O God, throughout all of life Thou art our companion and guide, and in the midst of the problems and anxieties of life Thou art always by our side. Now, as we pause in Thy presence, we pray that Thou wilt be very near and dear to the members of this legislature. Bestow upon them the competency of Thy divine wisdom, enfold and keep them in the hollow of Thy hand, direct their actions through the power and inspiration of Thy spirit, and enable them to be productive stewards of Thine. This we pray that Thy name may be honored forever and ever. Amen.

GERMAN LEGISLATORS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. At this time the Chair recognizes the minority caucus chairman, the gentleman from Perry, Mr. Noye.

Mr. NOYE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is my honor and privilege to introduce to you today 12 distinguished visitors from the Federal Republic of Germany. These gentlemen share with us a common heritage in that they, too, are State legislators from the 11 States that comprise the Federal Republic of Germany. These people serve in their landtag, or State legislature, representing their constituents. There are 12 with us, two from the Berlin Landtag and one from each of the other States.

They are here really in conjunction with the celebration of 300 years of German immigration to the United States. This is the week in Philadelphia where the tercentenary celebration is occurring. They came into Harrisburg last night and they will be here today. Tomorrow they will be in Philadelphia, and Friday they will tour sections of Lancaster County.

At this time I would like to introduce to you their spokesman, Alexander Longolius, who is a member of the Berlin Landtag. Alex.

Mr. LONGOLIUS. Mr. Speaker, honorable ladies and gentlemen let me say "dear colleagues," it is a great privilege for my friends and myself to be here with you to visit in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to be in your beautiful Capitol, and it is a great honor to be with you at this meeting of your parliament. Let me say certainly it is a great privilege for me personally to get the chance to express some of the feelings that we have at this moment.

It is friendship that we bring. It is the memory of the common heritage that we have, of the common beliefs, and the wisdom of our political systems; the fact that German-American friendship is a long tradition in my country, that it is not dependent on agreeing on one issue or agreeing to one person, that there are many more sound, stable, and long-lasting foundations for this friendship, and we are here to renew them.

To stress the importance of State parliaments certainly is not important and is not possible. I think we will agree on that. We will agree that we are closer to the people and their needs and their wishes than the Federal level. Is that not true?

People in parliaments on the Federal level have long told us that international relations are their business. Well, we broke that. A year ago in Berlin we had a meeting of State legislators from your country and from mine in my hometown of Berlin, let me say, and we discovered that many of the fields that are important to carry on good relations between two nations, be they educational, be they economic, or be they other fields, are going to be handled or should be handled on the State level anyway, so we are here to continue this tradition, to build it up. The two Berlin participants of the meeting last year started what we called the Partnership of Parliaments, and we mean State parliaments. We also want to renew this partnership and invite you to join us.

I do not want to take too much of your time. You have been very patient. Let me say that the friendship between our two countries is something that is much more stable than you may sometimes feel when you look at television or read some of the papers. I am not talking about your papers, of course, but only about ours. I am not going to say anything against the press while I am over here.

We share a political system; we share the belief that tolerance is important to live together peacefully, be that among people, individuals, or nations. We share the feeling that pursuit of happiness for all is something that we should work for today and not promise to future generations, and this is something we represent—as Fred Noye mentioned, 11 States, and that is 100 percent for us—and we represent the three traditional parties that we have in my country, so when I say this, I talk for the citizens of the Federal Republic. And this is the spirit that we came in; this is the message we want to bring you.

Again, let me thank you very much for the friendship that we have enjoyed in your country and for the hospitality that we are enjoying today, and I thank you for your patience.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would ask Mr. Longolius to introduce his colleagues in his delegation.

Mr. LONGOLIUS. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I will do this starting with Berlin, my hometown. Juergen Adler, will he please rise. He is accompanied by Mrs. Adler, who tells him how to vote and so on. From Nordrhein-Westfalen, North Rhine-Westphalia, we have Leo Dautzenberg; from Niedersachsen, Lower Saxony, Peter Dehn; from Baden-Wuerttemberg—that is such a bad word in German it cannot be translated into English, I think—Juergen Eisele; from Hessen, Volker Bouffier; from Rheinland-Pfalz, Rhineland-Palatinate, we have Karl Geimer; from the Saarland, Leo Petry; from Schleswig-Holstein up north, we have Guenther Neugebauer; from Bremen, Manfred Richter; from Bavaria, Jakob Mittermeier; and from Hamburg, we have Paul Busse.

Let me say one more thing about this delegation. It is sponsored by the American Council of Young Political Leaders, which is highly embarrassing to myself. Let me tell you, in a State where you can hold the clock to pass bills on time, they should be able to find something to include you and myself in the future as young political leaders. Right?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Wilkom meine freund, sel woehr sie sehr gute, und wir haben sie zwei gute Duetsch argenaemed das will mit die alle gesprechen. Sie sind Herr Manderino und Herr Ryan.

The Chair takes great pleasure in introducing two gentlemen of German descent. I refer to Mr. Manderino and Mr. Ryan.

The Chair introduces at this time, for remarks, the majority leader.

Mr. MANDERINO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the General Assembly and the Democratic Party, we want to welcome all of the German legislators to Pennsylvania and to our Capitol. We would hope that this bond of friendship that they are encouraging grows, grows to the extent that we can visit them next year. I know all of you would like to be candidates to represent this body.

We are happy that the Federal Republic of Germany has seen fit to send you on the mission that you are on. We would hope that your stay here is pleasant. We would hope that your stay here is informative and that the friendships and the contacts that you make here will be long enduring.

Thank you for the kind words that you spoke to us this morning, and thank you for the extension of your friendship to all of our people. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority leader.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, for a number of years now we have heard you utter remarks that none of us understood. You have held yourself out as somewhat of an expert in the German language, and none of us were able to pass on that. My new friends from the legislatures of Germany inform me they have no idea what you just said.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The art of diplomacy.

Mr. RYAN. Like Mr. Manderino, I, too, would like to express our thanks for the visit, our feelings of flattery that you would come to Pennsylvania, a State that is rich in tradition of the German people. The folks who came to this country and to Pennsylvania particularly of German heritage have really made this country and this State in particular grow.

I am pleased that you are taking the opportunity to visit the county of Lancaster, where I think you will find many folks now living who share your heritage. It is certainly one of the most pleasant and prettiest counties of Pennsylvania, and I say that not being from Lancaster County.

Like Mr. Manderino, I, too, share the hope but unfortunately not the expectation that we will be sent to Germany on a like mission. It is my understanding—and the younger members have told me this—that the trips sponsored by our State Department are limited to members of the legislature between the ages of 25 and 40. For that reason, Mr. Manderino cannot make the trip. Mr. Fryer and I will make it.

Once again, thank you very much for honoring us by your presence, and I, too, hope that you enjoy your stay here in the United States.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has received an inquiry: In the event there is a visit to the Federal Republic of Germany, how would the mileage be computed? This matter will be turned over to the Rules Committee, unless the minority leader has a suggestion.

Mr. RYAN. In one word, favorably.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair certainly joins in the welcome to our visitors with the hope that they will return soon and that they leave with many pleasant memories of their visit to our great country.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION CONTINUED

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 982, PN 1135, entitled:

An Act amending the "Housing Finance Agency Law," approved December 3, 1959 (P. L. 1688, No. 621), providing for the issuance of qualified veterans' mortgage bonds.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. LUCYK offered the following amendments No. A2878:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 403-B), page 2, line 7, by inserting after "Program.—"

applicable to qualified veterans mortgage bonds

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 403-B), page 2, line 15, by striking out , 26 U.S.C. §§103 and 103A,"

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 403-B), page 2, by inserting between lines 16 and 17

(b) The proceeds of the veterans mortgage bonds shall be allocated to counties or groups of counties in a manner proportionate to the number of qualified veterans of the Vietnam conflict residing in the county or groups of counties.

(c) The price ceiling for new and existing residences for the veterans mortgage program shall comply with the same limitations imposed by the Mortgage Subsidy Bond Tax Act of 1980.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Lucyk.

Mr. LUCYK. Mr. Speaker, this amendment does several things. First, it clarifies language in HB 982 as we did previously in HB 981. It removes certain restrictions that would have existed as applied to this program, and it defines how the proceeds of the sales of mortgage bonds would be spread across the counties of Pennsylvania. Also, it defines, under limitations imposed by the Mortgage Subsidy Bond Tax Act of 1980, certain price ceilings for the purchases of properties under the act.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. MICHLOVIC offered the following amendments No. A2585:

Amend Title, page 1, line 1, by inserting after "entitled" , as amended,

Amend Title, page 1, line 4, by inserting after "thereto,"" adding a definition; further providing for bonds;

Amend Bill, page 1, lines 8 through 10, by striking out all of said lines and inserting

Section 1. Section 2201-A of the act of July 28, 1953 (P.L.723, No.230), known as the Second Class County Code, is amended by adding a definition to read:

Section 2201-A. Definitions.—As used in this article the following words and phrases shall have, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the meanings given to them in this section:

"Area." A census tract or block group.

Section 2. Section 2205-A of the act is amended by adding a subsection to read:

Section 2205-A. Bonds.—

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, seventy-five per centum (75%) of the proceeds of any mortgage bonds issued after the effective date of this amendatory act shall, for a period of six (6) weeks following the date the proceeds are available to the authority, be used solely and exclusively to make loans to enable persons to acquire single-family dwellings located in communities or areas within the authority's field of operation where there exists an owner-occupied housing rate of at least fifty per centum (50%) and in which the median income of the community or area does not exceed ninety per centum (90%) of the median income of the county. Following the six (6) week period, said proceeds may be used to make loans to persons to enable them to acquire residences located anywhere within the authority's field of operation.

Section 3. The act is amended by adding a section to read:

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 3, by striking out "2" and inserting

Amend Sec. 3, page 2, line 14, by striking out "3" and inserting

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Michlovic.

Mr. MICHLOVIC. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

HB 501 deals with renewing the authority to renew bond issues in Allegheny County. My amendment would target the funds of those bond issues to what we call impact areas, which are census tract areas with low-income minorities with a certain amount of housing deterioration that qualifies in Allegheny County under a repair and restoration program currently. The amendment essentially requires that this targeting take place for a 6-week period, and if all the funds are not used in the impact areas, then the remaining moneys may be used countywide. Basically it gives a preference for those targeted areas. I believe that both the Republican and Democratic members in the Allegheny County delegation have agreed to it, and I ask for the approval of the House. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Cowell.

Mr. COWELL. Mr. Speaker, both the bill and the amendment affect only Allegheny County. It is an agreed-to amendment. I would urge that we adopt it. Thank you.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. DeLUCA called up HR 128, PN 1713, entitled:

Urging the Liquor Control Board to stop the purchase and sale of vodka and other alcoholic beverages made in the Soviet Union.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. DeLUCA offered the following amendment No. A2715:

Amend Resolution, page 2, line 2, by inserting after "Union" for a period of no less than six months

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. DeLuca.

Mr. DeLUCA. Mr. Speaker, this is a simple amendment.

This amendment sets a time limit of 6 months, requesting the State Liquor Board to remove all Soviet products from their shelves immediately and not sell it. Right now we can still purchase it. While they are to be commended, we can still go into any State liquor store and purchase Russian products. I do not think that is the right thing to do. I think we should show our dissatisfaction for the inhumane act that the Soviet Union perpetrated 4 1/2, 5 weeks ago. This is just to put them on record that we show our dissatisfaction and that they remove it for a time period of 6 months. I ask for an affirmative vote on it.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

CONSIDERATION OF HR 128 CONTINUED

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Clymer.

Mr. CLYMER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I support my colleague on the other side of the aisle in asking that the General Assembly support this resolution. Certainly we cannot bring back the 261 lives that were lost when the Korean airliner was destroyed by Russian missiles, but we have an opportunity here today to demonstrate our great dissatisfaction and to send the Kremlin Government a message of our disapproval of this dastardly act. So I stand in support of HR 128.

Mr. HUTCHINSON called up HR 124, PN 1715, entitled:

Granting approval to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to issue bonds for the construction of a Lehigh Tunnel Bypass on the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Saurman.

Mr. SAURMAN. Mr. Speaker, could that point be clarified for me, the language granting approval?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman directing this to the prime sponsor of the resolution, Mr. Hutchinson?

Mr. SAURMAN. Yes, sir, if I may.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. Hutchinson, indicates he will stand for a period of interrogation. The gentleman, Mr. Saurman, is in order and may proceed.

Mr. HUTCHINSON. About 6 years ago, the legislature passed an act saying that the Turnpike Commission would have to have our approval to do anything on the turnpike. We grant the permission, but the Governor has to sign the bonds. The Turnpike Commission can vote on it, but the Governor has to sign the bonds, so he has the last approval. But according to law, we have to grant approval first, then the Turnpike Commission votes on it, and then the Governor has to sign the bonds.

Mr. SAURMAN. All right. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

CONSIDERATION OF HB 982 RESUMED

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Mr. MICHLOVIC offered the following amendment No. A3013:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 403-B), page 2, line 16, by inserting after "thereto."

A veteran may partake of this program only one time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Michlovic.

Mr. MICHLOVIC. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Amendment A3013 simply restricts participation in the program to a one-time shot. There are approximately only 2,800 loans on the average that are going to be made in this program, and I would like to see as many people as possible participate in the program. In the unlikely event that a veteran tried to participate in the program twice, this would prohibit it. I urge the approval of this amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION CONTINUED

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1241, PN 1700, entitled:

An Act amending Title 66 (Public Utilities) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, providing for the ownership and maintenance of gas service lines.

On the question,

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 102), page 2, line 3, by inserting after "THE" where it appears the last time

gas

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 102), page 2, line 5, by striking out "PUBLIC" and inserting

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 102), page 2, lines 7 through 9, by striking out "OF THE CUSTOMER IF SUCH LINE IS" in line 7, all of line 8, and "REGULATIONS OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY," in line 9

A public utility shall not be authorized or required to acquire or assume ownership of any pipe or appurtenances installed after the effective date of this act between its main and the meter unless the utility would have been authorized or required to do so according to the rules and regulations of its filed tariff if the pipe or appurtenances had been installed on or before the effective date of this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Laughlin.

Mr. LAUGHLIN. Mr. Speaker, the amendment is offered to clarify the language in the bill in line with Representative Lloyd's suggestions and communication from the PUC (Public Utility Commission). It merely aids in the understanding of the legislation and the intent of it and clarifies the fact that we will in no way be infringing on existing privileges of those utilities that have already established ownership in their particular lines by virtue of a rate case base that is installed at the PUC.

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 947, PN 1085, entitled:

An Act amending the "Public School Code of 1949," approved March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30, No. 14), further providing for the duties of the school director district reapportionment commission and clarification of the number of the school director districts within a first class A school district.

Mr. MURPHY offered the following amendments No. A3023:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 302.1), page 2, lines 12 through 17, by striking out "to determine, from the census data, whether" in line 12, all of lines 13 through 16, and "shall, to the extent necessary, move" in line 17, and inserting from the official data of the United States Bureau of the Census, to define

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 302.1), page 2, line 23, by inserting after "decreased."

In addition, the reapportionment commission shall make every effort to maintain neighborhood boundary lines of communities of like interest whenever practicable.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Murphy.

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, it is an agreed-to amendment by the sponsor of the bill. It would affect the City of Pittsburgh School District. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Would the gentleman give an explanation of the amendment, please, so we can see if the rest of the members agree to the amendment.

Mr. MURPHY. What the original language in the bill did was establish a reapportionment commission and give the reapportionment commission the option to reapportion or not after every 10 years, depending on population changes. This amendment will require the reapportionment commission to define new boundaries based on four criteria, the criteria being the compactness of the district, the racial balance of the district, the population, the community boundaries, and the contiguous nature of each school board district. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Itkin.

Mr. ITKIN. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. We will now go through the process and see if the other members agree to the amendment - a lengthy process but a necessary one.
