimously declared elected Speaker of this House.

The Chair requests the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, a former Speaker of this House, to now take the Chair and preside.

Ladies and gentlemen of this Assembly, I have the honor of presenting the Honorable W. Stuart Helm, a former Speaker of this House who will now preside, Mr. Helm.

Mr. HELM IN THE CHAIR

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT SPEAKER-ELECT TO ROSTRUM

Mr. HELM. The Chair appoints the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, the gentleman from Allegheny. Mr. Agnew, to escort the Speaker-elect, Mr. Andrews, to the rostrum.

The committee will proceed in the performance of its duties.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO SPEAKER-ELECT

The oath of office was administered to the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews, Speaker-elect of the House of Representatives by the Honorable David H. Weiss.

Mr. HELM. It is my pleasure to present to the Speaker of this House his gavel, and Mr. Speaker, I present you to the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. It is a distinct privilege to receive the emblem of parliamentary decorum from the hands of one who has, in former Sessions, wielded it with such marked distinction.

I was a Member of this House when the gentleman from Armstrong was serving as Speaker. I observed his decisions with a critical eye and none of them was ever even remotely subject to appeal. The gentleman from Armstrong and I have worked together in promoting many projects of interest to the Members of this House. He is a valued friend and I thank him for his many evidences of endearing friendship.

To the Members of this House I can only say at this time that the best way to express my appreciation of the consideration accorded me is through faithful, diligent service which has as its objective the maintenance of House decorum—a matter concerning which the public judges us.

We rise in dignity as we rise in our observance of House decorum—the maintenance of legislative dignity, and the promotion of projects designed to minister to the effectiveness and the convenience of this body, the primary objectives of any Speaker and one of my primary objectives.

All of the Members of this House will recognize the many changes in matters of procedure and convenience that have already been made over the years. We older Members also know that many changes designed for the efficiency and convenience of the membership in general, and its Committees in particular, are, as yet, in the making.

After all these many, many years of functioning as one of the Houses of the General Assembly, we are still, in many respects, miserably housed. We must do something about that in the days to come. In view of what has been done, I would indeed be ungrateful and unmindful of the realities if I did not call your attention to the services rendered by the Members of the Special Select Planning Committee, by your Chief Clerk, and by our Parliamentarian. The unsightliness of high stacks of bills upon the desks of the Members is gone forever. That is a consummation, I think, to be devoutly proud of. Thank the Chief Clerk and the Parliamentarian for that.

The pink bills that were always a nuisance are no longer with us. Thank the Chief Clerk and the Parliamentarian for that.

The Members of the Special Select House Planning Committee in their learned experience furnished these advances. I want them to live in your memory, and it is, of course, our design to perpetuate that Committee. The Members of that Committee were: the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen; the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti; the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mihm; the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm; the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Bower, and the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Lippincott.

The consultant Members were: the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, the Majority Leader; the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, then the Minority Leader, and the Speaker.

This Committee planned all the changes that have been made in the Hall of the House, including, of course, the installation of the electric roll call and the improvements made to the public address system and other added conveniences.

Planning, of course, is one thing, but the execution of the plan is something else. It was the Chief Clerk who supervised the execution of the plan, and I say in all sincerity, without whose services in executing the plan, the plan would have fallen flat on its face.

Moreover, the Chief Clerk and the Parliamentarian came through with a lot of ideas, good ideas, designed to further the convenience of the Members. Ideas that, incidentally, I imagine never occurred to the Members of the Planning Committee.

In any event, the Members of the Planning Committee, the Chief Clerk, and the Parliamentarian have rendered an outstanding service, a service that marks an end to an era and the beginning of a new deal as far as this House is concerned, because the best is yet to come.

The House needs more space for its Committees. The conditions under which our Committees have been compelled to work are deplorable, deplorable as compared with the service facilities that are provided for House Committees in other states. We cannot do what should be done to secure decent working facilities for House Committees right away, but we can make our plans for what we need. A two-year plan, a four-year plan, a six-eight- and even a ten-year plan. I am serious when I refer to long-range planning. If the present Members of the House will stick around long enough, they will see the day when the General Assembly, through its various activities, will utilize practically all the space in the main Capitol Building.

That is in the making. The Museum Building will be remodeled. They say there is already $2 million available for that purpose. When the building is remodeled, the Governor's Office will go over there. I imagine the Attorney General's Office will go over there. I imagine the Budget Office will go over there, and I hope it will be soon. It cannot be right away because we cannot remodel the museum building until the new museum building is erected. The decision has been made and $9 million appropriated, allocated by the General State Authority.

It is our hope that the Special Select House Planning Committee will be continued. What we have lacked in the past has been continuity in planning. We have had our little spasms and the plans have lasted for one Session, or for a few months, and then the planning is shelved and we have gone along in the same old rut, putting up with inconveniences that are not compatible with the dignity of this Body. The continuation of the Special Select House Committee will give us the continuity essential to the completion of our long-range program.

As Legislators, we all realize the fact that there is much to be done. The people who elect us have a right to expect diligence in the doing. We have the electric roll call. It may develop its bugs, but they will be remedied. We have an expert who will be with us constantly if anything arises in connection with it.

The chair knows one thing the electric roll call cannot do that a desk can do. The electric roll call cannot record votes that are not cast. It has been possible sometimes in the past. I have not seen it recently. It has been years and years, back in the days of the wicked Republicans, when it recorded Republican votes that disappeared from poor Democrats who were absent for some reason or other. Democrats were absent and they marked him up as voting for the bill. So, of course, that was years and years and years ago and nothing like that can happen now. The electric roll call this year calls the roll and if there is any delay I imagine the Speaker will be very lenient. But, if we are going to use the electric roll call as a means of encouraging absenteeism on the part of the Members, then I would sooner we would turn it down and get back to the other. There will be no reason for unreasonable delay in the affairs of this Session. We will have the executive budget at a very early date, we will have the Administration's legislative program at a very early date. Now it is my considered opinion that if we work at our job in proper fashion, there is no reason why we should not finish the pending Session before June becomes a thing of the past. That is a consummation devoutly to be wished.

If we bicker, if we play for place, if we are partisan purely for the sake of partisanship, we could be here once again until the snow flies. The people, I imagine, will judge us by our diligence in the performance of the duties for which we were elected. The public will expect better things at our legislative hands. This legislative Session could develop a situation which would make it impossible from day to day to determine which Floor Leader is actually in command of the situation as far as Members are concerned.

Absenteeism can create many problems which only reason can solve. We cannot expect Members, whether of the Majority or the Minority, to drop their conviction. You must stand by your convictions ladies and gentlemen. But we can expect, and the people will expect, that the Party of what may frequently be a theoretical minority will base its opposition to the Administration's plan on the basis that it has a better plan. There should be a legislative endeavor, there should be harmony based upon sound reason. But since there is so much to do, perhaps the thing to do is to get about doing it.

I thank you for your attention.

A speaker having been elected and the Members sworn, the Chair instructs the Sergeant-at-Arms to procure the Mace and place it upon the rostrum.

This Mace is the emblem of our dignity and of our State's sovereignty.

THANKS TO THE CHIEF CLERK

The SPEAKER. The Chair extends the thanks of the House to the Chief Clerk for the efficient manner in which he has conducted the organization proceedings. Incidentally if I had a driving ambition to remain as Speaker, I would not want him to be Speaker very often. He did too well, entirely to well. He made even as good a Speaker as he made Chief Clerk. I say in my memory I have never known a better Chief Clerk who has been more diligent to the service of the Members of this House. Some day there are certain employes of this House who will become career men and women. May I pass that over as a suggestion to the so-called Minority Party to bear in mind.

RESOLUTION

ELECTION OF CHIEF CLERK

Mr. HAMILTON offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives
Tuesday, January 3, 1961.

Resolved, That the House do now proceed to the election of a Chief Clerk of the House, and that the Clerks act as Tellers.

Mr. FINEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I have had assigned to me today the very pleasant function of offering in nomination as a candidate for the office of Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, the name of Mr. Joseph Ominsky.

After your glowing tribute to Mr. Ominsky in your remarks I trust that what I have to say will not pale in comparison.

The post of Chief Clerk is unquestionable among the most important of all of the offices in the Legislative branch of our state government. It is, in fact, the nerve center of the operation of this great legislative body and is indispensably vital to the orderly, efficient and proper conduct of the business of the House. It is a position of great responsibility that demands at once, and at the same time, dedicated, devoted and arduous toil, as well as scholarship, executive ability, keen judgment, decisiveness, quick comprehension, cordiality and, at times, forbearance and compassion.

As a matter of fact, in my opinion, the title of Chief Clerk is a misnomer and does not carry a connotation that is in keeping with the stature and dignity of that office. It would be well for this House to undertake at some near date whatever action is appropriate to retitle this position.

It is because of the importance of this post that I am so delighted to have the opportunity to offer the name of Mr. Ominsky in nomination for election to same, since in my opinion he fills, in every regard, the exacting and demanding requirements dictated by the responsibilities and burdens of this office.

There reposes within Mr. Ominsky, that required and desired combination of basic sound judgment and scholarship and deep personal dedication. We have but to look around this Chamber today and we can quickly observe the physical evidence of his abiding interest and concern, not only in the welfare and convenience of the House members and the efficient, orderly operation of the business of the House, but as well with the elevation of the dignity of this deliberative body.

May I as you did, point out, Mr. Speaker, the lecterns at each microphone, the redesigning of the Speaker's rostrum to a larger and more comfortable working area, the handsome lounge for the Members in the lobby of the House Chamber, the glossy brightness of this Hall, and, of course, the installation of the new electric roll call system, which received so much of Mr. Ominsky's personal attention.

To those of us who had the honor of membership in this legislature last session when Mr. Ominsky served as Chief Clerk, we know well of his talents and his abilities. To the neophytes among us, I say you will learn in due course of his affable, cooperative, understanding, and erudite manner.

He held the office of coroner in the city of Philadelphia. He is an engineer and a distinguished attorney. I have heard it said that these particular offices do indeed qualify him for the office of Chief Clerk because by reason of the fact that he was a former Coroner in the City of Phila., he has the ability to assist in the burying of legislation that should be buried. As an engineer, he can help steer to a successful conclusion legislation that should see the light of day and as an attorney he has the ability to distinguish between the two.

It is with a strong sense of pride, Mr. Speaker, that I offer in nomination for the post of Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, the name of Mr. Joseph Ominsky.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia places in nomination the name of Mr. Joseph Ominsky of Philadelphia, candidate for Chief Clerk.

Mr. AGNEW. Mr. Speaker, when the program was laid out for today, Mr. Fineman and I were charged with the pleasant responsibility of making fine comments about our Chief Clerk, not the Speaker. I think you upstaged us Hi.

As Mr. Fineman, the gentleman from Philadelphia said, it was with pride that he nominated Mr. Ominsky for re-election to the position of Chief Clerk. It is with real pleasure that I can second this nomination. When I was asked if I would represent the minority in making this second, I stated that I could do so and any remarks I made I could make with complete sincerity.

I know from personal experience the prompt, courteous, and efficient service that the Chief Clerk's office has rendered to all Members, whether in the Majority or Minority during the last two years. All requests, to my knowledge have been met with fairness and with promptness and with absolute impartiality between Members of the Majority and Members of the Minority. I think this is the way the Chief Clerk's office should be operated and I think Mr. Ominsky has shown how it should be done.

As Minority Members, about the nicest thing we can say about Mr. Ominsky's services as Chief Clerk is, that at this moment we have no suggestions to improve the efficient operation of that office and if that office is operated during the next two years as well as it has been during the last two years, the Members of the Minority will be very pleased with the Chief Clerk's office.

For that reason and because of my personal association and great liking for Mr. Ominsky, it is my honor to second his nomination, representing the Minority and to move that the nominations be closed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Joseph Ominsky has been unanimously re-elected Chief Clerk of this House.

NOTIFICATION SENATE IS ORGANIZED

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. Speaker, the Committee on the part of the Senate.

Mr. YATRON. Mr. Speaker, we have been appointed as a Committee on the part of the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate is now organized and ready to proceed with the business of the Session.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the committee on the part of the Senate.

RESOLUTION

ELECTION OF SECRETARY

Mr. KORNICK offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 3, 1961.

Resolved, That the House do now proceed to the election of a Secretary of the House, and that the Clerks act as Tellers.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, for the position of Secretary of the House, I desire to nominate a man who is well known to all the Members of this House. He is a man whose ability, his integrity, his honesty and his friendship is unquestioned. I think he has proved himself in the time that he has served here as a Member of this House to be a fine, competent gentleman.

I am not going to take up a lot of time going over his many fine qualifications now, for it would take a long time to do so. I want to say this: he is competent; he has served this House well. I know of no man who is better fitted by training and experience as an attorney, as a Member of this House, and as Caucus Chairman of the Majority Party than Phil Lopresti of Cambria County.

I, therefore, place in nomination the name of Philip Lopresti of Cambria County for Secretary of the House of Representatives.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, it is a great pleasure for me to stand here today and second the nomination of Phil Lopresti.

Before I do that, as an elder statesman now of this House, I feel that I should welcome the visitors here today. Nobody has done that.

We want to say to the visitors, you are here in the Hall of one of the finest Houses of Representatives in this Nation, where we make the laws for the people of Pennsylvania and we want to welcome you here. As Charlie Weaver says, "You are our people." You are welcome here.

I also want to say to the new Members that are here, you should be welcomed to the Hall of this House. What a tremendous achievement it is for me that we have been elected to this, the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania. You can serve your constituents well. You can be an honor to your communities and to the state and you are afforded a great privilege by being here today.

We have had a wonderful working House. Wasn't it nice what they said about Mr. Ominsky. I want to join in that tribute to Joe Ominsky. He has done an outstanding job. Now he needs a good secretary to carry out the other duties of the House which fall upon the Secretary of the House. Dean Polen has pretty well set forth the quality of this gentleman.

In any legislative body we find a fellow who has balance, who has good sound judgment, that people listen to when he gets up to make a speech. Such a person is Phil Lopresti. When he was a Member of this House he was just that kind of person. He had our rapt attention. He has solved the problems of his party well, and is a credit to the Democratic Party and to this House. He is returning to us as Secretary of the House, and it is my great pleasure and privilege to second his nomination.

I move that nominations for the office of Secretary of the House of Representatives be closed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to,

The Speaker, Philip Lopresti has been unanimously elected Secretary of the House.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT CHIEF CLERK AND SECRETARY

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Fineman, and the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, to escort the Chief Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the House to the well of the House where the oath of office will be administered to them.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO THE CHIEF CLERK AND SECRETARY

The Oath of Office was then administered to Joseph Ominsky, Chief Clerk-elect, and Philip Lopresti, Secretary-elect of the House by Honorable David H. Weiss.

REMARKS BY CHIEF CLERK

The SPEAKER. Perhaps our Chief Clerk has a word of greeting for the Members of this House and perhaps the Secretary has also a word.

The Chair recognizes the Chief Clerk.

The CHIEF CLERK. (Joseph Ominsky). Mr. Speaker, first I wish to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Fineman, for placing my name in nomination before the House for the position of Chief Clerk, and for the gracious manner in which he did it. He is a good friend, neighbor and representative from my district where I and my family reside. Perhaps it belies the adage that a prophet is without honor in his own community. My gratitude also goes out to the Members of the Philadelphia delegation, and its Chairman, Mr. Dougherty, the Majority Whip.

Secondly, I want to express my appreciation to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Agnew, the Minority Leader, for seconding my nomination and making it a unanimous choice of the membership of this House.

But most of all, Mr. Speaker, I desire to extend my grateful thanks to all the Members for their vote of confidence given me for the services which I humbly and sincerely rendered during the past two years by reelecting me as Chief Clerk, and for the opportunity they give me now to further render such services.

If I have attained any measure of success in the operation and functioning of the Chief Clerk's office, it was because the Members of this House were understanding and cooperated fully. Especially am I thankful to you, Mr. Speaker, and to the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, the Majority Leader, as well as to all the officers of the House, and members of my staff, and more particularly the Secretary of the House, Mr. Moomaw, who as you know, will carry the experience and enlightened administration to the other Chamber of this General Assembly.

Then, too, Mr. Speaker, my task was made much lighter because of the understanding and loyalty of my lovely wife and of my family from whom, of necessity, I had to be away a good part of the time during the past two years.

In closing may I state that I shall continue to serve all the Members, and this great Commonwealth diligently and impartially to the best of my God-given abilities.

To the new Members may I extend the helping hand of my staff and myself to make their term of office a most successful one.

God bless you all!

The SECRETARY (Philip Lopresti). Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I too wish to thank the gentleman from Washington and the gentleman from McKean for my nomination and seconding, and most particularly the Members.

I want to state that I am grateful for the opportunity of remaining with you. It will be a joy to see you each day when you come into Session. I hope that you will visit and call my office as often as you can. I am most grateful for the opportunity of continuing the friendships that we have enjoyed over these last few years.

I only trust that I will be able to fulfill the duties of the office and that my staff and I will be able to efficiently and courteously concur with each and every demand that you make upon us. I want to assure you of one thing, that we will always be available and ready when you call.

Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. The Chief Clerk recalls the fact that one of our Officers has gone to serve in another place. Now, I do not want you to become offended—this is purely confidential what I am saying, do not tell anybody, it is just between us. In a public address not so very long ago, his Excellency, the Governor, refused to Members of the House who had graduated into the Senate. We do not graduate them, we send them there as missionaries.

APPOINTMENT OF PARLIAMENTARIAN

The SPEAKER. In compliance with the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania approved the 28th day of May, 1931, as amended, the Speaker has appointed S. Edward Moore, Cumberland County, Parliamentarian of the House of Representatives.

The PARLIAMENTARIAN (S. Edward Moore). Mr. Speaker, one rule is that a Parliamentarian will never vote and never make a speech. I am very grateful for the privilege of again serving in this delightful body.

RESOLUTION
THANKING JUDGE

Mr. MAXWELL offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 3, 1961.

Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives do hereby extend their thanks to the Honorable David H. Weiss for his services in administering the oath of office to its Members and Officers.

REMARKS BY MR. JIM

Mr. JIM. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, this is one of my greatest days as a legislator in the General Assembly.

We are honored with the presence of the Honorable David H. Weiss, Judge of Westmoreland County, who administered the oath of office to the members of this House of Representatives.

Judge Weiss is a former member of the House, having served seven terms from 1937 to 1950, representing the Third District of Westmoreland County.

We are delighted also to have with us today, Mrs. Ruth Schick, President of the First District Democratic Guild, and a delegation of 41 women from her fine organization.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEMOCRATIC FLOOR LEADERS

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the Democratic Caucus, I have been instructed to make an announcement for the information to the Members of the House and for the record, and to announce that the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Stephen McCann, has been elected by the Democratic Caucus as the Majority Leader of the House, and that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. James J. Dougherty has been elected Majority Whip of the House.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADERS

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the Republican Caucus, I have been instructed to announce for the information of the House and for the record that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Willard Agnew Jr. has been elected by the Republican Caucus as Minority Leader of the House, and the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Edwin W. Tompkins as Minority Whip of the House.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. May the Chair say just a brief word? The Chair wonders if the Members of this House realize the expense and the worries that they impose upon their Floor Leaders, particularly in a hectic Sessions day.

They do not work eight hours a day, they work 16 hours a day. The Chair ought to know when I hear all of the gripes and all of the grumbles of all of the Members go across the desk. It has been my opportunity to observe Floor Leaders. The Chair was Minority Floor Leader in this House for five Sessions, the Chair knows.

It is never adequately recognized in matters of remuneration like the reward these men are entitled to. Somebody ought to do something about it.

The Chair wants to tell you another thing, he has worked a long time with Floor Leaders, and here is something that the Chair values more than anything else in the world so far as this House is concerned. No Floor Leader, Republican or Democrat ever told me a lie. We cannot always have insight into Party doings, and we do not expect that. But no Republican thought of it, all the time the Chair was Minority Floor Leader, and no one, since the Chair has been Speaker, has ever told him a lie. Their word was good, an ally of honor, and the Chair hopes we all appreciate that and do all we can in Committees and other ways to ease the burden.

The Chair is glad to serve, the Majority Floor Leader is glad to serve, and the Minority Floor Leader, and the Chair knows that they will continue to carry on the traditions which the Floor Leaders of this House have established. The Chair had a very happy relationship with the gentleman from McKean. The Chair did not always agree with him, he did not always agree with me, but we never deceived each other. Those are happy memories to carry away from this House today.

LAWRENCE

GOVERNOR LAWRENCE. Mr. Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the General Assembly:

It is good to see so many of you—so many old friends and so many old opponents, who are likewise my old friends—returned to these legislative chambers.

I would not be frank if I did not tell you that it is also good to see some new faces, especially when those new members add to the strength of the party in power in the Executive Branch.

And I know you will sympathize with me when I say that we could use another Democrat or two in the Upper House. It would make us all breathe more easily.

But, as I have said before, it is the people who select their instruments of government.

You and I—210 members of the House, the 50 members of the Senate, the Lieutenant Governor, the Governor of the Commonwealth—we are those instruments; we are the legislative process embodied in 262 human beings, no more and no less fallible than the 11,000,000 people whom we represent and serve.

We have a common responsibility to do our best.

As we meet today, it is plain that only our very best will do.

For this Session will not be—it cannot be—anything like the legislative travesty which died, unmourned, on November 14th last. This must be a working Session, a Session which will move with all deliberate speed to adopt an operating Budget, to adopt a Highways Budget, to enact a capital program, to consider and enact legislation in a wide range of vital matters, to propose desirable constitutional Amendments, and to reapportion the Congressional and Legislative Districts in the State.

We will be working with the clock running, and there can be very few time outs.

I must remind you that for the first time in our modern history, we must make our appropriations and levy our taxes on an annual basis. The more leisurely days of the Biennial Budget are gone; we cannot let months and months go by in indecision or in bickering. It will do no good—indeed, it will do much harm—to stall, or to wait for something to turn up, or to provide the paralysis of deadlock.

I will submit the budget for the General Fund and the budget for the special funds, including the Motor License Fund, on January 16th, which is thirteen days away. You will, I am sure, give these basic documents of government your prompt consideration, and adopt them—with such modifications as your own judgment may direct—well in advance of the next fiscal year, which begins on June 1st.

We will submit to the Legislature, in February, a capital budget substantial in size, but by no means disproportionate to the necessities of our life together. It will emphasize the needs of higher education, of such welfare services as mental health; and of resources development, including the reservation of land now for our future parks and reservoirs.

This session of the Legislature may expect to receive also the report of the Governor's Committee on Education. The Lieutenant Governor, who ably presides over the Committee, informs me that its report will, hopefully, be rendered to us in March.

In the executive departments, we are now preparing the bills which will be the principal Administration measures to be placed before you at this session. Our time table calls for their submission by the second week of February.

These proposals will apply in many critical areas of public action. Within the State's own operations, we will ask for statutory Civil Service protection for technical and professional employes—the career personnel whom we must attract, train, and continue in the State's service. We will press for effective legislation dealing with the registration of lobbyists and with conflicts of interest.

In the field of welfare legislation, we will submit a program to deal with and prevent juvenile delinquency. As we all know, medical care for the aging is a matter of great concern and sharp dispute. In this case, we will not propose legislation until we have a clear signal from the Federal Government. I have joined the majority of the Nation's governors, including Governor Rockefeller in our adjoining State of New York, in not acting to implement the present Federal program. It would be my hope that Congress will speedily enact a sounder and more effective program, based upon social security, as advocated by the President-elect. But before we are through with our work here, we will know what we must do to bring the benefits of a medical care program to our older people.

In the field of human relations, we will again ask for legislation to prevent discrimination in housing. To such fair housing legislation, our program will add a desirable broadening of our Fair Employment Practices Law and will eliminate the final vestiges of discrimination in education.

We will ask for an increase in the State minimum wage level, now as low as 39 cents an hour, and ask for stronger legislation to control abuses of migratory labor.

Once more, we will ask the Legislature to provide us with as strong a highway safety program as we may reasonably impose. And once more, we will ask for effective control of the billboards which deface all too many of our highways.

We will suggest a program of State aid to extend public library services throughout the Commonwealth.

We will propose that the State take positive action to protect the consumer.

We will seek to improve the administration of justice by the appointment of court administrators.

We will ask you to help us further protect our countryside against the ravages of strip mining.

We will recommend a more effective public program to develop our tourist and resort industries, with State cooperation and assistance to local community agencies.

In agriculture, we will suggest more vigorous action—public and private—to promote the sale of Pennsylvania's farm products.

Now, none of these things bears a label of "must" legislation, in the sense that it is "must" for me as Governor or "must" for the Democratic Party. But I believe it can be fairly argued that each of these legislative proposals will be good for the people of this State. Each of them will contribute to a better life among us. Each of them derives its necessity, each finds its purpose, each may properly be labelled "must" in the needs of the great majority of Pennsylvania voters, regardless of their party.

I hope that they will be so considered in this Legislature.

In addition to this program of bills to be submitted for your action, there are a variety of other legislative matters to which I earnestly direct your attention and support.

It has become increasingly apparent that the traditional responsibilities of the Department of Forests and Waters are being broadened by the emphasis we now must give to State parks and outdoor recreation. I will propose a reorganization plan which will change the name of the Department to the Department of Conservation and Recreation, and group within it various State agencies concerned in these fields. The Game and Fish Commissions would, of course, continue the separate existence justified by the hunting and fishing license fees which support them.

In this field of conservation, one of our most important efforts must be in water resources.

And one of our most important water resources is the Delaware River and its tributaries. I expect that in this Session I will have the opportunity of recommending to you an Interstate-Federal Compact for the Development of the Delaware, in which we would join with our sister states of The Valley and the National Government. I also hope to report to you the beginning of similar planning and development for the Susquehanna Valley, and the valleys of the Allegheny, Monongahela and Upper Ohio.

In another field of conservation—the conservation of human resources—I will again urge you to join in an interstate compact in regard to mental health.

This Session will also have before it a proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution and several proposed amendments to our State Constitution which were approved in the first go-around in the 1959 Session. I hope that you approve the proposed Twenty-third Amendment to the National Constitution which will permit our fellow-citizens in the District of Columbia to vote for President and Vice President.

In our own State, I hope you will let the people vote on whether or not their Governor, their Auditor General, and State Treasurer may succeed themselves, if re-elected, for one term. I hasten to add that the Amendment does not apply to the present occupant of the Governor's Office.

To this point, I have talked principally about our own direct concerns—the responsibilities which we will share in this 1961 Session. Those responsibilities must be exercised against a background which must give us serious concern.

I cannot say to you that all is well with the State.

We are making measurable progress in every phase of the State's own operations. We are increasingly the good associate—the partner—of our communities and of our citizens, as they seek to improve our opportunities and raise our community and individual standard of living. I think we are a responsive and an alert State Government, working to achieve progress with our business interests, our labor organizations, our civic groups, and our local governments, without regard to political association.

But what we can do in State Government—the very best we can do—can only supplement the strength, or in some small way, compensate the weakness of the national economy.

We know that as of this day and this month, the national economy is not so operating as to make things bright and rosy for us in Pennsylvania. When steel is operating at less than forty-five per cent of capacity, when more than eight of every hundred men and women in the Pennsylvania labor force are unable to find work, we are in trouble.

We then learn that debates about our national rate of economic growth are not an idle numbers game, as some people have said, but a matter of a livelihood to hundreds of thousands of our people. We then realize that a national income that has flattened out is not a statistic—but a tangible witness to deepening unemployment. We then know that Pennsylvania, with its many areas of chronic labor surplus—the polite word for permanent unemployment—needs national, as well as State, solutions.

I earnestly hope—I am sure you share that hope—that the directions of our national policies will be guided with some understanding of our special needs, and our right in Pennsylvania to share again the Nation's goal of full employment for every person able and willing to work.

That hope is given confidence by the report of the President-elect's task force, headed by Senator Douglas, which was made public over the weekend. Pennsylvania, whose State Planning Board Chairman and Secretaries of Commerce, and Labor and Industry served on that task force, would be aided materially by implementation of the recommendations by executive and Congressional action. I have appointed a group of department heads from the State Government to work with Federal officials to help convert the recommendations into positive program.

It would be fatal, of course, to relax any effort of our own. We should be ready to do more; we should be ready to use every assistance we may get, every tool that is given us, every power that is within us to do more—much more.

It is said—we have all heard it—that the business of an opposition is to oppose. We expect that in our politics. It is normal and healthy—in normal, and healthy, and robust times.

I would suggest to you—to all of you on both sides of the aisle—that we need something more than that in Pennsylvania today. We need accommodation. We need common effort. We need acceptance of common goals and a common march to their achievement.

May I hope—may I ask—may I beseech you to make this 1961 session memorable in Pennsylvania because we had the moral courage to put aside extremes of partisanship, to put aside obstruction and reprisal, and do what's right for our State and its people.

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. Thank you very much, Governor Lawrence. On behalf of the Members of the General Assembly I take this method of thanking you.

The Committee on the part of the Senate and the House will now escort His Excellency, the Governor, to his chambers.

The General Assembly will be at ease.

Mr. POLEN asked and obtained permission for the Select Committee on Legislation to meet during the session of the House.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity while the Committee is deliberating upon these bills to announce to the Membership of the House our full plans and schedule for tomorrow, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, next week and the following week.

This House will convene tomorrow, Wednesday, at 4:30. The time has been changed so that the Committee may attend the funeral of Mr. Luigard at Reading, Pennsylvania.

Thursday, at 12:01 a.m., the House will officially vote on the electric roll call the first time on House Bill No. 1 and House Bill No. 2.

At that point, following Wednesday's midnight Session, the Members may leave to go home.

This House will be in Session awaiting completion of these bills on Thursday, Friday and Friday midnight. Following the midnight Session in the Senate on Friday night the bills will be signed by the Speaker sometime after midnight and placed on the Governor's desk for signature in the wee hours of Saturday morning.

There is no Session planned for any of the Members following the midnight Session. Today, when this House adjourns until tomorrow, there will be a reception in the new House Caucus Room which is given by the Officers and the Old Members for the forty-two new members of the House who today took the oath of office.

The following week, the week of January 9, there will not be any Session, which is Farm Show Week. The Committee on Committees will report and complete their work for Monday, January 16, the next day that the House and Senate will be in Session.

On Monday, January 16, the Joint Session in which the Governor will present the first annual fiscal budget will be at 5 p.m., Eastern Standard Time. The House will be in Session Monday, the 16th, and Tuesday, January 17.

The following week, the week of Monday, January 23, the House will be in Session, Monday the 23rd, Tuesday, the 24th and Wednesday, the 25th of January.

All these dates have been cleared with the respective Hotel Managers of the city of Harrisburg so that each will have hotel space in the respective hotels.

Should for any reason anything unforeseen develop on House Bills Nos. 1 and 2, if for any reason an amendment or any other item should have to be placed in the bill, which at this time is not foreseen in any way, it would require, should such an amendment be required in the bills, that Friday after midnight, at 12:01 Saturday morning, a quorum must be present in the Hall of this House to ratify such an amendment if such an amendment is needed. It is not believed in any way an amendment is required. These bills have been checked and rechecked and double checked in an effort to foresee whether such an amendment should occur, but it would be mandatory on the part of the General Assembly that we place these two bills on the Governor's desk for signature into law for we run out of Public Assistance money at midnight, Monday, January 9, and from that point there would be no Public Assistance money for anyone in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Therefore, I hope that when we leave here following 12:01 Wednesday night that the Members will be excused and will not have to return until Monday, January 16, to the Halls of this House.

The Electric Roll Call Rule changes will be acted upon tomorrow in the Hall of this House. Those changes are in the possession of the Members, mimeographed by the Chief Clerk's office and have been provided for a short meeting which worked in adopting the change in House Rules so that the Electric Roll Call Rules could be in use for the Wednesday midnight Session.

I hope that we will have an opportunity, I believe the Republican Party has a caucus scheduled for a specific time, we on the Democratic side will hold a Democratic caucus on Wednesday following the Session, since a committee of 40 Members will be designed by the Speaker and will be at the funeral of Mr. Luigard tomorrow afternoon.

Therefore, when the House convenes Wednesday at 4:30, then a Democratic caucus following the Wednesday Session, and the Wednesday midnight Session and then the following January 16, the House will convene at 3:30 Eastern Standard time. We hope that at that time we will be able to work out a specific time schedule on voting on bills, that is an hourly schedule, so that we will vote at a specific time at each day's Session.

There will be also, for the information of Democratic Members of the House, beginning tomorrow the first 100 pieces of legislation ready for distribution and introduction, for sponsorship and introduction to go to the Standing Committees on January 16.

Mr. Speaker, I thank you.

Mr. AGNEW. The Republican House Minority has no present plan for any caucus for the rest of the week. If it should develop that a caucus is necessary sometime tomorrow after the 4:30 Session, the Members will be notified. The Republican Members will receive from their Caucus Chairman plans as complete as possible sometime prior to the week of the 16th. Thank you.
