The House convened at 11 a.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER (K. LEROY IRVIS) IN THE CHAIR

PRAYER

REV. DR. DAVID R. HOOVER, chaplain of the House of Representatives, from McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

In the quiet moments of this day, O God, we bow in adoration and praise before Thee. We thank Thee that Thou dost ever watch over us and share with us Thy guiding presence. We humbly pray that with each passing second we may be more and more aware of our dependency upon Thee. As we lean heavily upon Thee for Thy constant support and sustaining power, we beseech Thee to fill us with the realization that we are made in Thine image, crowned with Thine indwelling spirit, and directed to greater accomplishments in Thy blest name. May Thy name be honored, Thy presence revered, and Thy glory praised forever and ever. Amen.

STATEMENT BY MR. DeVERTER

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mifflin, Mr. DeVerter, under unanimous consent. The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. DeVERTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, for many in the House perhaps the matter I am about to address does not have the import for some that it would for others, but I would like to share with the members some reflections that occurred in the city of Pittsburgh approximately 12 days ago. That event that took place in the city of Pittsburgh will live in infamy, I am sure, and in the minds and memories of many of you who are Pittsburgh Panther fans. And realizing, Mr. Speaker, that the conclusion of that day brought forth something which no one wanted to see occur, and least of all, the Speaker, I am sure, as well as members over here on this side of the aisle who are rather vociferous about their support of the Pittsburgh football team, I thought it only fitting that we provide another one for the senior Representative, at least on the Republican side of the aisle—I am sorry I do not have two to give the Speaker one—so that he will long remember the day, Mr. Cessar, of November 19, 1983 - another tie.

The SPEAKER. Neither Mr. Cessar nor the Speaker will probably forget that day, and the Speaker is going to make a special trip to talk to his good friend, the coach at Penn State.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Cessar.

Mr. CESSAR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I think it was a great day for Pennsylvania football and for Joe Grieco, because he got some money from me, and he has been gloating ever since. I might add that there are some other great Americans in here who are Penn State fans who got some money from me also - Altoona Geist and a few others.

It was a great game. I still say Pitt should have won by two touchdowns. Am I correct, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. At least two.

Mr. CESSAR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I can depend on you for truthfulness.

Dear Walter, I will wear this whenever I go to Penn State to root for them. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks both gentlemen.

MEMBER'S PRESENCE RECORDED

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Livengood, has been added to the master roll.

The House proceeded to HB 400, PN 2142, on third consideration postponed, entitled:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for the prohibition of certain sexual spousal relationships.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

BILL TABLED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Kukovich.

Mr. KUKOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I move that HB 400, PN 2142, be placed upon the table.

Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION RECOMMENDED

RESOLUTION PASSED OVER TEMPORARILY

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.
Mr. MANDERINO. Mr. Speaker, would you pass over temporarily the presentation of the resolution. It does not appear to be in proper form.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.
The gentleman, Mr. Daley, has to correct the draftsmanship of the document he holds in his hand, so we will let the rule stay suspended for that purpose only.

The same thing is wrong; that is right. The same people who apparently drew up that plain language bill yesterday also drew up this particular piece.

The Chair recognizes the minority leader.
Mr. RYAN. There is some speculation on this side that Mr. Daley had the wrong date. Is that correct?

The SPEAKER. No. I think they actually had the date correct, but there were one or two other minor divergences from the absolute truth.

STATEMENT BY MR. WAMBACH

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Wambach.

Mr. WAMBACH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a short statement on a bill I am about to introduce.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. WAMBACH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I would just like to have your attention for a minute to describe a bill I am about to introduce. The bill itself would increase the emergency tax on liquor by 2 percent and provide that money earmarked specifically for alcohol and drug treatment centers across this Commonwealth.

With the decrease in Federal dollars that will be coming into this State to the tune of about $3 million in the treatment field and with the awareness that is being brought about through the "Chemical People" project through the public television networks, obviously the need for treatment dollars will increase. This bill would raise those needed moneys without affecting the General Fund revenues currently being derived from the Liquor Control Board sales, and it does it by simply increasing the emergency tax on liquor by 2 percent.

I am going to leave the bill on the bill clerk's desk for further sponsors. I have a great many now, and I would appreciate your consideration to become a cosponsor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 854, PN 964, entitled:

An Act authorizing the indebtedness, with the approval of the electors, of $90,000,000 for the repair, rehabilitation, development and acquisition of land and facilities for community services and public recreational purposes.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. FREEMAN offered the following amendments No. A3092:

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 13 by inserting after "buildings" or new construction

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 14 by inserting after "programs", historical and natural interpretive programs

Amend Sec. 5, page 2, line 19 by inserting after "buildings" or new construction

Amend Sec. 5, page 2, line 19 by inserting after "house," historical and natural interpretive programs,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Freeman.

Mr. FREEMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment has the approval of the prime sponsor of the bill, Representative Morris. What it does is it allows the funds that would be offered by the bond issue in this bill to be also used for new construction of buildings for parks as well as for historical and natural interpretive programs. In essence, it could be used for historical functions through the park service. As I mentioned, it does have the support of the prime sponsor, and I urge a "yes" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On final passage, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Kennedy.

Mr. KENNEDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

May I please ask the prime sponsor one quick question on this legislation?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Morris, will stand for interrogation. The gentleman, Mr. Kennedy, is in order and may proceed.

Mr. KENNEDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Quickly, in my legislative district we have a body of water - a lake - whereby a local community action committee or citizenry is trying to obtain funds in the future to purchase this property from the township. Would these funds be available for projects such as this?

Mr. MORRIS. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I should think they would be.

Mr. KENNEDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

MAYOR-ELECT OF PHILADELPHIA PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is delighted to present to the hall of the House, as the guest of the Philadelphia delegation, the mayor-elect of the largest city in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Honorable Wilson Goode.

Mr. GOODE. Mr. Speaker, members of the House, I want to thank the Speaker for the opportunity to say a few words to all of you this morning. I have had a chance this morning, as I did back in June, to come here and to meet with many of you in small groups to discuss with you some concerns which I have; to listen to concerns that you have; to try and forge, if we can, open lines of communication; to recognize that we all are part of a State, that somehow as goes the State of Pennsylvania, so will go the individual areas that we all represent.

I am here to really say three things to you. Number one, I thank all of you for your cooperation with me while I have been here today and will be here throughout the day. Thank you for making yourselves available. I thank the Speaker for having me come here and spend these few minutes with you. I intend to come back, come back and to let you know in very clear terms my support for the entire State of Pennsylvania and my interest in making sure that the city which I represent is a vital part of this State and in fact that we communicate with all of you around those concerns.

The second thing I want to say is that we have to more and more communicate around our common interests, our common concerns, and our common problems. I am here today to do that, to open up my heart and my mind and say that I believe that all of us can share our own interests. We also can in a real way make sure we serve our mutual interests by opening up the lines of communication.

My third and final point is that I believe that the problems that we are faced with in this State - joblessness, problems of crime, problems of those persons who cannot afford to pay their way - can be solved if we find a way to begin to put those interests forth in a very common kind of way.

I am not here to make a big speech to all of you, but I intend to do two things in our city: I intend to run that city in an efficient, cost-effective way. I intend to improve the image facing our city. I intend to have all of you from around the State look toward Philadelphia as a model, not only for Pennsylvania but for this country and indeed for this world, because I believe the best way that I can help you help me and help our citizens in our city is to do an outstanding job in managing the tax resources within a city, and I intend indeed to do that.

Secondly, Philadelphia is indeed a critical part of the State. We are indeed the largest urban area in Pennsylvania, and somehow, unless Philadelphia is strong, the State may in fact be somewhat weaker. But every part of the State is important, and therefore the rural, the suburban, and the urban areas must see themselves working together if in fact we are going to stay strong as a State.

Someone asked me this morning about what I see that we can do to solve our economic problems. I said, first of all we have to change the image of Pennsylvania, because when businesses look for a State to locate, Pennsylvania is 46th on a list of 48 or 49 or 50, and we have to change that. The east and the west and the northeast and the central and all parts of our State must indeed work together to bring that about, because unless people come to Pennsylvania, none of us, whether we be rural or suburban or urban, can in fact profit therefrom.

I am delighted to be here. I am glad I won. I intend to come back. I intend to be a part of this State. I intend to be a voice of reason, a voice of cooperation, a voice of communication, and a voice that will work to try and build a strong city, strong regions in our State, and a strong Pennsylvania. Thank you all very much. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am glad to be here.

The SPEAKER. Thank you very much, Mr. Mayor.

All of us in our school days learned of the importance of one city in the Colonies, and that city was Philadelphia. All of us learned where the Liberty Bell was deposited. Sometimes in modern times we forget the greatness of the city of Philadelphia, and I want to assure the mayor that on both sides of the aisle, the men and women who are seated in this House understand that Philadelphia is a part of the Commonwealth, and that as the Commonwealth prospers, so will Philadelphia, and as Philadelphia prospers, so will the Commonwealth. I have told them that we have our differences, and indeed we do, but we are intelligent human beings on both sides of the aisle and we are capable of recognizing those differences and minimizing them. I want to congratulate him on taking on a job which is one of the most strenuous in the United States of America and to pledge to him publicly that I will support him in every effort that he makes to improve the city of Philadelphia and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Pievsky, who wishes to make an announcement of a committee meeting.

Mr. PIEVSKY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, at the call of the lunch break there will be a meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room, immediately upon the call of the lunch break.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION CONTINUED

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 606, PN 674, entitled:

An Act amending the "Local Economic Revitalization Tax Assistance Act," approved December 1, 1977 (P. L. 237, No. 76), further defining the term "improvement."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. HALUSKA offered the following amendments No. A3890:

Amend Title, page 1, line 6, by striking out "improvement." and inserting "improvement"; and imposing a limitation on the tax reduction.

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 9, by striking out "section 3" and inserting sections 3 and 5(a)

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 11, by striking out "is" and inserting

are

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, by inserting between lines 9 and 10

Section 5. Exemption schedule.

(a) (1) A local taxing authority granting a tax exemption pursuant to the provisions of this act may provide for tax exemption on the assessment attributable to the actual cost of improvements or up to any maximum cost uniformly established by the municipal governing body. Such maximum cost shall uniformly apply to all eligible deteriorated property within the local taxing authority jurisdiction.

(2) A local taxing authority granting a tax exemption pursuant to the provisions of this act for new construction of industrial, commercial or business property may provide for tax exemption of up to 50% of the assessment attributable to the actual costs of the new construction of industrial, commercial or business property or up to any maximum cost not in excess of 50% uniformly established by the municipal governing body. Such maximum cost shall uniformly apply to all eligible property within the local taxing authority jurisdiction.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is intended to preserve the intent of the original revitalization act for restoring properties in the various portions of the Commonwealth by giving tax incentives for improvements. Without this amendment we would literally destroy the act as it is intended, because basically at this point we do not give tax credits to the entire property that is being revitalized. We only give the tax incentive to that portion of the property that is reconstructed, and that incentive is divided over a period of 10 years. What this amendment does is to just state that any new construction, that 50 percent of it would be retained in the original tax base and 50 percent of the new construction would be placed on the 10-year plan, similar to the revitalization act for used buildings that are reconstructed.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.
The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Daley.

Mr. DALEY. Mr. Speaker, I support the Haluska amendment and ask the members to support it also.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Will the House agree to the amendments?

CONSIDERATION OF HB 606 CONTINUED

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Daley, wish to be recognized on final passage? The Chair recognizes the gentleman.

Mr. DALEY. Mr. Speaker, HB 606 as amended may be simple in essence but indeed has long-term economic impact on Pennsylvania. This bill is not only a jobs bill but it is a labor bill and a business bill. It will provide a valuable tool that Pennsylvania seems to have omitted in the original drafting of this legislation, the Local Economic Revitalization Tax Assistance Act of 1977. This provides an elastic approach to an inelastic approach that we have had with the economy of Pennsylvania, and I urge all the members to support HB 606. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 286, PN 2122, entitled:

An Act amending the "Public School Code of 1949," approved March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30, No. 14), further providing for the attire for students and for a discipline code.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mrs. HARPER offered the following amendment No. A4104:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1317.1), page 2, line 6, by inserting after "STUDENTS."

If the board of school directors does adopt a discipline code, such code shall require teachers to notify a parent or guardian by letter or, if possible, by telephone, if they are having a discipline problem with the parent's or guardian's child prior to any formal action by the board of school directors.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Harper.

Mrs. HARPER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment amends section 1317, page 2, line 6, by inserting after "students," "If the board of school directors does adopt a discipline code, such code shall require teachers to notify a parent or guardian by letter or, if possible, by telephone if they are having a discipline problem with the parent's or guardian's child prior to any formal action by the board of school directors." Some teachers are suspending students without notifying the parent or guardian. If they will notify the parents, this will be better for the students and the teachers. Some of these problems can be worked out without suspending the student, and that is the purpose for this amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the lady.

On the adoption of the Harper amendment, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Davies.

Mr. DAVIES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the Harper amendment, even though it may be stated as a "may" provision, simply on the grounds that the courts have established over the many years that the matter of dress has been established as a matter of nothing more than an extension of the freedom-of-speech concept that we have inculcated into the Constitution of the United States and the other aspects of it, as I understand. If I do not understand the lady's amendment, I will be glad to place a question about the amendment, because I do not have the amendment in front of me.

The SPEAKER. The lady, Mrs. Harper, indicates she will stand for interrogation. The gentleman, Mr. Davies, is in order and may proceed.

Will the pages make sure that Mr. Davies has a copy of the amendment.

Mrs. HARPER. Mr. Speaker, this amendment does not have anything to do with the dress code. This is just an amendment stating that the teachers should notify the parent or guardian if they are having a problem with a child. This only is a part of the discipline code, not the dress code.

Mr. DAVIES. I see. All right. May I ask the lady one or two questions?

The SPEAKER. The lady has indicated she will stand for interrogation. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. DAVIES. As far as the "may" provisions for the disciplinary code under this amendment, Mr. Speaker, this letter or phone call, must it have some kind of formalized receipt so that there is no chance that this goes awry and that those involved are properly informed or there is that kind of guarantee of due process involved in this?

Mrs. HARPER. Mr. Speaker, this is just an attempt to bring the teacher and the parent closer together in trying to work out the problem with the student. It will certainly be a help to the student as well as the teacher to work out this discipline code, and it is just a matter of notifying the parent. I am sure for a lot of parents— In fact, I spoke with a number of parents, and they were so surprised to have their students suspended without even hearing anything from the teachers, so the teachers should at least notify the parents and let them know that they are having a discipline problem. This will help the teacher as well as the student. It is not mandatory, but it certainly should be done.

Mr. DAVIES. All right. Now, Mr. Speaker, the second question is, is there going to be required of this a proper notification of the administrators involved in that particular area of administration so that it is not just the parent, that there is a proper notification and that this is a matter of record within the school district as well?

Mrs. HARPER. Yes. This notification can go out from the school directors or the teacher. It is just a matter of sending a letter or a telephone call.

Mr. DAVIES. All right. And even though that is not stated in the amendment per se of A4104, is that just a matter of your assuming that that will be done, or just what kind of guarantee is established in that process?

Mrs. HARPER. That is established in the bill, that the school administrators will oversee that procedure.

Mr. DAVIES. In other words, Mr. Speaker, that would be a continuation of part of that "may" provision. Is that right?

Mrs. HARPER. That is correct.

Mr. DAVIES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The following roll call was recorded:

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's remarks will be spread upon the record.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Flick.

The House proceeded to third consideration of SB 652, PN 731, entitled:

An Act providing for the transfer of a tract of land in Woodbury Township, Blair County, to the Blair County Historical Society, Inc.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On final passage, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Johnson.

Mr. JOHNSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
I would apologize for my voice. I have laryngitis today.

I would just like to inform the members, this is a piece of real estate which was purchased a number of years ago by the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth has not maintained the real estate. I have had a number of complaints from my constituents, and I sincerely believe that passage of this bill and conveyance of this real estate to the Blair County Historical Society is in the best interests of the Commonwealth. The real estate will be restored to colonial condition; it will be furnished with colonial furniture by the Blair County Historical Society, and I urge favorable consideration of this piece of legislation. Thank you, sir.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE CONSIDERED

Mr. DAWIDA called up for consideration the following Report of the Committee of Conference on HB 379, PN 2035, entitled:

An Act providing for the licensing and regulating of public adjusters and public adjuster solicitors.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the committee of conference?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dawida.

Mr. DAWIDA. Mr. Speaker, I urge a "yes" vote on the conference report. This bill passed the House 198 to nothing; it passed the Senate 49 to 1; and then it was signed by all six conferees. The changes that were made were basically tinkering with a bill that deals with a very small area of insurance. I think that we have reached a fair consensus among all parties, and I urge a "yes" vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Dorr. Mr. DORR. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dawida, submit to interrogation?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Dawida, indicates he will stand for interrogation. The gentleman, Mr. Dorr, is in order and may proceed.

Mr. DORR. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman indicate whether or not this bill contains a sunset provision?

Mr. DAWIDA. No; none of us thought that this was the appropriate kind of legislation for that.

Mr. DORR. May I make brief remarks, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. DORR. Mr. Speaker, I apologize to the gentleman from Allegheny and the other supporters of this bill for not being more on top of this earlier, but I think that this is exactly the kind of legislation in which we ought to have a sunset provision. We are going through, as everyone well knows, a very extensive process regarding sunset at this time with regard to most licensing laws. This particular bill, while it does not in effect create a licensing law, because as I understand it there is present law on the books, in fact it is the establishment of an extensive licensing process, and I would recommend that we send it back to conference for the insertion of a sunset provision.

The gentleman and others know that I am not an advocate of extending our licensing laws in this Commonwealth generally, but I really do not have any strong objection to this particular bill if we can just do that. But I do think it is important to insert the sunset provision in this bill, and I would therefore recommend that we vote in the negative, just for that strict purpose of making that one editorial change. Again, I apologize for being late in the process.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dawida.

Mr. DAWIDA. As Mr. Dorr knows, I am less an advocate of licensing than even he is, having had a bill for the last 4 years before that committee which I think would strengthen our hold over how we do licensing. However, this particular thing really is not an appropriate sunset vehicle. It is a very, very small area with 181 licensed adjusters. The group has been licensed. We are not changing anything in the way that is done. What we are doing, though, is tightening up some loopholes where consumers were being ripped off.

We worked 2 years on this bill, and I think it is in shape right now to be passed. I would urge a "yes" vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Reinard.

Mr. REINARD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, excluding the comments just recently made on this bill, I just wanted to let the members of the House know that I also, being a conferee on the bill, agree with the current language and would just like this side of the aisle to know that.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the committee of conference?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

REMARKS ON VOTE

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Godshall. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. MOWERY offered the following amendments No. A4143:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 8304), page 2, line 13, by inserting after "credit."

Contributions for the purchase of credit in the event of a divestiture of entitlement or eligibility for future benefits shall be calculated and paid pursuant to section 8324(e) (relating to contributions for purchase of credit for creditable nonschool service).

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 8324), page 3, line 6, by inserting after "of"

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 8324), page 3, line 8, by inserting after "8304(B)"

(3) and

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 8324), page 3, line 13, by inserting after "8304(B)"

(3) and

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 8324), page 3, line 15, by inserting after "options)."

However, with regard to creditable work experience described in section 8304(b)(3), this subsection shall apply only to those instances in which divestiture of entitlement or eligibility for future benefits is utilized in order to receive creditable nonschool service credit under that section.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Mowery.

Mr. MOWERY. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

The amendment is really a technical addition to the bill, as it relates to the out-of-State pensioners buying into the State plan. I believe the amendment is agreed to on both sides, and I ask for support of the amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Gallagher.

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I concur with Representative Mowery that the amendment is right in order, and I urge the members to support the amendment.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. Does the majority leader wish to announce a special caucus? The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. MANDERINO. Mr. Speaker, the members of the House, I am sure, if they do not know, were wondering what all these sidebar conferences were at the side of the podium. The urgency that was with us to pass SB 302, which is the bank shares tax, remains with us today, and the school districts are still at risk in not receiving prompt payments. I think they are already informed that payments will be delayed. But the sooner that problem can be solved, the sooner the school districts across the State can get the moneys they need to operate with, at least in the quarterly payment.

The Senate this afternoon is considering an amendment to SB 302, which generally seems to have the agreement of the banking industry and all persons in leadership who have looked at the change to SB 302 which is being made in the Senate.

We will not receive SB 302, by our best estimates, until about 4 o'clock this afternoon. We will need at least an hour of that time for a caucus. I would suggest that we go to caucus and caucus on what we will expect to receive from the Senate. We have the amendment in print; we have copies of the bill sufficient enough, I think, to satisfy each of the caucuses. I suggest that we break, go to an immediate caucus, and return to the floor at 4 o'clock. Should the bill be here as we hope it will be from the Senate at that time, I do not envision any extended debate, and we ought to be able to conclude our business for the day rather quickly.

Mr. Speaker, unless there are other announcements, I would ask that the Democrats report to caucus immediately upon the call of the recess and the recess, Mr. Speaker, be until 4 o'clock. I imagine the Republicans— Mr. Noye can announce his caucus.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Perry, Mr. Noye.

Mr. NOYE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Republicans will caucus immediately in the caucus room. I would ask all Republicans to be there promptly.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

REMARKS ON VOTE

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Flick, rise?

Mr. FLICK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

When the vote was taken on SB 652, I was not in my seat. Had I been in my seat, I would have recorded my vote in the affirmative. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the record.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. This House stands in recess until 4 p.m.

RECESS EXTENDED

The time of recess was extended until 5 p.m.; further extended until 5:30 p.m.; further extended until 6 p.m.; further extended until 6:30 p.m.; further extended until 6:45 p.m.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The clerk of the Senate, being introduced, returned HB 947, PN 2211, with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The reason for the delay, so that the members know it is not deliberate, is that we have been waiting all evening for the print shops to catch up with the printing orders of SB 302. I am informed now that the bills will be ready for distribution in another 6 to 7 minutes.

The Chair urges those members who are still in their offices to please now come to the floor of the House. This is not a false alarm. We are going to vote on SB 302.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The clerk of the Senate, being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House by amending said amendments to SB 302, PN 1530.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the House requesting concurrence.

SENATE MESSAGE

HOUSE AMENDMENTS CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The clerk of the Senate, being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the Senate amendments to HB 258, PN 2207.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

The Chair gave notice that he was about to sign the following bills, which were then signed:

HB 258, PN 2207

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, providing for computer-related offenses; further providing for authorization of interception of wire or oral communications; and extending the sunset provision relating to wiretapping and electronic surveillance.

SB 652, PN 731

An Act providing for the transfer of a tract of land in Woodbury Township, Blair County, to the Blair County Historical Society, Inc.

SB 835, PN 1353

An Act authorizing and directing the Department of General Services, with the approval of the General State Authority and the Department of Transportation, to sell and convey to the Medical College of Pennsylvania 0.8538 acres of land, more or less, situate in the City of Philadelphia, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

MAYOR OF PITTSBURGH PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair was delighted to welcome to the hall of the House earlier the mayor-elect of the city of Philadelphia.

It is a distinct honor and privilege to present another friend of the Chair's, a very personal friend, the mayor of the other great city in this Commonwealth, the city of Pittsburgh, Mayor Richard Caliguiri.

Mayor CALIGUIRI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I was just saying to the mayor-elect, Wilson Goode, what an impressive hall this hall is. It always gives you a sense of awe, and you feel so good inside when you look around this hall, and I wonder how that would be topped. But you have just done it by the accolade that you have just given me. You make me feel so warm inside and feel so good, and I do certainly appreciate that most heartedly.

Let me say on behalf of all the citizens of Pittsburgh how fortunate we are to have the membership that is here running this State today. I do hope, as I have said before so often, that survey that indicated that we are going to lose some 500,000 people out of this State, I am sure if all of you in this hall have anything to do with it, and I can say that if Wilson Goode and I have anything to do with it, we are not going to make that survey come true. We will turn it around and bring 500,000 people to the greatest State in this Union, and that is Pennsylvania, and all of you in this room have made it that way.

I certainly appreciate this opportunity to appear before you, and you can rest assured that both Pittsburgh and Philadelphia will do all they can for all the cities, all the urban and suburban areas of this fine State of ours, to make it and keep it just a grand State.

Thank you all so very much.

The SPEAKER. I want to thank both mayors for taking their valuable time in coming here. They have promised that they will be back to listen to the problems of the General Assembly, and I promised them that we will have plenty of problems to tell them about.

Thank you very, very much. I know you both have to rush back home. We appreciate your coming. We look forward to your return.
