Eternal and Everlasting God, as the dawn of a new day has pulled aside the curtain of darkness and permitted the light to shine through, we ask Thee to dispel the darkness of doubts which flood in upon us and prevent us from placing the trust and confidence in Thee we should. We beseech Thee to let the light of Thy truth so shine upon our lives that we may exemplify in word and deed Thy will and way; and we humbly pray that we may forever be conscious of Thy indwelling presence in order that we may find the peace which is Thine to give and the faith which is Thine to share. LEGISLATION TO BE INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Hayes.

Mr. S. E. HAYES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Many of the members will recall that approximately 2 weeks ago the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, in a controversial 4-to-3 decision, left some question as to section 308 of our Crimes Code with regard to intoxication and drug over-use as they play a part in criminal offenses.

Representative Reed and myself have both worked with the Legislative Reference Bureau to begin drafting legislation which will address itself to this problem, and I would like to announce to the membership that I have prepared for introduction today a bill which begins our attention in that area.

If there are members who would like to join me, I would certainly ask their cooperation in this matter. I have the bill, Mr. Speaker, for signatures at this time. Thank you.

LEGISLATION TO BE INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, in addition to what Representative Hayes just mentioned, the bill to amend section 308 of Title 18 of the Crimes Code, specifically, is setting immediately to my left for those members who would be interested.

It has exactly the same intent that Representative Hayes' bill has; the wording is slightly different. The wording in this particular bill is: "Nothing in this title shall deter from the responsibility of any person for any acts committed while under the willfull intoxication or influence of alcohol, drug, narcotic, or other such willfully consumed or applied substance that may have altered temporarily the behavior of that person." This has exactly the same intent which Representative Hayes is referring to.

Members on both sides of the aisle who might be interested in getting on this bill are certainly invited to do so. In fact, we would encourage persons to get on both bills.

Thank you.

LEGISLATION TO BE INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mercer, Mr. Bennett.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to make a brief statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, the legislation that I am introducing today is of considerable importance to all of the members of this body, regardless of their political party, and to all of their constituents, regardless of the area or the section of the state in which they reside. It is legislation that would have a statewide impact and, more importantly, a positive effect on Pennsylvania that would be felt for years and even decades to come. I am referring to the necessity and the opportunity to help assure the success of Pennsylvania's Bicentennial observation.

It goes without saving that the Bicentennial celebration represents a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for our state to host literally millions of visitors from the United States and abroad. Not in my life span, nor probably in the life span of anyone in this chamber, will Pennsylvania again have this chance to demonstrate to the nation and to the world the richness of its scenic and natural beauty, its historical significance, and the hospitality and warmth of its people.

If we recognize this opportunity and act now, we will be making an investment for Pennsylvania that will be returned many times over in the form of increased business in the state, more jobs and income for the people, and added revenues for our municipalities and for the Commonwealth; revenues, I might add, that would come almost entirely from outside Pennsylvania.

According to figures supplied by the Commerce Department, Pennsylvania's travel industry added some $7 billion to the economy of the state and employed about 360,000 state citizens in the last fiscal year. It returned more than half a billion dollars in taxes to state and local governments at an expenditure of little more than $4 million by the Commonwealth, and it is estimated by officials of the department that a fully supported state Bicentennial observation could double the amount of tourist dollars spent in this state last year.

Published reports of public opinion surveys indicate Bo Br that Philadelphia alone may have from 20 to 45 million Br visitors next year. That is a takeoff point for estimating Br the statewide impact. What this means is that many mil-Bu lions of people will come to Pennsylvania and leave with one of two attitudes---cither they will want to return and Cir they will and will speak well of their visit to friends and neighbors, or they will be disappointed. It would take many, many years, under ordinary circumstances, for Cu Da Pennsylvania to achieve the favorable reputation among Da the visitors that we can achieve in just one year-1976. De On the other hand, if Pennsylvania's Bicentennial fails, Di it may take many years to recover our loss. Di

Mr. Speaker, I am proposing that we take advantage of this opportunity now while it presents itself by appropriating $10 million to the Bicentennial Commission, and another $2.3 million to our local county tourist promotion agencies for their local observances.

Mr. Speaker, I want to carefully point out that this Fa Fe money would be spent throughout the state, not just in one portion of the Commonwealth, and it would have Fis Fla both an immediate and long-term stimulating effect, af-Fo fecting the local economy in each and every county and Fo every district. Fr

 C_{22} Mr. Speaker, I am offering these bills today for joint, Ga bipartisan sponsorship. They will be placed on the table, Ga and I would urge and request each and every one of my | Ge colleagues who is sincerely interested in the future of Pennsylvania to affix their signatures thereto. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader
