SESSION OF 1982

166TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 17

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER (MATTHEW J. RYAN) IN THE CHAIR PRAYER

REV. DEAN E. RUPE, chaplain of the House of Representatives and pastor of Holy Communion Lutheran Church, Yeagertown, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

We thank You, O Lord, for this new day and a new week of labor. We are excited concerning the signs of springtime. We long for newness that is promised in the seasons, and we pray for newness within the hearts of all people.

May those who labor as leaders of this Commonwealth be faithful and diligent in their efforts to provide order, justice, and mercy for all and especially for those who have so little hope in life. Grant each of us wisdom to perform our duties, courage to take risks, and trust in You, O God, that ultimately Your plans will prevail. In the name of the living God, we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was enunciated by members.)

FIRST HIGHLAND WATCH PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Greenwood, for the purpose of introducing guests of the House.

Mr. GREENWOOD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen, I would like to introduce some very dear friends of mine. They are the colorful entourage assembled in the rear of the House, and they are the First Highland Watch of Bucks County. They have been designated the Governor's own band, and they are here today to entertain the members of the House briefly.

They are here as the guests of the Bucks County delegation, Representative Hoefel, and myself. Thank you.

(A musical program was presented.)

Mr. GREENWOOD. On behalf of the members of the House of Representatives, I would like to thank the First Highland Watch for being our guests today and notify the members that they will now be performing until approximately 2 o'clock in the rotunda. Thank you.

I thought the members would like to have the rare opportunity to have some windbags in the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER. Representative Greenwood, I would call to the attention of you and the members that these windbags stopped when the gentleman's mace dropped.

Mr. GREENWOOD. The gentleman is available at any time, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I was in error. There is one more song, and that is "My Pennsylvania," which the band will now play as their final number. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman. The band may continue.

("My Pennsylvania" was presented.)

STATEMENT BY MR. OLIVER

TERCENTENARY COMMITTEE ON THIS DAY IN HISTORY

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Oliver, for the purpose of giving us this day in history.

Mr. OLIVER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, on this day in history in 1780, Pennsylvania's General Assembly began a process which would eventually lead to an end of slavery in America. On that date the Abolition Act was passed, which repealed a number of discriminatory laws against blacks. Mounting objections to slavery, which were evident as early as 1688, resulted in Pennsylvania becoming the first of the colonies to legislatively call for freedom for black men and women.

It was primarily the Quakers, led by Francis Daniel Pastorius of Germantown, who spoke out against slavery and drafted strong moral challenges against such bondage. Because of the work of Pastorius and others like him, the number of slaves in the Commonwealth dropped from over 3,700 in 1790 to zero in 1850.

The early battle against involuntary servitude in Pennsylvania included some of our Nation's most articulate Founding Fathers. Philosopher, scientist, statesman Benjamin Franklin served as the president of the Pennsylvania Abolition Society in 1787.

While the fight against slavery ran on for many years and racial discrimination has still not been entirely erased, the beginning of the end of such discrimination can be traced back to the Pennsylvania assembly's passage of the Abolition Act on this day in 1780. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

WELCOME

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the hall of the House today as the guests of Representative Frank Coslett, Jim McCabe, Jane Tressler, and Joseph Tressler.

STATEMENT BY MR. RICHARDSON

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Richardson, rise?

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to follow up on a comment made by Representative Frank Oliver to indicate that the F. Daniel Pastorius School, which is located in my legislative district, is also the elementary school which I attended and also the one which my daughter now attends. I wanted to recognize the timely remarks dealing with the Pastorius history in Germantown and wanted to let the members know that that should be worthy of note, particularly since it is an elementary school that is in our district and also one that houses a number of young people who are being educated today. Thank you very much.

STATEMENT BY MR. DAVIES

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Davies.

Mr. DAVIES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is with mixed emotion, after having the Scottish group play for us, that I would take note of today's date, and that day is, of course, St. David's Day. I would like to offer this:

Tis great on any day to be a Welshman,
But it is of monumental significance that this day is at hand.
Take heed, dear Queen of England,
One of these fine St. David's days,

All of Wales shall be free as our ancient brethren,
The Lost Tribe of Benjamin.

CALENDAR RESUMED
AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE CONSIDERED

The clerk of the Senate, being introduced, returned the following HB 874, PN 2776, with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested:

An Act amending the "Liquor Code," approved April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90, No. 21), further providing for the licensing of establishments near interstate highways and for unlawful acts relative to liquor, malt and brewed beverages and licensees.

On the question,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Lehr.

Mr. LEHR. Mr. Speaker, I request that we nonconcur on HB 874.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Richardson.

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask a point of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. RICHARDSON. It is my understanding that there is no opportunity at all to amend a concurrence bill. Is that correct, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. That is correct, Mr. Richardson.

Mr. RICHARDSON. I would like to ask whether or not we may know why the gentleman is asking for nonconcurrence and what the Senate amendments are.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York, Mr. Lehr, indicates he will consent to interrogation. The gentleman may respond to Mr. Richardson's question.

Mr. RICHARDSON. I would like to know, and I guess for the edification of all the members of the House, what the Senate amendments were and why you are asking for nonconcurrence.

Mr. LEHR. The Senate put into HB 874 a provision that a liquor establishment can be 300 feet off an interstate highway. Representative Foster is very much concerned about this problem. I would yield to Representative Foster to let him tell you the problem he has with the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Foster.

Mr. A. C. FOSTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am not opposed to the amendment per se, but I am opposed to the way it is drafted in the bill in that there is an apparent omission. In the language on page 2, starting on line 4 of page 2, current law states that no licensed establishment shall be permitted within 300 feet of a ramp of an interstate highway. The change that was being made here was simply that the entrance of the building be within no less than 300 feet. However, what they did, on line 5 they say "...the entrance of an interstate limited access highway." They neglected to also say the "exit." So for the gentleman, Mr. Richardson, they should have included both "exit" and "entrance." Therefore, I would likewise like a nonconcurrence so that that can be corrected.

On the question recurring,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

COMMUNICATION FROM JOINT LEGISLATIVE AIR AND WATER POLLUTION CONTROL AND
CONSERVATION COMMITTEE

The SPEAKER. The Chair acknowledges receipt of a communication from the executive secretary of the Joint Legislative Air and Water Pollution Control and Conservation Committee, dated March 1, 1982, which will be made part of the record.

The following communication was read:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Joint Legislative Air and Water Pollution Control and Conservation Committee
Thomas W. Beauduy
Executive Secretary
March 1, 1982

To: All Members of the General Assembly
Subject: Public Utility Commission
Regulation of Water Supply Systems

House Resolution No. 9 was passed concurrently by the House of Representatives and the Senate in the Spring of 1981. It directed this committee to "conduct an investigation of the regulations and procedures of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in order to ensure the public that adequate water service will be provided by the utilities under its jurisdiction."

A special Subcommittee on Water Supply Systems was created to facilitate that investigation, chaired by Representative Joseph R. Pitts. Comments were solicited from water customers, water regulators and water purveyors from across the Commonwealth. A public hearing was held in August of 1981.

This report contains the findings and recommendations resulting from that study. Given the breadth and complexity of issues associated with the overall water supply problem, its focus is limited to those concerns addressed in House Resolution No. 9 or raised in the comments provided.

The recommendations contained in this report are felt to be fair, reasonable and appropriate. We firmly believe their implementation will improve water service to the public.

R. Harry Bittle Chairman	Respectfully, Joseph R. Pitts Chairman, Special Subcommittee on Water Supply Systems
J. William Lincoln Vice Chairman	Thomas W. Beauduy Executive Secretary

(Copy of report is on file with the Journal clerk.)
