MEMBERS' PRESENCE RECORDED

The SPEAKER. The following members ask that their names be added to the master roll:

CALENDAR BILL AGREED TO ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The following bill, having been called up, was considered for the second time and agreed to, and ordered transcribed for third consideration:

HB 2291, PN 3962.

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 2822, PN 3921, entitled:

An Act establishing a Department of Corrections; providing for correctional facilities for inmates, for administration of correctional field services, for joint county detention facilities and for the powers of courts with respect to offenders, establishing the Pennsylvania Parole Commission and providing for its powers and duties and making repeals.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

HB 2822 RECOMMITTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that HB 2822 be recommitted to the Appropriations Committee for a fiscal note.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fisher.

Mr. D. M. FISHER. Mr. Speaker, on Mr. Ryan's motion to refer HB 2822 to the Appropriations Committee, I would move that the rules of the House—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not in order. There is a motion before the House. The gentleman is recognized to debate the motion.

Does the gentleman, Mr. Fisher, wish to debate the motion?

Mr. D. M. FISHER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I think everybody is cognizant of the fact that the House and the Senate are soon to adjourn, not only for the pre-election recess but for the entire session. The bill which is before us, the subject of the motion by the majority leader, is a bill which would establish a new department of corrections in Pennsylvania. I believe it is very much part and parcel of the resolution of the problem involving the Attorney General. There are also some other basic reforms in the bill. It is my opinion, knowing the legislative process as it is, that if this bill is referred to the Appropriations Committee—and that says nothing for the Appropriations Committee or its chairman, Mr. McClatchy, whom I have great respect for—but I am very fearful that sending this bill to the Appropriations Committee will mean that we will be unable to consider this bill before the session adjourns.

Now, an additional reason that I believe that it is not necessary to send this bill to the Appropriations Committee is as follows: When the bill was considered by the Judiciary Committee on September 16, 1980, previous to the time of its consideration, I obtained from the Office of Budget and Administration what I believe would be the basis of a fiscal note that would be provided by this House Appropriations Committee. I have before me a fiscal note regarding this bill, which indicates that the total fiscal impact beginning on the effective date of the bill of July 1, 1981, would be $314,000. Approximately half of that fiscal impact would be one-time expenditures which would not be repeating expenditures.

Now, the fiscal impact of $314,000 I think should be compared to the question of how much the department of corrections' total budget is. Under HB 2822 the total budget will be in excess of $100 million. So I think the fiscal impact is insignificant at best. I have before me a fiscal note which I would believe would be the same fiscal note that would be provided by the Appropriations Committee, and I do not believe under the circumstances the exigency of this situation for considering the department of corrections that there is any need to send this bill to the Appropriations Committee.

Now, I understand that under the rules of the House—I believe rule 22—that before this bill could receive second consideration, a fiscal note would have to be attached. For that reason I attempted to make a motion, subsequent to the time of Mr. Ryan's motion, to suspend the rules. The Chair properly ruled me out of order, but before I give up this fight, I would like to make a motion to put Mr. Ryan's motion for referring the bill to the Appropriations Committee on the table. So I would move that Mr. Ryan's motion to refer the bill to the Appropriations Committee be put on the table at this time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in error. There is no parliamentary procedure to put the motion on the table. The gentleman can only put the subject matter, which is the bill, on the table.

Mr. D. M. FISHER. Would the majority leader withdraw his motion to refer to the Appropriations Committee, to give me an opportunity to suspend the rules?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman can accomplish what he is attempting to accomplish in the following fashion: If my motion to recommit to the Appropriations Committee is unsuccessful, before the bill can be called up on second reading, it would be up to you to suspend the rules at that time. It is a twofold step. I do not intend to call it up. If my motion to recommit fails, you could then try to call it up.

Mr. D. M. FISHER. Mr. Speaker, in that case, I would then urge the members of the House—I know there is a lot of noise and perhaps some of you have not been able to hear what I have said, but I would urge the members of the House—to cast a negative vote on Mr. Ryan's motion to refer this bill to the Appropriations Committee for a fiscal note. I will distribute to all the members a fiscal note, which would be, in my opinion, identical to the Appropriations Committee's fiscal note, for their desks prior to asking that the bill be called up on second consideration. I emphasize that the cost is $314,000, which is insignificant. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, I have talked to the chairman of the Appropriations Committee, who advises me that the mere fact that Mr. Bittenbender from the Budget Office provides his idea of a fiscal note, that is not controlling on the House, and in fact the Appropriations Committee on numerous occasions reviews and changes that particular note. At the time of the calendar being marked, the minority leader and the minority whip both raised the question of the fiscal implications, and their query went beyond that which is considered by Mr. Bittenbender, and I believe that the position of the minority is the same as mine, that this bill should go to the Appropriations Committee. Accordingly, I would ask for a "yes" vote.

MEMBERS' PRESENCE RECORDED

The SPEAKER. The following members ask that their names be added to the master roll:

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rappaport; the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Ritter; the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Gatski; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Greenfield; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. J. J. Johnson; the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Manderino; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dumas; the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Yohn; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Barber; and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

CONSIDERATION OF HB 2822 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the minority whip. Mr. MANDERINO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support the motion to recommit this bill to the Appropriations Committee.

In addition to the fiscal implications that Mr. Fisher admits that this bill would have in the administration costs of a new department of corrections in a secretary and deputy secretary and what all might be entailed, it has come to our attention that this bill does one other significant thing, and that is it takes all the special probation cases now being handled by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and dumps those cases back into the various counties from which they originated for handling and cost expenditure. There are some 4,000 special probation cases handled now by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for any number of reasons; 2,000 of those cases come from Mr. Fisher's own county of Allegheny. This bill would take those 2,000 cases back to Allegheny County and another 2,000 cases distributed among other counties of the Commonwealth and place the expenditure of the administration of those probation cases, the expenditure on case workers and administration back at the county level. In Allegheny County alone there is going to be close to $1-million expenditure necessitated by the bill that Mr. Fisher is trying to move here today and not send to Appropriations Committee. He has completely ignored that, in discussing the fiscal impact, bills must go to the Appropriations Committee, not only because of their impact on state government and on our state budget, but because of the impact that the bills might have on any of the local governments of the Commonwealth. Certainly the counties would take on a very large expenditure to handle these 4,000 special probation cases.

Now, whether or not my $1-million figure is correct or whether or not the 4,000 cases sent back to the counties might be eligible for some type of state aid or grant-in-aid are matters that are properly to be determined by the Appropriations Committee so that this House may be properly advised before it votes on the bill.

Mr. Speaker, I support the motion to recommit. There are tremendous fiscal impacts, not only at the state level, but at the local level, and I ask for an affirmative vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Kukovich.

Mr. KUKOVICH. I rise to support Mr. Fisher in a negative vote on the motion to recommit.

In response to Mr. Manderino, I think the figures relating to special probation cases are speculative. I think in actuality nobody can put a precise figure on what it would cost for probation cases to be handled in the counties.

I have a set of figures before me. They show that in 1977, outside Allegheny County, there were only 1,383 of those special probation cases. I would suggest that the cost would be rather nominal. We should also keep in mind that the state handles parole costs. The state gives grants-in-aids to the counties currently to handle special probation cases.

I do not see, on balance with the overwhelming need for this type of legislation, balancing that with the nominal cost through local counties on special probation cases is rather insignificant. I think we need this legislation. I think it is the first time in this entire session, probably the first time since I have been here that we have had a chance to try and do something positive regarding our penal system. This is an opportunity to do that, and I am afraid that if we recommit, we will lose that chance. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the members to vote in the negative on this motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. White.

Mr. WHITE. I too rise to oppose the motion to recommit to the Appropriations Committee. There is a lot more in this particular legislation that is absolutely vital to the establishment of a fair and just department of corrections as a cabinet level position. This legislation has come about as a result of several discussions—

POINT OF ORDER

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Piccola. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. PICCOLA. I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. PICCOLA. I believe the motion is whether we recommit this bill to Appropriations Committee and abide by our rules and not on the merits of the legislation.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair would hope that the gentleman, Mr. White, and any other members who wish to debate the motion will confine their remarks to the reasons why the bill should not be recommitted.

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. WHITE. I would just then like to echo the statements that were made by my colleagues from Westmoreland County, Mr. Kukovich, and from Allegheny County, Mr. Fisher, in urging that the House vote in the negative on the motion to recommit to the Committee on Appropriations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HB 34, PN 3948.

The SPEAKER. The bill will appear on the calendar.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF ENVIRONMENTAL RESOURCES

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Department of Environmental Resources
Harrisburg, Pa. 17120
September 30, 1980

TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA:

I am pleased to submit to the General Assembly these storm water management guidelines and model ordinances as directed by Section 14(b), Act of October 4, 1978 (P.L. 864, No. 167), known as the "Storm Water Management Act," and under the procedures provided in the Act of April 7, 1955 (P.L. 23, No. 8), known as the "Reorganization Act of 1955."

The Storm Water Management Act is a major step toward stabilizing Pennsylvania's flooding problems. Flood control projects designed in years past are losing their effectiveness as new developments increase the rate and quantity of storm water entering our streams. In Pennsylvania intensity of land use has caused a sharp rise in the number of flooding events. Since 1936 Pennsylvania has suffered 18 major floods accounting for total damages in excess of $5.8 billion dollars. Although there is a tendency to look upon the great floods, such as 1936 and 1972, as remote and unprecedented events, the fact is that serious and moderate floods frequently cause extensive, localized damage to communities throughout the Commonwealth.

Storm water management is concerned with the planning, design and management of the flow and storage of surface waters resulting from large and small storms, including consideration of water quality and interaction with ground water.

The storm water management plans will stabilize the quantity and velocity of storm water which enters our streams. The plans will help to prevent downstream flooding, stream channel erosion and resulting siltation, provide a balance for existing biological habitat in streams, maintain or increase the flow to ground water and reduce the amount of non point source pollution.

Approval of these guidelines will give assistance to counties and local governments facing the increasing problems of accelerated storm water runoff. By passing the Storm Water Management Act, the General Assembly determined that proper storm water management is fundamental to the public health, safety and welfare and the protection of the people of the Commonwealth, their resources and the environment.

STATEMENT BY MR. PITTS

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Pitts.

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I was going to make some comments on the addendum to the report, the select committee on SEPTA - Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority. I do not want to hold up the voting of the House. I will wait until after the voting, if you wish.

The SPEAKER. We are ready to break for lunch. So if the gentleman wants to make his announcement, the Chair would suggest it is in order, and the gentleman may proceed.

Mr. PITTS. All right, Mr. Speaker, in accordance with the statements that we made on the floor of the House in January when we issued the initial report and in accordance with the letter of transmittal to the Speaker, we continued the investigation of the committee through the summer months, and I would like to briefly report on the findings and recommendations that are contained in the addendum to this report.

As you know, the primary report addressed the most severe and fundamental problems brought before the committee. This addendum includes the issues of joint economic development of transit terminals in Delaware and Montgomery Counties, also the public transportation capital budget process, as well as Conrail's management of SEPTA commuter rail service.

The committee held six public hearings during the month of August and toured commuter rail facilities and trackage within the SEPTA region. Additional information was gathered by the committee through research. We found that both the P&W terminal in Norristown and the 69th Street terminal in Upper Darby appear to have the potential to accrue considerable benefits for their communities and the transit system as joint development projects. We recommend state funding for both of these projects when they come before the House of Representatives for consideration in the public transportation capital budget bill.

We found that the problems associated with the public transportation capital budget process can be synthesized into two major areas: one, streamlining the capital budget procedures by the administration; and, two, annual passage of the mass transit capital budget by the General Assembly. The committee served as the impetus for some very fruitful discussions by the Department of Transportation, the Budget Office, and the Commonwealth transit agencies. We strongly suggested that the Department of Transportation continue these discussions initiated under the auspices of the committee and implement the resulting recommendation for streamlining, administratively, the capital budget procedures.

We urgently request and seriously suggest, Mr. Speaker, that greater consideration and diligence be given to an annual passage of the mass transit capital budget by the House of Representatives. The rehabilitation and proper maintenance of our existing public transportation capital assets and the improvements of these facilities and equipment require an annual predictable capital budget. Moreover, a considerable amount of Federal financial assistance is lost as a result of our failure to enact an annual capital budget. There is, at this time, a public transportation capital budget before the House. House bill 2841 is in the Appropriations Committee. We urge that the House of Representatives promptly consider this bill to enable passage of public transportation capital budget before we adjourn this session.

Insofar as Conrail's operation of SEPTA commuter rail service, we found that Federal law and regulations do not provide an adequate framework within which SEPTA can properly monitor and control Conrail operations, nor do Federal law and regulations provide adequate incentives for Conrail to operate in an efficient and cost-effective manner. The agreement between SEPTA and Conrail is, by law, on a cost-and-material basis. There is no budget mechanism which limits expenditures and revenue requirements. Right now there is almost $34 million in unpaid costs under dispute between Conrail and SEPTA. The Commonwealth has budgeted $25 million in fiscal year 1980 for the subsidization of SEPTA's commuter rail service, and the Commonwealth has no direct relationship with, nor does it have any control over, Conrail. It is unclear what the Commonwealth's liability might be, if any, for the portion of the $34 million in disputed unpaid cost.

It is our considered opinion that Conrail is inefficient in its operation and lacks managerial effectiveness. We have come to this conclusion after carefully weighing the testimony and data presented by PennDOT - Pennsylvania Department of Transportation - SEPTA and Conrail, and after reviewing two Federal reports which buttress these criticisms of Conrail. Recent reports by both the General Accounting Office and the United States Railway Association state that Conrail productivity is considerably below the railroad industry average.

To address these problems, we recommend that SEPTA take direct control of all phases of the operation of the commuter rail service. Conrail and SEPTA should explore a phased shift in control of these operations to allow for an orderly restructuring. We also recommend that the Transportation Committee or another select committee next session investigate railroad operations within the Commonwealth further. We believe that such a study is justified on the basis of the findings within our limited study. Several issues have not been addressed by this committee because they are simply too complex or because they are beyond the scope of the committee.

We are not convinced that SEPTA should be burdened because of historical factors with the responsibility of owning and maintaining an extensive system of railroad track. We have reservations about the effect of multiple track ownership on railroad operations in the region. Because Conrail has not demonstrated a sufficiently high level of productivity and economy in commuter rail operations and because the implications for work done elsewhere in the Commonwealth are clear, we are concerned about the Commonwealth's present approach to railroad right-of-way rehabilitation as embodied in Act 24 of 1980. That was SB 915. We also note our concern about railroad safety regulations. As a result of our very modest inquiry in this area, we have concluded that this issue warrants a thorough review by the state.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, the committee wishes to report that we have before us one item of unfinished business. This is a review of the SEPTA reorganization plan which must be submitted to the General Assembly by SEPTA's local member governments by October 8, 1980, that is, next week, under the provisions of Act 101, 1980. This committee will receive the reorganization plan, review the proposal, and report finally by letter to the members of the House of Representatives at that time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for this opportunity to address the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Zeller.

Mr. ZELLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to yield to Mr. Rocks who wants to comment on Mr. Pitts' remarks, and I will hold by until after he is through.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rocks.

Mr. ROCKS. I would hope that the Speaker would find it in order for me very briefly to comment on the capsulized report given by the gentleman, Mr. Pitts, from Chester County. Is that in order, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. It is about the best we have had all morning, Joe.

Mr. ROCKS. Mr. Speaker, because it is over a year ago that I sponsored in this chamber the resolution to begin the investigation of SEPTA, I would just like to take one moment and thank the chairman of that committee, Mr. Pitts, and our vice chairman, Mr. Rappaport, Mr. White, Mr. Nahill, Mr. Hoeffel, and Mr. Micozzie, for the attention that they were able to focus on the problem of mass transportation in this Commonwealth.

I think, as the debate proved during the first package of legislation introduced in this General Assembly as a result of the investigative committee, there is a great deal of attention today and a great deal of concern over the problems with mass transit across the state. I just rise to thank not only my fellow committee members but especially the leaders of that committee for the attention and, really, the Herculean effort they put into this investigation, and hope that our efforts will carry forward, not just to the end of this term but in the next term of this General Assembly. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Zeller.

Mr. ZELLER. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry, but again another gentleman wants to comment on Mr. Pitts' remarks. I do not; I have another subject. So I would yield at this time to Mr. White.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. White.

Mr. WHITE. I appreciate the graciousness of my colleague from Lehigh County, Mr. Zeller. Amen to that says Rev. Wright.

Mr. Speaker, I would just like to join with Mr. Rocks in complimenting the members of the select committee investigating SEPTA. I think that the efforts of this committee over the past year are probably the clearest examples of a bipartisan effort to deal with the specifics of a very pressing problem that faces all of us across this Commonwealth. I think that the report and the addendum which is about to be released will go down in this legislative session and probably in sessions to come as one of the most forthright and comprehensive reports ever compiled by a committee of this House of Representatives.

I want to thank both the Democratic and the Republican leadership of the House for the cooperation that they have given us during this yearlong effort, and we look forward in Pennsylvania to making sure that we rise to the forefront in major reform of transportation to the best interests of the residents of this great Commonwealth. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. ZELLER

The SPEAKER. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Zeller.

Mr. ZELLER. I would like to have permission to make a brief statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman asks unanimous consent to make a brief statement. The Chair hears no objection. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. ZELLER. This is very important, I feel; I really feel it is and to you, too, that one of the problems we have which is very serious is the lack of attendance by reporters here in the House during session, in that they cannot seem to get the information straight as to reporting on floor actions. They cry about not being able to attend executive sessions and caucus sessions, since they claim we are suspect in everything we do. However, they do not even attend open meetings and they get their reporting all fouled up. For example, on September 23, I would like to read to you a headline that appeared in the Allentown Morning Call, following my amendment to the Sunshine law. "Zeller Proposal Would Gut Sunshine Law." Well, anybody here in the House knows that that is not a fact. We were only dealing with funding. It had nothing to do with gutting the Sunshine law. In approaching the reporter, I received a note from her stating, Joe, I will see that a correction is filed on the "sunshine" story headline. Well, to date I have not seen it; if it has, it is probably in the obituary area, but I have not seen it. But instead, on September 29, "Fate of the State Not So Secure," written by the same reporter, it tells about how we are all ignorant in regard to the abortion action we took and in regard to the "sunshine" amendment that I had. We are considered ignorant.

Now, what bothers me—not bothers me so much; I am amused, really—the Philadelphia Bulletin got involved in the act, and they said yesterday that in regard to my report on the floor of the House—and if you remember during the abortion discussion I said that my report in regard to rape was from the Minneapolis-St. Paul Police Department, and I asked the press to please get that straight. They did not. They got it all fouled up again. As a matter of fact, it is still in the Zeller report. So, that is fine; I will have a chance to write a letter to the editor and I will really shake them up real good, but the thing that bothers me is that I have a suggestion which would help to protect the first amendment, the right to know, which the newspapers hang their hat on, to hide behind when we ask for credibility and accuracy.

We have a tote board up here; we have a tote board to register attendance, roll calls, and so forth. I would like to see us, for the benefit of the press, install a rollcall roster board for them, for the news reporters, so their publisher knows whether or not they are here covering the people's business, or are they hiding in their offices or enjoying a happy hour in some local bar, or are they on a golf course somewhere. I feel that they should be responsible. I do not see one up there, and they should be here. They want responsible government, and I agree with them. I likewise feel they should agree on responsible attendance in reporting for the benefit of people they say they serve.

So, with that, I hope that we can get this tote board located for the benefit of their publishers and for the benefit of all of us in the public so that they know whether or not these people are going to hide or whether they are going to be here to report the people's business. Thank you very much.

CONSUMER AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Wilson.

Mr. WILSON. There will be a brief continuance of this morning's meeting of the Consumer Affairs Committee in room 245 at the adjournment motion.

RULES COMMITTEE MEETING AND REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader for some announcements.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, on the declaration of the recess, there will be an immediate meeting of the Rules Committee in my office. I would suggest that the caucuses, at least the Republican caucus, take lunch and report to the caucus room at 1:30 and that we return to the floor at 2:30.

NO DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the minority leader.

Mr. IRVIS. We have caucused on practically all of the bills on the calendar. It may be necessary for us to go off the floor for a brief caucus later in the afternoon, but there is no need for the Democrats to report to the caucus chambers at this time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Without objection, this House now stands in recess until 2:30 p.m. The Chair hears none.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.
