No. 69

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (IVAN ITKIN) IN THE CHAIR

PRAYER

REV. CLYDE W. ROACH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Gracious God our Father, we raise our voices in humble thanksgiving for the manifold and great blessings that You have bestowed upon our Commonwealth, our Nation, and ourselves. You have made us a great and prosperous people, and we pray that we will ever be true to You.

We recall the first Thanksgiving celebrated by the Pilgrims and how You enabled them to survive their first winter, to gather their first harvest, and to feast on wild turkey and venison with their Indian guests.

May we be reminded that as You were with them, so will You be with us, if we are faithful in the discharge of our responsibilities to You and our fellow man.

In Your dear name we pray. Amen.

1989 SURPLUS PROPERTY DISPOSITION PLAN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair wishes to acknowledge receipt from the Governor of the Surplus Property Disposition Plan No. 1 of 1989, which will then be placed on the legislative calendar.

The following communication was submitted:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Governor's Office
Harrisburg

To the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

By the authority vested in me by Article XXIV-A of the act of April 9, 1929, (P.L. 177, No. 175), known as "The Administrative Code of 1929," added by Section 5 of the Act of July 1, 1981 (P.L. 143, No. 48) and entitled "Disposition of Commonwealth Surplus Land," I transmit herewith the 1989 Surplus Property Disposition Plan.

The annual Surplus Property Disposition Plan, required by Article XXIV-A, provides for the systematic management of Commonwealth-owned real estate assets and the efficient disposition of surplus holdings. The Plan also ensures that all conveyances are made for fair consideration predicated upon fair market value.

Contained in the Plan for 1989 are three (3) properties whose usefulness to State Government has ceased. However, they are useful and valuable for other purposes. Any special considerations, such as zoning restrictions, retention of mineral rights, and easements or leases presently in effect, have been identified.

Pursuant to Article XXIV-A, the Plan was transmitted to the Chairman and the Minority Chairman of the House and the Senate State Government Committees. The House and Senate Committees conducted a joint public hearing on September 26, 1989, as part of their review of the Plan and advised the Department of General Services of their findings.

The Department of General Services also invited public comment on the Plan through publication in the Pennsylvania

Bulletin, Vol. 19, No. 34, August 26, 1989. In addition, pursuant to Article XXIV-A, the Department requested and received approval of the Plan by the Attorney General as to form and legality.

Legislative consideration of the sale of the property contained in the Plan will result in substantial benefits to the Commonwealth, including the return of idle real estate to the local tax rolls, the reduction of State exposure to liability and other insurance risks, and the elimination of excessive security and maintenance costs.

I, therefore, transmit to you and urge your approval of the 1989 Surplus Property Disposition Plan.

Robert P. Casey
Governor

HB 1781, PN 2709.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 820, PN 2638, entitled:

An Act amending the act of December 7, 1982 (P. L. 784, No. 225), known as the "Dog Law," providing for the control of dangerous dogs; and providing penalties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. BRANDT offered the following amendment No. A3392:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 507-A), page 8, line 19, by striking out "bites or"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Brandt.

Mr. BRANDT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment basically is technical in nature. It removes language that is already in the bill and the act at other places.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. Brandt, from Lancaster is in order and may proceed.

Mr. BRANDT. Mr. Speaker, this amendment basically makes it more meaningful as far as the enforcement section, and if an occurrence occurs within 1 year of the first violation, they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Under current law this could go for years and they could be built up into higher degrees of violations. And also, the department requested this amendment.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Brandt.

Mr. BRANDT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Through the committee action on this bill, there was an amendment added to include the enforcement of this act in the city of Philadelphia and in other second- and second-class-A cities. Presently the Dog Law Enforcement Office out of the Department of Agriculture does not enforce the law in those cities.

We put an amendment in at the request of Representative Linton to cover those other areas of the State, and once it was written, there was a concern expressed by our legal staff that perhaps the way it was written, the enforcement would only apply to those cities of the first class and second class and second class A.

It is really another amendment technical in nature, Mr. Speaker, and I urge support of this amendment also.

Amend Title, page 1, line 14, by inserting after "dogs;" further providing for inspections;

Amend Bill, page 8, by inserting between lines 21 and 22

Section 3. Section 901(a) of the act is amended to read: Section 901. Enforcement of this act by the Secretary of Agriculture; provisions for inspections.

(a) General rule.—The secretary, through State dog wardens, employees of the department and police officers, shall be charged with the general enforcement of this law. The secretary may employ all proper means for the enforcement of this act and may enter into agreements with local agencies and organizations for the purpose of dog control. State dog wardens and employees of the department are hereby authorized to enter upon the premises of any persons for the purpose of investigation [upon displaying his badge of identification furnished by the department]. A dog warden may enter into a home or other building only with the permission of the occupant or with a duly issued search warrant.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Birmelin, from Wayne. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. BIRMELIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Before I just give a brief explanation of this amendment, I would like to inform the Chair that I am withdrawing amendment A3417, and I will only be offering the one that I am currently going to explain.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendment before the House is amendment A3628. The gentleman is in order and may proceed.

Mr. BIRMELIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is a quirk in the current law that if you will read the amendment, you will see that currently dog wardens are allowed to enter onto the premises of a property without a search warrant. That is clearly unconstitutional. The amendment that I am introducing here clarifies the fact that a dog warden could not enter into a person's home unless they were given permission or had a duly authorized search warrant, therefore clarifying this language, and I think this will be of benefit to the citizens of Pennsylvania to know that their constitutional rights are being protected in this manner.

Also, I would like to let you know that the Department of Agriculture is in favor of this and feels it would help their law enforcement as well.

I would ask for your support.

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Mr. LEE offered the following amendments No. A3624:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 505-A), page 6, line 2, by inserting after "dog"
, through the intentional, reckless or negligent conduct of the dog's owner,

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 505-A), page 6, line 10, by inserting after "that"
, through the intentional, reckless or negligent conduct of the dog's owner,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Wyoming, Mr. Lee.

Mr. LEE. Mr. Speaker, section 505-A of HB 820 criminalizes certain behavior concerning the keeping of dangerous dogs and other dogs. Specifically, section 505-A(b) makes it a second-degree misdemeanor if a dangerous dog attacks a person or another domestic animal. The dog's owner will be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree. In section 505-A(c), the owner of any dog that aggressively attacks and causes severe injury or death of any human shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree.

Mr. Speaker, this section contains no standard of culpability which a court shall use to determine whether an individual is actually guilty of this crime. What my amendment would do is basically establish a negligence standard for these crimes. Specifically, if anyone intentionally or recklessly or negligently takes care of his or her dog, then they shall be guilty of a crime, instead of setting up a strict liability standard which the bill seems to imply.

This amendment has been agreed to by the prime sponsor of the bill, Representative Brandt, and I urge its adoption.

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Brandt.

Mr. BRANDT. Mr. Speaker, on final passage, I would just like to note that this issue has been with this Assembly for two sessions. Representative Honaman started this issue about 2 years ago.

I would like to quote from a letter from the Pennsylvania Federation of Dog Clubs. It says:

This bill will help communities control the problems associated with dogs that pose a threat to their citizens and will force the irresponsible owners of these dangerous dogs to adequately protect us all from them. At the same time, this legislation gives protection to the many responsible dog owners whose pets are now being discriminated against because someone believes that all dogs of some type of physical description or breed are automatically "vicious".

I urge the adoption of this bill, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 368, PN 1782, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 1, 1981 (P. L. 191, No. 57), entitled "An act establishing certain fees to be charged by registers of wills in counties of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth class and providing for fees in counties of the second, second A, third and fourth class," providing for the fees to be levied by register of wills in counties of the second through fourth class.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. LLOYD offered the following amendment No. A3373:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 2.1), page 5, lines 6 and 7, by striking out "AND FOURTH CLASS" and inserting
, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Lloyd.

Mr. LLOYD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this bill at the present time would give registers of wills in second- through fourth-class counties, with the concurrence of the presiding judge, the opportunity to adjust their fees. My amendment would extend that same option to registers of wills, with the concurrence of the presiding judge, in fifth-, sixth-, seventh-, and eighth-class counties.

I am offering this amendment at the request of the register of wills of Somerset County, which is a sixth-class county. It is my understanding that a number of registers from smaller counties have taken the position that if this option is going to be given to some, it should be given to all, and that is what my amendment would accomplish.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Gallen.

Mr. GALEN. Mr. Speaker, I support the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On final passage, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Dorr.

Mr. DORR. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make a comment for the record here.

I voted for the previous amendment, and I think under the present circumstances we did that properly. But I think it is absolutely foolish for us in this day and age, Mr. Speaker, to have 67 different fees across this Commonwealth for conducting the same business in our row offices.

I would hope that the Supreme Court would be listening and that maybe the members of the Judiciary Committee of this House or the State Government Committee, whoever might have jurisdiction over that matter, would also give some thought to that issue. It seems to me that it would be not only appropriate but very helpful to the consuming public, if you will, those people who use the services of our various row offices, to have uniform fees in this Commonwealth. I see no reason why we should not, and I would hope that we would get about that business quickly.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

The House proceeded to third consideration of SB 484, PN 508, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 11, 1967 (P. L. 205, No. 69), entitled "An act to validate conveyances and other instruments which have been defectively acknowledged," extending the effectiveness of the act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. LLOYD offered the following amendment No. A3588:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 2, line 5, by inserting after "law," or because the date of the acknowledgment predates the date of the instrument,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes Mr. Lloyd from Somerset County.

Mr. LLOYD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment is being offered at the request of a lawyer in my district who does a lot of real estate work. There is apparently a dispute, which I have confirmed with staff, within the legal profession about whether this legislation takes care of the situation in which you have multiple signers of a deed or a conveyance and some of those people's signatures are acknowledged prior to the date having been affixed to the document, and this would clarify that dispute. It would settle the dispute by spelling out that such an event would not render the document invalid. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill passed finally.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS

The clerk of the Senate, being introduced, returned the following HB 71, PN 2673, with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further regulating the carrying of loaded firearms in a vehicle; and making a technical change.

On the question,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Staback.

Mr. STABACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the Senate amendment is one of clarification. It simply states that people who are licensed to carry firearms will still be able to carry those guns loaded in a vehicle or on their person. People who indeed are not licensed cannot do that.

The amendment has no impact on the intent of HB 71. I have no problem with it and ask for concurrence.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Godshall.

Mr. GODSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The language added by the Senate really does not harm the bill. It makes the bill a lot more confusing than when it left the House, but it does not harm it, so I also concur with the Senate language.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Moved by the gentlemen, Mr. Staback and Mr. Godshall, that the House do concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate. The question recurs, will the House concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate? Those voting to concur will vote "aye"; those voting to non-concur will vote "no."

On the question recurring,
Will the House concur in Senate amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

STATEMENT BY MR. COWELL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Cowell.

Mr. COWELL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I know members are anxious to return to their offices and to other business, but I wanted to take a couple of minutes to share some information about special education regulations and standards that might be of interest to members, particularly since members may be receiving comment from constituents about this issue during the next couple of weeks when you are back in your districts.

You might recall that when we passed the budget at the end of June, we also passed Act 43, and in Act 43 the legislature directed the State Board of Education to promulgate new regulations and standards no later than March 1 of 1990 - regulations and standards for special education. The State Board of Education is well along in that process, and last Thursday, on November 9, the board adopted a motion of intent to adopt regulations and standards. Those regulations and standards, which were the subject of that action by the State Board last week, are now subject to review by the House and Senate Education Committees, and Act 43 gave us 30 days during which time we could develop comments and deliver comments to the State Board pertaining to the special education regulations and standards.

As part of that process of doing some homework, the House Education Committee next Monday at 1 o'clock is going to conduct a meeting where we will receive a briefing by the department and by the State Board of Education on the regulations and standards. I would encourage any members or their staff who might have an interest in learning more about what is in the special education proposals to sit through that briefing. I would expect it is going to be very helpful.

Additionally, we will be delivering to everybody's mailbox later today a copy of the proposed regulations and standards so that you will have the benefit of the material that was considered by the State Board last week.

The deadline that our committee is working with is Monday, December 11. By that time, we are going to have to deliver to the State Board whatever formal comments or reaction we want to offer pertaining to the regulations and standards which have been proposed, and I would hope that we would have the benefit of comments and suggestions from all the members of the House. If you are going to offer us comments and suggestions, I would encourage you to deliver those to my office or to Ed Burns' office as soon as possible so that we can make sure those opinions are reflected in the comment that we deliver to the State Board.

Mr. Speaker, if there are any questions about this issue, I am going to be in my office for the remainder of the day. I would be glad to try to respond to any requests for additional information. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.
