Session of 1975

159th of the General Assembly

Vol. 1, No. 88

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (Joseph A. Sullivan)
IN THE CHAIR

PRAYER

REVEREND DOCTOR DAVID R. HOOVER, chaplain of the House of Representatives and pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, with pure hearts and minds we draw near to Thee, in the fleeting moments of this day, to refresh ourselves at the fountain of life which never runs dry. We have come to know Thee as that strength and stay, in the lives of each of us, which will withstand the temptations of this world, and impart that stamina to move forward in the search of truth and right. Now, we humbly pray that Thou wilt grant to these workmen of Thine a full life through which they may express to Thee their thanks and gratitude for all of Thy graciousness, their tender compassion for the needs of others, and their sincere dedication to the extension of Thy kingdom in the hearts and minds of all mankind. Amen.

JOURNALS APPROVED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Are there any corrections to the Journals of July 22, 23, 24, and August 27, 1975?

If not, and without objection, the Journals are approved.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, approval of the Journal for Tuesday, November 25, 1975, will be postponed until printed.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. IRVIS. Mr. Speaker, we shall be doing no voting in this afternoon's session, reserving this afternoon's session for caucusing. The Democratic caucus will start at 2:15. I have been asked when we will start the active business of voting tomorrow. We will open the session at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, hopefully we will be ready to take some of the votes up which we were delayed in taking up the last time we met. 1 o'clock tomorrow for session, 2:15 for the Democratic Caucus, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, it is my request that you keep the desk open so that those members who have not yet been registered on the master roll will have an opportunity to register.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Itkin. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. ITKIN. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ITKIN. Mr. Speaker, Senate bill No. 580 was read across the desk today—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman suspend, please?

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. ITKIN. Senate bill No. 580, Mr. Speaker, was read across the desk today. The question that I have is, when will the bill be signed by the Speaker?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. I have to beg the indulgence of the Speaker, I did not hear you. Will the gentleman suspend, please?

Will the gentleman proceed, please?

Mr. ITKIN. Mr. Speaker, Senate bill No. 580 was read across the desk today. I would like to know when the Speaker will sign the bill and when the Governor will receive it?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under House rule No. 6, the Speaker must sign the bill in the presence of the members and since the Speaker is not here, I cannot answer the question.

Mr. ITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the Constitution provides that the Speaker must sign the measure immediately upon being read across the desk.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority leader.

Mr. BUTERA. Mr. Speaker, there will be a Republican Caucus upon the adoption of the recess motion. It should not last terribly long but we would like everybody to come to the caucus room at once so that we can complete our business in less than 1 hour.

CORRECTION ON CAUCUS TIME

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair would like to make a correction. The Democratic Caucus will start at 2:30.

The desk will remain open for anyone who is not on the master roll call. At 4 o'clock anyone who has not voted on the master roll call can vote at 4 o'clock.

There was a hearing held at the State Office Building, Philadelphia on December 4, 10:00 of the Basic Education Subcommittee of which Roland Greenfield is Chairman. The purpose of the hearing was H. R. 132.

Mr. RITTER, chairman of the Federal-State Relations Committee, presented the following report:

Subject: Committee Meetings

To: The Honorable Herbert Fineman
 Speaker

From: James P. Ritter, Chairman
 Federal-State Relations Committee

The Federal-State Relations Committee held no meetings during the week of December 3, 1975.

Mr. RENWICK, chairman of the Game and Fisheries Committee, presented the following report:

Subject: Committee Meetings

To: Honorable Herbert Fineman
 Speaker

From: William F. Renwick, Chairman
Committee on Game and Fisheries

The Committee on Game and Fisheries did not hold any meetings the week of December 1, 1975.

Mrs. KELLY, chairman of the Health and Welfare Committee, presented the following report:

December 8, 1975

Subject: WEEKLY REPORT

To: Honorable Herbert Fineman, The Speaker

From: Anita P. Kelly, Chairman of the Committee on Health and Welfare

During the week of December 1, 1975, which was an important session week, there were no meetings held by the Committee on Health and Welfare.

Mr. ECKENBERGER, chairman of the Law and Justice Committee, presented the following report:

November 25, 1975

Subject: Law and Justice Committee Meeting—
November 24, 1975

To: Committee Members

From: William H. Eckensberger, Jr.

The Chairman, presiding, called Meeting No. 25 to order at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, November 24, 1975 in Room 246. The secretary called the roll, the result of which is recorded on the attached Attendance Sheet. The minutes of the prior meeting were approved.

The Chairman then proceeded to the agenda. The first order of business was the calling of House Bill 706. Mr. Brandt, seconded by Mr. Polite, moved to report House Bill 706 as committed (Vote No. 1 attached). Passes 10-3.

The second order of business was the calling of House Bill 1945. Mr. DiCarlo and Mr. Barber objected to consideration of this bill, since it was uncertain whether the bill had been referred to the Committee as of the time of the meeting. The Chairman ruled that the objections were in order and the bill was removed from consideration at this time.

The meeting was attended by Captain Chylak of the State Police and Attorney Peter Foster of the Justice Department.

Adjourned: 2:00 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority leader.

Mr. BUTERA. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Yohn, whom I believe is one of the sponsors of House bill No. 1590, if not, he is very interested in it, asked me to make an announcement—he has left the floor temporarily—that he intends to call this bill for a vote this week before the 15th day.

He would like to have everyone alerted to that fact so that they can get their amendments together. I believe he is going to attempt to call it tomorrow for amendments so that there will be enough time to vote this bill before the 15th day expires.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. BUTERA. Mr. Rappaport concurs with that announcement so any of you who have amendments, let us get them to Rappaport and Yohn prior to tomorrow or Wednesday.

BILLS AND REPORTS NOT CALLED UP

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, all other bills and reports on the calendar will go over.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This House is now in recess until 4:00 p.m.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
(A. J. DeMedio) IN THE CHAIR

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor, being introduced, presented the following communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 803

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Governor's Office, Harrisburg

November 26, 1975

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 803, Printer's No. 2077, entitled "An Act clarifying the powers of constables, county detectives, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs. WATERWAYS PATROLMEN AND GAME PROTECTORS."

This Bill purports to clarify the powers of constables, county detectives, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, waterways patrolmen and game protectors.

However, in fact the measure would further confuse an already badly confused situation regarding the powers and duties of these several types of law enforcement agents. The myriad statutory provisions relating to these law enforcement agents are in many cases quite old and are in need of revision, especially considering that the court interpretation of the statutory duties have been so numerous and so conflicting.

Furthermore, The Supreme Court, by its Rules of Criminal Procedure, has ruled that these law enforcement agents shall not have the power of arrest without warrant. The effect of this bill on that rule is uncertain in light of Article V, section 10 (c) of the Constitution.

I believe that the area of the powers and duties of constables, sheriffs, and other law enforcement agents is clearly one requiring intensive study and analysis. My administration stands ready to assist in these efforts. I urge the General Assembly to investigate this situation and I would hope that the courts, perhaps through the Court Administrator, would also address the problems here.

For these reasons, I must return House Bill No. 803 without my signature.

MILTON J. SHAPP
GOVERNOR

BILL AND VETO MESSAGE TABLED

Mr. IRVIS moved that the bill and the veto message from the Governor be laid upon the table.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
Motion was agreed to.
