LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1990

SESSION OF 1990

174TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 45

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (IVAN ITKIN) PRESIDING

PRAYER

REV. CLYDE W. ROACH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Almighty God, You know that we are in the midst and process of negotiating a budget for sustaining this Commonwealth. You also know that we do not have the wisdom, knowledge, or understanding to produce a budget by ourselves, for the needs of our people are so great and our resources meager.

There are so many people and agencies clamoring for their share of our bounty, and we want to do all possible to share and advance the interests of our Commonwealth. Grant that as we forge this budget, we do not forget the widows and the orphans, the homeless and the destitute, for we realize that the mark of a great people is how they treat the least among them.

In Your dear name we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Monday, June 25, 1990, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears no objection.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. However, the Journal for Wednesday, June 6, 1990, is in print and, without objection, will be approved. The Chair hears no objection.

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177, No. 175), known as "The Administrative Code of 1929," requiring gender balance for State board and commission appointments.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Mrs. RUDY offered the following amendments No. A2269:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 224), page 2, lines 15 through 25, by striking out all of said lines and inserting the cumulative number of appointments represent, to the extent possible, equal numbers of women and men by the year 1995.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 224), page 2, line 30, by inserting after "for"

the development of a Statewide roster of qualified women for appointment to State boards and commissions,

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes the lady from Centre, Mrs. Rudy.

Mrs. RUDY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Amendment 2269 should make HB 2272 more acceptable to most of you, as it would require gender balance of the cumulative number of appointments made by the Governor to the boards and commissions in Pennsylvania by the year 1995. The amendment would also require the Pennsylvania Commission for Women to develop a statewide roster of qualified women for appointment to these State boards and commissions.

I urge you to support this amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Williams.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment to the bill as it is currently drafted. The amendment is being brought to me now, so I am asking that the final passage vote be delayed.

DECISION OF CHAIR RESCINDED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the Chair rescinds its statement that the bill has been agreed to on third consideration as amended.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

BILL PASSED OVER TEMPORARILY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, this bill will go over temporarily.

The Chair recognizes the lady from Centre, Mrs. Rudy.

Mrs. RUDY. Mr. Speaker, I am not quite sure if his amendment would be appropriate since the amendment that I just put into the bill has been accepted. It would change the whole complexity of the bill and change the whole language of the measure. I would like the Parliamentarian to rule on that amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair does not have in front of it the amendment that the gentleman prepares to offer.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the amendment is in my hand. I can give it to the clerk so it can be reviewed.

But I would like to add that I discussed this amendment with the maker of the bill. It was discussed in committee. I made a compromise in committee so that the bill could come to the floor. I also explained that I would introduce the amendment, because I think, frankly, that the discussion that we are having today with regard to this bill is significant. I am going to support the bill, but I would be insulted if I were not allowed to offer my amendment and it go up or down on the merits of the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It is the position of the Chair that the bill is over temporarily and we will consider the merits of the amendment when the bill is called up for further consideration.

The Chair recognizes the minority caucus chairman, Mr. Noye.

Mr. NOYE. Mr. Speaker, this is going to be a very long and trying week for all of us. If members are going to insist on offering amendments, then I think it is only fair that the members have an advance look at those amendments.

I am asking, I am pleading with the members, if you are going to offer amendments to bills, please see that Mr. Cohen and myself get a copy of them before we go to caucus.

This proposed amendment that was just offered by the gentleman has not been seen by our caucus. I would like to have it for caucus so that we can intelligently vote on the amendment. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the lady from Centre seek further recognition at this time?

Mrs. RUDY. Mr. Speaker, I would like the Parliamentarian to rule on this amendment right now so we no longer further the delay of this piece of legislation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair wishes to advise the members of the House that the bill is no longer in front of the chamber. It has been passed over temporarily.

WELCOME

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair at this time would like to welcome Miriam Mazza and Dione Enea, who are the guests of Representative Robert Freeman of Northampton County, and they are located in the balcony. Would they please rise and be recognized.

FILMING PERMISSION

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair at this time wishes to advise the House that it has given permission to Tim Hagan of WHP-TV to photograph on the floor of the House for the next 10 minutes.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION CONTINUED

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 727, PN 3380, entitled:

An Act amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, authorizing district attorneys to seal affidavits setting forth probable cause for the issuance of a search warrant.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. FOX offered the following amendments No. A2677:

Amend Title, page 1, line 2, by striking out "district" and inserting prosecuting

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 8934), page 1, lines 11 and 12, by striking out "DISTRICT ATTORNEY OR HIS REPRESENTATIVE" and inserting

attorney for the Commonwealth

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 8934), page 2, lines 2 and 3, by striking out "set for a hearing on" in line 2, all of line 3 and inserting of common pleas court arraignment, unless the period is extended by the court for good cause shown. If the case is to be tried in the Philadelphia Municipal Court, the affidavit or affidavits shall be sealed until the time of discovery, unless the period is extended for good cause shown.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes Mr. Fox.

Mr. FOX. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the amendment will address the concerns that were raised by members in making the legislation more fair. The district attorneys of our counties would be able to apply for the sealing of a search warrant, especially for drug cases or other violent crimes, only when it is approved by the court, and number two, it would have to be done in the time period extended only until time of arraignment instead of pretrial motions so that all public defenders could take appropriate action on behalf of their clients.

This legislation has been endorsed by the Attorney General. We would appreciate an affirmative vote on the amendment and the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The following roll call was recorded:

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION POSTPONED

The House proceeded to HB 1380, PN 3436, on third consideration postponed, entitled:

An Act amending Title 20 (Decedents, Estates and Fiduciaries) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, adding provisions relating to guardians of incapacitated persons, and making conforming amendments to Titles 13, 18, 23 and 42.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

BILL TABLED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Kukovich.

Mr. KUKOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I move that HB 1380, PN 3436, be placed on the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to.

BILL REMOVED FROM TABLE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Kukovich.

Mr. KUKOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I move that HB 1380, PN 3436, be removed from the table and placed on the active calendar.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
Motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

The House proceeded to consideration on final passage of HB 1655, PN 3052, entitled:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further defining the offense of ethnic intimidation to include sexual orientation; and changing the designation of the offense.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

DECISION OF CHAIR RESCINDED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the Chair rescinds its statement that HB 1655 was considered for the third time.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Ms. JOSEPHS offered the following amendments No. A1888:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2710), page 2, lines 13 and 14, by inserting a bracket before ““malicious” in line 13 and after “the” where it appears the first time in line 14 and inserting immediately thereafter the following words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this subsection:

“Malicious intention.” The

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2710), page 2, by inserting between lines 18 and 19

“Sexual orientation.” Consensual homosexuality or heterosexuality.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Ms. Josephs.

Ms. JOSEPHS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, if my colleagues will remember, early in April HB 1655 was brought up and tabled for lack of a definition of “sexual orientation.” The bill would add to the Ethnic Intimidation Act protection for people who are attacked on the basis of their sexual orientation.

I am offering an amendment which, incidentally, is the same as an amendment offered by my colleague, David Heckler, which so defines “sexual orientation.” The definition in my amendment is “consensual homosexuality or heterosexuality.”

I urge a vote in favor of this amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Birmelin.

Mr. BIRMELIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am not going to oppose this amendment, although I will be opposing the bill. I think this amendment is basically just putting a Band-Aid on cancer. It is not really going to sub-stantively change the bill, so I have no reason to oppose it and would ask for a positive vote.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Foster.

Mr. FOSTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would urge the members of the House to pay attention to the debate not on the amendment but on the ensuing vote.

I regard the lady’s technical amendment as meaningless and irrelevant to the central issue, the central issue being whether we are going to give special status in this General Assembly to perversion. However, that is an issue that must be addressed on final passage of the bill.

Do as you like on the amendment. The amendment is meaningless to the main issue.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Birmelin, for the second time.

Mr. BIRMELIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am told that the other microphone did not work too well and many did not hear my comments. I would just simply like to reiterate what Representative Foster said, that my argument is not over the amendment per se, because I do not think the amendment really does anything to improve the bill, and therefore, I have no opposition to it and will speak later on the bill itself. Thank you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Mr. SAURMAN offered the following amendments No. A1646:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2710), page 1, line 9, by striking out the bracket before "Ethnic"

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2710), page 1, line 9, by striking out ".] BIAS-RELATED OFFENSES." and inserting [.] and other bias-related offenses.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2710), page 1, line 11, by striking out "A BIAS-RELATED OFFENSE" and inserting an offense under this section

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes Mr. Saurman.

Mr. SAURMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This is a very simple amendment, but it amends a problem that I had raised when this bill was before us before. It does not take away the original intention of the bill, which was ethnic intimidation, but retains that and simply adds "and other bias-related offenses," so that we add something without taking away what has been established.

In another section below, it takes away "a bias-related offense" and refers to "an offense under this section." It just simply adds the new impetus without taking away from the original, which I think we need to retain.

I would appreciate support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Leh.

Mr. LEH. Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak on final passage. Thank you.

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Birmelin.

Mr. BIRMELIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I do have some comments and would like to share them with the House and would ask for their attention.

I rise in opposition to HB 1655. This bill would amend section 2710 of our Crimes Code to punish those who commit acts of assault, criminal mischief, harassment, and certain other criminal actions against individuals because of their homosexuality or heterosexuality more severely than if these very same acts were committed for most other reasons. This section grants a special preferential treatment currently to persons who are assaulted or harassed because of their race, their color, their national origin, or their religion. The bill that we have before us, HB 1655, intends to amend that act that is currently in force to include sexual orientation to this select list of specially favored victims.

The section 2709 crime of harassment represents an excellent example of how this bill will work if amended. Under current law, it is a summary offense to strike, to shove, or to make physical contact with another person in order to harass or annoy or alarm that person. Moreover, it is a summary offense to even threaten to strike or shove another person with the intent to annoy. Similarly, persons can be prosecuted for harassment if they engage in a pattern of conduct which seriously annoys another person or which serves no legitimate purpose. Persons who commit this offense are prosecuted before a district justice and they are subject to a possible penalty of up to 90 days' imprisonment or a fine of up to $300 or both. Thus, we treat harassment much in the same way that we treat underage drinking or disorderly conduct; that is, we treat it as a rather minor offense.

If an individual repeatedly harasses a particular woman because she symbolizes his hatred of women in general or because she has rejected his unwanted attentions, he commits a summary offense. Keep in mind, this bill does not prohibit harassment based on the sex or gender of the victim, only on the basis of that victim's sexual orientation.

If a person commits an act of harassment because the victim is obese or is physically unattractive or stutters or has some other handicap, he only commits a summary offense. If a person commits an act of harassment because he disagrees with that person's political views, he commits a summary offense. If a person commits harassment because he is motivated by jealousy, revenge, lust, or a thousand other reasons, all which could be hateful, he commits only a summary offense.

If this bill becomes law, however, and a person commits an act of harassment because the person was a homosexual, or it could be because he was a heterosexual, he will not be prosecuted for a mere summary offense. Instead, he will be prosecuted for a third-degree misdemeanor with its maximum 10-year prison term and a fine of up to $2,500.

Let us take the crime of criminal mischief. If a person intentionally or recklessly tampers with the property of another so as to endanger that property and causes 20 or 30 dollars' worth of damage, he commits a summary offense and is subject to imprisonment of up to 90 days and a fine of up to $300 or both. It is a summary offense regardless of whether the perpetrator was motivated by his hatred for women, his hatred for the physical handicap of the person, or the unpopularity of the victim, his political views, or again, a thousand other reasons. However, if this bill becomes law and the offender causes criminal mischief involving that 20 or 30 dollars' worth of property damage because he did not like the person being a homosexual, he would be prosecuted for a third-degree misdemeanor with its maximum 10-year jail term and a possible $2,500 fine.

Let us take the crime of simple assault. If a person intentionally causes or attempts to cause bodily injury to another, he commits the crime of simple assault. Ordinarily, simple assault is a second-degree misdemeanor. Thus, violators are subject to a potential 2-year prison term and/or a $5,000 fine. Now, because the perpetrator may be motivated by anger, revenge, jealousy, or is simply looking for a little bloodsport or sick kicks, it does not matter if they happen to be women, physically handicapped, or politically unpopular. But however, if this becomes law and the perpetrator inflicts the same punishment on the person because he is a homosexual or a heterosexual, he commits a first-degree misdemeanor; he receives a 5-year prison term rather than 2 years and a fine of up to $10,000 rather than the $5,000 he would have gotten otherwise.

Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that homosexuality or sexual preference or sexual orientation of any type is entitled to special, preferential treatment that is denied to most of our other constituents. Our current law does extend this type of special protection to victims of crimes that are motivated by racial, religious, or ethnic bigotry or hatred, and I believe that this special protection is appropriate and fitting in those cases. America was largely created as a haven for victims of religious persecution, and freedom of religious belief forms a cornerstone in our Bill of Rights. America fought a long and bloody Civil War to abolish slavery and to enshrine racial justice as a fundamental constitutional principle. Criminals who assault others out of racial, religious, or ethnic hatred threaten the very social fabric that binds us together as a society, and they are at the very heart and soul of our American value system. Our assault statutes also accord special protection to children, to the elderly, to law enforcement, firefighters, and school personnel, all for reasons of a compelling nature.

However, I reject the notion that homosexuality is entitled to the same special status and preferential treatment that the United States Constitution accords to these other groups of racial, ethnic, and religious diversity. In 1986 the United States Supreme Court expressly ruled that homosexual behavior is not entitled to special constitutional protection as a fundamental right. I do not believe we should accord homosexual conduct the legitimacy or the status that it seeks through the passage of this legislation.

This is not to suggest that those who assault or harass homosexuals or heterosexuals should escape criminal prosecution or misconduct for their reprehensible behavior. People who hurt or harass for this reason should be vigorously prosecuted and punished under the same criminal law that applies to everyone else, and I believe that homosexual victims are entitled to the same protection of law accorded to most other Pennsylvania assault and harassment victims; no more, no less.

And I do not believe that most victims of an assault or a vicious harassment will think it fair that their tormentor faces a far lighter penalty than someone else who suffered the exact same kind of assault or harassment because of that person's homosexuality. Both victims have suffered the exact same physical pain, the exact same physical damage, and the exact same anxieties and fears for their personal safety, and it seems only fair that both tormentors receive the same punishment.

Currently, Pennsylvania does not criminalize private homosexual conduct. This is because of a 1980 Pennsylvania Supreme Court ruling that struck down our law prohibiting voluntary deviate sexual intercourse and punishing this offense as a second-degree misdemeanor. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court invalidated this law because of its view that the exemption for marriage partners violated equal protection.

What I am doing today, Mr. Speaker, in speaking against HB 1655 is seeking to preserve the status quo that has existed in our State for the past 10 years. We do not use our law to single out homosexuals for special punishment or discrimination, and on the other hand, we should not use our law to accord homosexuals any special preference or extra protection above and beyond that which is accorded Pennsylvanians in general. Pennsylvania does not even grant homosexuals the civil rights protection that we give those who have suffered discrimination on account of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, handicaps, et cetera. And I do not believe that we should use HB 1655 or any other bill to tamper with this delicate balance which keeps our law neutral on this controversial and divisive issue of homosexual conduct.

In summary then, I would say there are three reasons that we should vote "no" on HB 1655. First of all, in my view, the bill is a part of an agenda of the gay community to validate and give legal standing to lifestyles that millions of Pennsylvanians find offensive to their most fundamental moral beliefs and do not wish to see elevated above traditional sexual practices. Secondly, I believe it is inappropriate to include those of different sexual orientation to an existing ethnic intimidation statute. Thirdly, if the homosexual community is to be consistent with their own claims for equal treatment in Pennsylvania society, then they should not be asking for these special protections.

For those reasons I would ask for the defeat of HB 1655. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Leh.

Mr. LEH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise to make some remarks on HB 1655.

My concern primarily is with the term "sexual orientation." This term grew out of another term that homosexuals used, and that term was "sexual preference," which implies choice. That term was used by the homosexuals as an alternative to medical terms such as "sexual perversion" and "sexual deviation," because both of these terms had very bad connotations for the community at large. After all, a perversion is an undesirable and distorted act, something unnatural, and deviation implies that heterosexuality is the recognized norm, which it is. Most homosexuals have developed the thought that the acts they commit are simply something they do because that is the way they were born and not something they simply choose to do. Therefore, these acts could not be called a sexual preference, so they developed the term "sexual orientation." After all, this was the way they were born, and therefore, this is the way they are naturally oriented.

Mr. Speaker, I do not agree with that. This is a choice that these people make. They are not naturally inclined to this lifestyle, if that is what you wish to call it.

Now, I would like to turn to a comment that William Blackstone made from his commentaries on the Laws of England. The commentaries served as a foundation for our own law in these United States. With regard to homosexuality William Blackstone states, "...sodomy the infamous crime against nature, committed with either man or beast, the very mention of which is a disgrace to human nature."

Mr. Speaker, by reading a right of privacy into the 14th Amendment, the United States Supreme Court has dismissed the age-old prerogative of the community to insist that only married people - that is, people married to each other - may licitly have sexual intercourse. Since the days of the early Romans and Jews, sexual norms have been defined, and while there may have been times when the rules were widely and easily broken, there was never, and I repeat, there was never a time before when legal authorities stepped forward and said, we no longer have the right to make such rules.

The problem today, Mr. Speaker, is that the court, in attempting to develop a system of pluralistic values - that is, a value system that the lowest common denominator becomes our standard - no longer sees marriage as Christians and Jews have always seen it; that is, as an independent entity. Western society, with its Judeo-Christian ethic, has always viewed marriage as one man and one woman becoming one flesh and a new and independent entity. This is why a wife cannot be forced to testify against her husband, because we have laws prohibiting self-incrimination, and for the purpose of the law, the wife is considered identical with her husband. But today, marriage no longer has the same traditional legal status it once had. Serious social problems—

Ms. JOSEPHS. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary point.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Ms. Josephs. For what purpose does the lady rise?

Ms. JOSEPHS. I wonder whether the Speaker would rule if the gentleman, Mr. Leh, is speaking on the bill anymore.

Mr. LEH. Yes, I am, Mr. Speaker.

Ms. JOSEPHS. I hear him making a general and long statement about his view on sexuality and this society, which I am sure is interesting but may not have anything to do with this bill, which has to do with violence.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would ask the gentleman, Mr. Leh, to confine his remarks to the subject matter contained in the bill.

Mr. LEH. Okay.

Very briefly, Mr. Speaker, the legislation before us today in HB 1655 requires us, the citizens of this Commonwealth, to recognize homosexual behavior as an alternative lifestyle—that it does—and it be given minority status, and even a privileged minority status as alluded to by the previous speaker.

This is not only offensive to me but it offends all the decent, legitimate minorities in Pennsylvania. These people whom we are going to give this privileged minority status to are not simply the gentlemen who like to walk around holding hands. They do have an agenda. Their agenda is to turn our society upside down.

Ms. JOSEPHS. Mr. Speaker?

Mr. LEH. Mr. Speaker, I cannot speak on the bill any clearer than that. This bill will turn our society upside down. This bill will require us to remove the slogan "America Starts Here" to "America Ends Here," because sodomy has always resulted in the collapse of a civilization.

Mr. Speaker, I end my comments.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Foster.

Mr. FOSTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise to strenuously oppose this piece of legislation, and I assure the sponsors of it I will not be lengthy, because what I have to say can be said very quickly and simply.

This is nothing but a bill to try to equate perversion with ethnicity, religious background, or race, and I think that is insulting to the members of those other groups.

Now, I just would like to ask the sponsors, are you trying to tell me that being a pervert is the same as being Lithuanian or Latvian? Are you trying to tell me that being gay is the same as being black, yellow, or white? Are you trying to tell me that being a member of a perverted group is the same as being of one of our major religions?

We gave special status and protection to these three groups because they represent cherished values in our American society. I would just like to ask the sponsors, do you think that homosexuality is something that we can be proud of and we can elevate in our society and hold out to our children as a fine way of life in America? That is what this bill is all about, plain and simple. It is simply an attempt to elevate perversion to a status that it is totally—totally—out of place.

I would ask you to send this bill down to the crashing defeat that it deserves, and if the sponsors of the bill want to introduce gay rights legislation, let them do it openly and forthrightly instead of tiptoeing through the tulips with this type of backdoor legislation.

I ask for a negative vote on the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I believe the remarks we have just heard from Representative Leh and from Representative Foster really go to the heart of the debate about this bill. The question we face on this bill is whether crime victims have to be virtuous as we and our constituents define "virtuous" in order for them to get protection of the law. I have faced this question of whether crime victims have to be virtuous before, and I would like to share my experience with you.

My first committee assignment as a member of the House of Representatives was in 1974 when I was appointed to a committee to investigate the problems of rape victims. At that time the law as interpreted by juries and by the courts generally held that a rape victim might very well be responsible for the rape. Let me repeat that: The law at that time as interpreted by juries and by the courts held that a rape victim might very well be responsible for the rape.

Although the law in Pennsylvania and almost all other States did not put it this way, in practical terms, based on who was acquitted and who was convicted, it was almost legal for the rape of a single woman who was not a virgin. It was almost impossible for any prosecuting attorney, no matter how skilled, no matter how capable, no matter how dedicated, to gain a conviction for the raping of a single woman who would not claim without contradiction that she was a virgin. It was almost impossible for a prosecuting attorney, no matter how skilled or how dedicated, to gain a conviction for the rape of a married woman who could not claim without fear of contradiction that she was a virgin at the time of her marriage.

The argument against changing that law was that by changing that law, we would be encouraging sexual promiscuity, and the arguments were very, very similar to the arguments that Representative Foster made so eloquently just a few minutes ago. Are we to tell our constituents that sexually promiscuous women deserve preference under the law? Why should we help sexually promiscuous women? We would be encouraging sexual promiscuity. Those were the arguments we faced back in 1974, and as a result of that state of the law that the legislature considered and eventually changed, about three-quarters of all people prosecuted for rape were found innocent of rape, and many people who were raped felt, by looking at those odds, that there was no point in even prosecuting. So the number of prosecutions was very small. Only a small percentage of actual rape victims chose to prosecute, and only a small percentage of those who chose to prosecute gained any convictions.

I am proud that Pennsylvania was one of the first States to change the law. We decided that even if people did not meet our definition of "virtue" and even if they did not meet our constituents' definition of "virtue," they were entitled to protection under the law. We decided that rape was a serious crime and that we wanted people to be convicted of it if they in fact committed the crime. As a result of our change in the rape law, there are much more prosecutions of rape than there were 16 years ago, and now, whereas there was a 25-percent conviction rate in 1974, there is now about a 75-percent conviction rate. And no one has said, despite all the charges that have been made against this legislature, generally irresponsibly, no one has said that the State legislature has encouraged sexual promiscuity in this Commonwealth because we strengthened the law making it easier to prosecute rapists. No one at all has said that, and I really do not believe that once this law passes, people outside of this floor are going to say that we have encouraged homosexuality. I really do not think the district attorney of Pittsburgh, Robert Coville, is seeking to encourage homosexuality when he urges us to pass this legislation. I really do not think the district attorney of Philadelphia, Ron Castille, is seeking to encourage homosexuality when he urges us to pass this legislation.

The case of rape is not the only time we in the legislature have acted in what could be perceived as a defense of immoral conduct. We, for instance, spend a lot of money now in Pennsylvania on AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome) victims, and when we spend money on AIDS victims, we are spending money on AIDS victims knowing full well that the two leading groups of AIDS victims are homosexuals and drug users. When we support AIDS money, we are not endorsing homosexuality and we are not endorsing drug use; we are opposing disease.

Long before most of us were born, the State of Pennsylvania has been fighting syphilis, gonorrhea, and other diseases, and the main cause of the spread of these diseases is sexual promiscuity. Our predecessors in the legislature who started this funding long before most of us were born, it was not their vision that they wanted to encourage sexual promiscuity; it was their vision that they wanted to stop the spread of disease, and hatred is a disease. We do not want to encourage hatred of any group. And of course it is a much easier thing to make a case for Latvians than it is for homosexuals. It is much easier to defend the rights of Orthodox Jews or Fundamentalists Christians not to be attacked by people who hate their views than it is to defend the rights of homosexuals. Homosexuals are not the most sympathetic of groups for any of us to defend. But regardless of whether they are sympathetic or not, they are human beings created by God whom we have to represent, and we are not going to represent them by ignoring them, by making speeches appealing to fears, appealing to both hatreds and legitimate moral concerns on the part of our constituents. We are going to have a society in which people respect the law by making it clear that violations of the law will be dealt with firmly and strongly.

This is a law enforcement bill. This strengthens the power of law enforcement. That is the reason why I support it, why others support it, why Ron Castille, Robert Coville support it. That is the reason why Attorney General Ernie Preate supports it. This is a law enforcement bill. It strengthens law enforcement. It fights crime. It strengthens the belief that this is a lawful society. We do not have to say that homosexuals are good people to vote for this bill. The issue is not the goodness, the decency, the virtue of homosexuals. You do not have to endorse homosexuals to support this bill. All you have to do is endorse a belief in law.

I believe the people of Pennsylvania believe in law. I believe the people of Pennsylvania believe in law for all citizens, not just citizens they approve of. I urge support of this legislation. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the lady from Lehigh, Ms. Ritter.

Ms. RITTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As has been mentioned by the previous speaker, this bill is supported by Attorney General Ernie Preate, Philadelphia district attorney Ron Castille, and other DA's across the State as being an extra deterrent for hate crimes that is needed and justified.

Pennsylvania had the most gay-related murders in the Nation last year. Pennsylvania was second in the Nation in the number of incidents of police abuse against gays and ninth in the country in the number of physical assaults in general.

Federal law signed by President Bush in April requires the U.S. Justice Department to compile data on hate crimes, including those based on race, religion, sexual orientation, and ethnic background.

It is unconscionable that the Pennsylvania hate crime law does not include sexual orientation. It seems that even the Federal Government recognizes that homosexuals are at risk of victimization for crimes motivated by bigotry and hatred.

We are not providing special treatment for perversion as has been suggested. Bigots who are unsure of their own sexuality have already singled out homosexuals for special treatment through violence.

This bill does not represent a threat to families or family values, unless, of course, your family condones violence based solely on bigotry. My family does not. This bill simply recognizes that hate-motivated crimes which may be directed against anyone because of race, religion, ethnic background, or sexual orientation are of a particular menace to our society and must be stopped.

I cannot believe that in this kinder and gentler State we condone violence based on hatred of a person due entirely to the sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation of the victim.

Those of us who are not afraid or intimidated by anyone whose race, religion, ethnic background, or sexual orientation is different than our own and who are secure in our own sexuality will vote in favor of this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Murphy.

Mr. MURPHY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this legislation. As has been mentioned, this is a law and order bill. This is not a morality issue. The law and order has been typified by letters we have received from the District Attorneys Association, the Attorney General, and the district attorneys of the two largest cities in Pennsylvania. All of them have indicated that this legislation would be helpful in prosecuting antihate crimes, antigay crimes.

Let us not ignore that basic objective view that our major law enforcement officials in this Commonwealth have said to us that they need this legislation to effectively uphold the law. Why do they need it? They need it because Pennsylvania continues to rank second in the country in the number of gay-related murders. For those of you from the western part of the State, you might remember, just within the last year two young gentlemen, both educated in private schools, from upstanding families, decided to go and harass gays in Schenley Park, and the result ended in the murder of one of those gays. Why did that happen? It happened because we say it is okay. Why do we say it is okay? I want you to listen, listen to the comments that you have heard on the House floor here.

In the debate on this legislation, the comments I have heard on the House floor, one of my colleagues said, we do not have a problem in our town; we do not let any faggots live there. Another one said, boy, if I found out any faggots were teaching my children, I would kill them. Is that what you want? What you are saying is it is okay. Listen to the comments around you about this bill. Listen to the snickering. That snickering says why we need this bill. It says that you are bigoted. It says that you will not condone a different lifestyle. It says you will ignore the district attorneys of this State who say they need this legislation. Think about the comments you have just made. Think about the laughing you have done about this legislation. That is bigotry in action. You do not have to go out to the local bar, you do not have to go to your local sports events to hear bigotry. You can sit on the House floor here and listen to it. Keep that in mind when you are voting for this bill.

Now, as usual, some of my Republican colleagues did not know what they were talking about when they said this was a choice lifestyle. The overwhelming evidence from psychologists and psychiatrists and doctors in this Commonwealth indicates a gay orientation is not a choice issue; it is an orientation that comes very early in childhood. Unless you were sexually active at 2 or 3 or 4 years old, you probably did not have much of a choice.

The sad part about this is that you and I and many others here, we have friends and relatives who are gay, and they are terrified of you. They are terrified of the comments and the morality you have shown here on the House floor today because they are afraid you will condemn them.

I want you to think about the people you might know who are gay and they are afraid to talk to you about it. They are afraid how you will react, because they have heard you tell your jokes and have heard you laugh at jokes about faggots. Think about that. Think about it when you are voting on this bill, because this bill is not about morality, and if it were about morality, I would like to think that my God is a charitable God, not a God of harsh justice as has been typified here; a charitable God that recognizes people's weaknesses, because the chapter of the Bible that I most focus on is the one that says, he who is without sin can throw the first stone.

Now, I have listened to other comments on this floor, and I know what the Ten Commandments say, and I will not recite them, but in the Ten Commandments it does not say you can be a homosexual but it says you cannot commit adultery; you cannot lie; you cannot steal; and you cannot do a lot of other things. I am not going to judge anybody, but I hope you judge yourselves when you vote on this legislation. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Wambach.

Mr. WAMBACH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 1655. I do this not only because it is, unfortunately, a necessary piece of legislation and addition to the ethnic intimidation act but also because HB 1655 represents justice too long denied. If we as a body, as a legislative body, cannot lend the protection of this bill to those in such dire need as the embattled and scarred gay and lesbian community, then we not only fail them but all who rely on our fairness, on our unbiasedness, and on our judgment, Mr. Speaker.

Samuel Johnson said 200 years ago that, quote, "Prejudice, not being founded on reason, cannot be removed by argument," unquote, but, Mr. Speaker, it must also always be punished in law and by those who see prejudice for what it is: Prejudice is ignorance, at best, and at worst, Mr. Speaker, hatred.

The facts do not lie. They tell of the atrocities happening throughout our Commonwealth to homosexuals due only to their personal sexual preference. These men and women are being persecuted, beaten, and killed solely because of their sexuality. If these are not bias-related crimes, Mr. Speaker, what are they? If they do not warrant the punishments outlined in the ethnic intimidation act, what does, Mr. Speaker?

The district attorney of Philadelphia, Ron Castille, in a letter said—and directly to the heart of the matter—"The issue here is whether we are willing to tolerate the actions of those who express their disapproval, not through speech"—Mr. Speaker, as we can today—"but through violence and other hate crimes." He continues to say, "...when individuals in a particular group - whether it be racial, ethnic, religious, or of a particular sexual orientation - are being singled out for 'special treatment' by violent criminals, solely because of the victims' identification with that group, then enhanced penalties are called for. Under such circumstances, extra deterrence is needed and justified," unquote.

I believe, Mr. Speaker, the need for HB 1655 is obvious, and its message is equally clear. By passing this bill, we speak to those who would make a man or a woman their enemy merely for their sexual orientation. We say to those who assault homosexuals out of bias, out of hate, that their crime is more than an affront to another human, that it is an ugly blight on all society which must be punished for what it is: a crime of prejudice, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, any crime that is based on not what a person does—not what a person does—but who they are is intolerable. We should not stand for it in this House of Representatives, and I will not. That is why I am supporting HB 1655. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair at this time recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Heckler.

Mr. HECKLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to address a few of the comments that have been made by others speaking on this bill.

First of all, Representative Birmelin related several examples of what would happen in particular cases if the provisions of this bill were applied. I assume that he misspoke himself in referring to the penalty for misdemeanors of the third degree, which is the next step up from a summary offense. That penalty is 1 year maximum imprisonment, not 10 years, and I think that if Mr. Birmelin checks his numbers, he will find that that is the case.

Mr. Birmelin, however, did raise a very interesting point. He suggests that if somebody picks on another individual because that person is fat or they are ugly, the provisions of the ethnic intimidation statute, whether amended by this bill or not, do not apply and why are we considering this extra potential. Well, I would suggest to you, Mr. Speaker, that if fat bashing came into vogue in this Commonwealth, first of all, a number of us—me, unfortunately, included—would become concerned about that, and I note that I am not alone on this floor. I would ask those of you who might fall into that category to wonder what it would be like to go out in the evening in Harrisburg here, to go out for a walk, if you had to be worried that some group of high school kids was going to think it was okay to bash you because you happened to be carrying a few too many pounds.

Now, Mr. Birmelin mentions ugly, and I am not sure—There is some debate on that subject. I was the president of my college football team ugly squad. And again, there may be a few on this floor who would fall into that category, too.

If we saw a rash, if it became acceptable among at least some twisted groups within our society to bash people who were considered ugly, I suggest that we would be taking up that issue on the floor of this House, not because fatness or ugliness deserve some special protection but because we have recognized in our society, or would have under those circumstances, that we have a problem, that there are at least some members of our society who are misguided enough to think that it is appropriate to commit criminal offenses against people in that particular category.

However you end up voting on this bill, you know that there is a problem right now in Pennsylvania and in our society with regard to violence against people who are perceived to be homosexuals. By the same token, in years past we have recognized that unfortunately our State and our Nation have been tarnished with incidents of violent behavior, of discriminatory behavior, of vandalism against persons and property of people because of their race, their religion, and their ethnic orientation, their ethnic origins. That is why we passed the ethnic intimidation bill which we seek today to amend.

Now, Representative Wambach already quoted from what I think is the most eloquent letter I have seen on this matter, the letter which each of us has received from the district attorney of Philadelphia, Ron Castille. Let me just quote a few more lines:

...the issue is not whether we approve of homosexuality; everyone is entitled to their own opinion about that controversy. The issue here is whether we are willing to tolerate the actions of those who express their disapproval, not through speech, but through violence and other hate crimes. If racial, ethnic or any other personal differences, even sexual orientation, are viewed as justification for the infliction of criminal violence, our society becomes less civilized and less bound by the values of law and order.

The gentleman, Mr. Foster, suggested to you that homosexuality is not a cherished value that we want to pass on to our children. I would suggest that he misses the point. Neither race nor ethnic origin nor homosexuality is the cherished value we are here to protect. The cherished value, I would suggest, that we wish to pass on to our children is that we live in a society which will not tolerate intimidation and violence directed at any hated group within our society. That is one of the very reasons our Commonwealth was founded, and I would suggest that the legislation before us today is entirely consistent and is needed to carry forward that purpose. That is a value we can hand down to our children.

I urge the enactment of this bill. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mercer, Mr. Fargo.

Mr. FARGO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

You know, I do not really mind if there is quite a bit of noise on the floor of the House, because what I have to say, I am not sure it is really important to the rest of the people here, but it is important to me and I have to say it.

I feel in my heart and in my gut that to pass this bill is wrong. I believe it is wrong to do anything legislatively to promote sexual perversion. I believe that it is wrong to do anything legislatively which will legitimize a further deterioration of the traditional family and its values. I believe passage of HB 1655 will do both of those things, and I would like to have you vote against it.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gamble.

Mr. GAMBLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose HB 1655.

The 14th Amendment of the Constitution provides that equal protection clause which states that no State shall deny to any person the equal protection of the laws. Is this not unequal protection? I believe it is, and I would hope that you would vote "no."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Foster, for the second time.

Mr. FOSTER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise once again to oppose this piece of legislation.

Apparently the sponsors of the legislation choose to ignore the fact that there is indeed punishment and penalties for the offenses that are defined in this act. Apparently, though, like the line from "Animal Farm," they feel that everyone is equal but some are more equal than others, and that is where I part company with them.

I certainly am not motivated by hatred or anger in opposing this legislation. I am saddened that it is even before us.

I am puzzled, for example, that the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, would liken this to attacks on women. Does not the gentleman realize that an attack on a woman on the street would bring forth one penalty wherefore the same attack on a homosexual would bring forth an elevated penalty? I hardly believe that is what he wants or desires. Certainly I do not want it.

I would just like to bring up this example: If you would have the situation of where an antiwar demonstrator would assault a veteran in a wheelchair, under the terms of simple assault, that assailant would get 2 years. However, if the same assailant assaulted a homosexual, he would get 5 years. Is that the kind of message that we want to send to our society? Is that what you want to go home and explain to your people that you voted for in this bill?

All I can say is, as the gentleman, Mr. Gamble, so aptly pointed out, we have an equal protection clause in our Federal Constitution. Let us do exactly that. Let us mete out penalties with equality, and let us not elevate perversion to any special status in this Commonwealth.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Ms. Josephs.

Ms. JOSEPHS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I introduced this bill and I am here today asking for your support because we face a growing and serious problem of violence against people who are perceived to be gay or lesbian. The problem is real. It is pervasive, and it is growing.

In a study in 1987, the National Institute of Justice in Washington pointed out that of all the victims of hate crimes, the most frequent are those who are perceived to be gay men or lesbian women - our family members, our constituents, our voters, and taxpayers in this State who deserve protection from violence, who deserve to be able to walk the streets without fear, who deserve to be able to report these crimes to law enforcement officials without fear of retribution, and who deserve our help.

There has been much discussion today about what we may be doing, giving some group or other special preference. We are not doing that, Mr. Speaker. We are preserving law and order in this society, and we are discouraging those who would intimidate any group through violence from intimidating this group of citizens who seek our help.

It is true that there may be no moral consensus about sexuality, but there is a moral consensus about violence. No religion has stepped forward here. Nobody from a religious group has come to me and has said, I am against this law; I think we ought to condone this type of violence. As a matter of fact, I would like to read to you the words of Cardinal John O'Connor, which he spoke in a sermon in September of 1988 on this subject, and this is what he says:

"In recent weeks in New York we have had a series of violent actions against persons perceived to be homosexuals. These actions were so brutal that they could have resulted in murder. As it is, one victim is still hospitalized in serious condition as a result of beatings with a baseball bat and a knife wound in the lung. I wish I had language strong enough to condemn this kind of cruelty. Anyone who performs such actions in the belief that he or she is in some way helping society is utterly stupid." Those who perpetrate violence against homosexuals "are doing violence against Christ Himself."

I believe those of us who are truly religious and understand justice will agree with Cardinal O'Connor.

I would also like to point out that passage of legislation to protect people from violence based on their sexuality or their perceived sexuality is not new in this country. We are not the first State to approach this problem, and in the States where this problem has been approached and where these bills have been passed, I perceive no decadence of society that is distinguishable in any way from the States in which it has not been passed, except for the fact that there is more violence against gay and lesbian citizens. There are 22 States only that have ethnic intimidation or hate-crime bills. Of them, nine include sexual orientation, and they are large and important States. There is also action to include people who are perceived to be of unconventional sexual orientation in five other States, including our own.

It has also been mentioned that President Bush recently signed a bill which required Federal agencies to collect data on hate crimes and that they are also, under this bill, required to collect data on crimes that are committed because of sexual orientation hate. Two of the very vocal sponsors of that bill were Senator Orrin Hatch and Senator Henry Hyde. Henry Hyde particularly was a very strenuous supporter of this bill.

Mr. Speaker, there is no organized support against HB 1655. No member of any minority group has come to me and said, I am insulted by your designation of sexual orientation. As a matter of fact, people have come to me and said, thank you for protecting my family members, members of my congregation, my neighbors, and my friends.

Mr. Speaker, the people who know the most about these situations - the Attorneys General and the people who run the Human Relations Commission of Pennsylvania, of Philadelphia, of Harrisburg, and of Pittsburgh - are in favor of this bill. This is a bill that is needed. This is a bill that will not hurt you to support. This is a bill you should cast a "yes" vote for.

I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Ms. Bishop.

Ms. BISHOP. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise as one of the cosponsors of HB 1655 to urge your support and passage of this bill. There is nothing indicated in this bill anywhere that says if you give it a "yes" vote, you are promoting homosexuality, but rather you are being compassionate to a group of people who definitely stand in need of compassion.

There is a fact that there are hate groups rising all over this Nation, and yes, even in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, where they are intimidating and committing violent acts against those who are perceived, Mr. Speaker, to be homosexual. They have no guarantee that they are, but if their bodies are shaped a certain way, if their mannerisms are a certain way, they are perceived to be homosexual, and they are committing violent acts against them.

As legislators of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I believe that it is our duty, that we are sworn to protect the rights and to legislate laws that will be beneficial and affect all of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I urge you today to have compassion and join that list of people - the Attorneys General, the parents, the loved ones, and yes, those who stand in need, the homosexuals themselves - and give it a "yes" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the lady.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks for the second time, Mr. Leh.

Mr. LEH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just want to make a couple comments.

First, it seems to me—and it has not been mentioned yet—when we are talking about hate crimes, the greatest perpetrators of hate against homosexuals come from within their own community - those who knowingly infect others with the AIDS disease. To me, I think that is a terrible hate toward your fellow man.

Secondly—this is my own opinion here—I believe that there are more women abused weekly than we have homosexuals accosted yearly, and yet we have no amendment of such type to prevent women.

Thirdly, I just want to respond to the many bleeding hearts in here that as soon as they cannot answer a question directly, they begin to respond by calling us bigots and who knows what else. Let me just say, because we are talking about a hate crime here, hate has two sides. Everybody can hate, and hate is a terrible thing to do.

But let me just respond. I would like to read something very briefly that was in the Boston Gay Community News, and it says—and I just want to let you know that we need protection, too; straight people, we need protection for our children—

Homosexuals to Parents:
"We Shall Sodomize Your Sons"

"We shall sodomize your sons, emblems of your feeble masculinity, of your shallow dreams and vulgar lies. We shall seduce them in your schools, in your dormitories, in your gymnasiums, in your locker rooms, in your sports arenas, in your seminaries, in your truck stops, in your all-male clubs, in your houses of Congress, wherever men are with men together. Your sons shall become our minions and do our bidding. They will be recast in our image. They will come to crave and adore us....

"All laws banning homosexual activity will be revoked.... If you dare cry faggot, fairy, queer at us, we will stab you in your cowardly hearts.... All churches who condemn us will be closed. Our only gods are handsome young men....

We shall be victorious because we are fueled with the ferocious bitterness of the oppressed.... We too are capable of firing guns and manning the barricades of ultimate revolution."

By Michael Swift of the Boston Gay Community News.

There are two sides to hate, and I think we should protect our own families and vote this bill down.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Birmelin, for the second time.

Mr. BIRMELIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to comment on a few of the things that were said by some of our previous speakers, just rather briefly. I think we have debated this issue long enough.

Mr. Cohen said that this was a law enforcement bill. No, Mr. Speaker; this is a political agenda bill.

Ms. Ritter said that she had statistics to prove that we had all of these crimes, and I read for you from the York Daily Record of June 7, 1990: "The fifth annual National Gay and Lesbian Task Force survey detailed 7,031 incidents,..." two-thirds of which were simple verbal harassment. Also, "The survey data came from questionnaires sent to 650 gay activists and organizations," and they admitted that their methods were unscientific. Sort of a case of the fox guarding the chicken house, if you will. I question many of the other statistics that we see are being promoted as evidence of these great numbers of crimes that are being committed.

Mr. Murphy said that the God that he believes in would not have us to vote against this bill, and he said that we should not cast the first stone, but what he also does not do is realize that God speaks quite clearly on this issue on homosexuality, and He commanded in the Old Testament that stones should be thrown, according to the judgment of His word. And if you do not like the Old Testament, why do you not read the New Testament in Romans, chapter 1, and see what God thinks of them even there, and take the full context of what the Bible says instead of quoting what you like and what you think supports your argument. I will be glad to sit down and do that with Mr. Murphy if he would like to.

Mr. Wambach says that this is an injustice to be corrected. HB 1655, Mr. Speaker, is an injustice. It does not correct anything; it is an injustice.

Mr. Heckler says, well, if we had enough crimes against the fat people and the ugly people, well, we would make that a special punishment, too. Mr. Heckler makes the mistake of substituting quantity for the principles that are involved.

Lastly, Ms. Josephs says that this is not giving special preference to people of different sexual orientation. Well, if it is not, let us just get it out of here; let us just vote it down and forget about it, because that is exactly what it is. It gives them that elevated position that we give to race and ethnic and religious differences.

She says that no religious groups say that they are opposed to this bill and she has not gotten any organized opposition. I wonder whom you have asked. I doubt that it is the people who have stood firmly against this in the past. You found people who agreed with you and you asked them, and that is who did not disagree with you. Let me see your scientific survey that tells us about all the religious groups that are not opposed to this bill. Otherwise, do not even bring the argument up.

Also, she is a great quoter of other States and what they do. Do we simply do in Pennsylvania what other States do, or do we do what is right? Do we say what groups are for or against it and we will do whatever the most groups for it say? No. You have a responsibility, Mr. Speaker, to do what is right, and the right thing is to vote "no" on HB 1655. Thank you.

FILMING PERMISSION

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair wishes to advise the members of the House that it has given permission to John Sanks of WPVI-TV, channel 6, to videotape and to photograph the hall of the House for the next 10 minutes.

CONSIDERATION OF HB 1655 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes for the second time the lady from Philadelphia, Ms. Josephs.

Ms. JOSEPHS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I will be brief.

In December of this year, Mr. Speaker, we passed a bill which protected ourselves, as a special group, from assault. It protected members of the General Assembly. We did not have too much debate about that, Mr. Speaker. Nobody said that the status of elected official was not the same historically as the status of religion or national origin. I do not want to be one who goes back to my district and tells the family of someone who is beaten up because of his or her sexual orientation that I protected myself but I did not bother about protecting that person's son or daughter or father or mother or cousin or sister. I think what we owe to ourselves, we owe to the people who pay our salaries.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, let us remember that groups who hate do not discriminate. Groups and individuals who are out looking to beat up someone because of his or her sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation are not shy when it comes to attacking people based on their race, their religion, their color, their ethnic background. We all deserve protection, in an orderly society, from violence.

I urge a vote for HB 1655. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 224), page 3, line 4, by striking out "act." and inserting section.

(e) The Governor may, at his discretion, appoint leaders of Statewide organizations to advisory boards and commissions at the expense of gender balance. The Governor may expand the number of positions on any advisory board or commission beyond those provided by law to achieve gender balance, provided that the ratio of members representing each interest remain the same.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is to give the Governor of Pennsylvania increased flexibility in meeting both the goals of this bill, to increase the number of women on advisory boards and commissions, and to give him flexibility to meet the goals of numerous other advisory boards and commissions acts, which is to appoint leading statewide officials of voluntary organizations to the boards.

The amendment, although it is a two-page amendment, all of the first page and about half of the second page is just technical juggling of the numbers of sections. In heart, the amendment is in the last paragraph, which reads as follows:

The Governor may, at his discretion, appoint leaders of Statewide organizations to advisory boards and commissions at the expense of gender balance. The Governor may expand the number of positions on any advisory board or commission beyond those provided by law to achieve gender balance, provided that the ratio of members representing each interest remain the same.

This is an administrability amendment. The purpose of this amendment is to make it easier to achieve Representative Rudy's goals and to make it easier to achieve the goals of having experts in each field on each advisory commission. I think this amendment deals with some of the concerns that people have about this bill and should make it easier for this bill to become law.

I urge your support of this amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the lady from Centre, Mrs. Rudy.

Mrs. RUDY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to let the decision on how to vote on this amendment up to the discretion of each individual member.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority whip, the gentleman from Huntingdon, Mr. Hayes.

Mr. HAYES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

There is a great deal of confusion on the floor of the House, and I would respectfully suggest that every person on both sides of the aisle take up for their personal reading and consideration this particular amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen, amendment A2671.

I believe that it is preposterous, Mr. Speaker, that this legislature should abrogate to the Governor, regardless of who that person may be, the authority that is vested in this General Assembly to establish its own prerogative from time to time as to who should be membered on advisory boards or commissions of this Commonwealth. Many of these panels are of great significance to the people of Pennsylvania. Many of these commissions are of tremendous impact in terms of how they affect the daily lives of the people that you and I represent. And law after law after law in Pennsylvania established the number of persons to serve on these commissions and how those persons are to become members of the commission, many of whom are appointments made by members of this General Assembly, leadership on both sides of the aisle, or specifically designated in law as to who should serve on the commissions and what types of persons should serve on these commissions. I just believe that it is absolutely wrong and preposterous.

As much respect as I have for the gentleman from Philadelphia, I think it is just preposterous that this General Assembly should grant to any Governor such a broad grant of authority and push aside the laws of this Commonwealth as we try to achieve what the lady from Centre, Mrs. Rudy, is trying to achieve. This is not in keeping with good public policy in any way whatsoever, and I cannot more strenuously urge every member to vote "no" on this amendment, regardless of how you feel about the gender-based legislation which Mrs. Rudy has brought before us at this time. This is not good public policy. This General Assembly should not place itself in a secondary and subordinate role to the executive, regardless of who that person is.

I urge a "no" vote. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Piccola.

Mr. PICCOLA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I share the viewpoint exactly of the minority whip. He beat me to the microphone, however.

This is a total abrogation of legislative and statutory authority. We can write anything into the law creating a commission or a board and the Governor will choose to ignore it if he wishes under this amendment.

Without regard to what your position is on this bill, institutionally we should vote against this amendment unanimously.

REQUEST TO DIVIDE AMENDMENTS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. I would like to suggest we split the amendment so that there are two parts to it. I am sure that either part will stand on its own.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. How would the member choose to divide the amendment?

Mr. COHEN. The first part of the amendment should be all of page 1 and all of page 2 until we get to under (e), after the first sentence under (e), and then the second amendment would be "The Governor may expand the number of positions on any advisory board or commission beyond those provided by law to achieve gender balance, provided that the ratio of members representing each interest remain the same."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair wishes to point out that such a division is out of order, that in order for an amendment to be divided, each individual part must be able to stand on its own. It is obvious that the second part of the gentleman's amendment would fail to accomplish that. So the division is out of order.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. May I approach the Chair, please?

(Conference held at Speaker's podium.)

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia seek recognition?

Mr. COHEN. Yes.

Mr. Speaker, because the amendment cannot be divided and because of the very creative thought of the Republican leaders as to all the doom and gloom that this amendment would cause, I am withdrawing it.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Piccola.

Mr. PICCOLA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would urge a negative vote on this bill.

I find that this legislation is patronizing to women. It is basically saying that a certain amount of seats on these boards and commissions are reserved for women without regard to qualification, and any woman who would get appointed to one of these boards or commissions is going to be, by her peers, suspect as to whether she is in fact qualified for it.

I do not understand why we have to set aside quotas or even have guidelines or goals to meet for any group of people to serve on these boards and commissions. Those commissions should be served by the most qualified people available, and I hope that someday more than half will be made up of women. But to say that as a matter of law we are going to reserve a certain number is, in my mind, patronizing to women, and we should not elevate this bill to the status of law or statute.

I urge a negative vote.

DECISION OF CHAIR RESCINDED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the Chair rescinds its decision that HB 2272 has been agreed to for the third time as amended.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Mr. WOGAN offered the following amendments No. A2792:

Amend Title, page 1, lines 20 and 21, by striking out "requiring gender balance" in line 20, all of line 21 and inserting prohibiting hiring or promotion on the basis of racial or sexual quotas.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 224), page 2, lines 2 through 30; page 3, lines 1 through 4, by striking out all of said lines on said pages and inserting

Section 224. Racial and Sexual Quotas Prohibited.—

(a) No officer or employe of the Commonwealth or any of its agencies or instrumentalities, including local governments and their agencies and instrumentalities, shall hire or promote any person on the basis of racial or sexual quotas.

(b) This act shall not prohibit the voluntary adoption of affirmative action plans.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wogan.

Mr. WOGAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment is very simple. If it passes, it would prohibit the use in Pennsylvania of racial or sexual quotas in hiring and promotions in the public sector in Pennsylvania. Make no mistake about it, this amendment embodies a philosophy which is diametrically opposed to the philosophy that we are important only as members of groups and not as individuals.

If you vote for this amendment, you are voting in favor of hiring and firing in the Commonwealth's State Government work force on the basis of merit, on the basis of one's qualifications, not on membership in any class or group. In other words, this amendment will enshrine the colorblind and gender-free hiring and promotions in Pennsylvania. It will prohibit discrimination in this regard, whether it is discrimination against members of a minority or members of a majority. Keep in mind, however, that nothing in this amendment would limit the voluntary adoption of affirmative action plans designed to remedy actual situations with a history of discrimination, and this, as well as everything else contained in my amendment, is entirely consistent with a 1989 decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in the City of Richmond v. J. A. Croson Company.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the lady from Centre, Mrs. Rudy, seek recognition on the Wogan amendment?

Mrs. RUDY. Yes, I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The lady is in order and may proceed.

Mrs. RUDY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this amendment, as it totally disembowels or guts the purpose of my piece of legislation.

I urge my colleagues to vote against this negative amendment, because a vote for this amendment would indicate to me, and I think also indicate to the women of this Commonwealth, that the members of this House of Representatives do not want women to have fair representation on the boards and commissions of this State. Thank you.

CONSTITUTIONAL POINT OF ORDER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I challenge the constitutionality of this amendment.

I think this amendment places us into conflict with Federal court decisions that have gone back for many, many years now, and it is not our ability as members of the General Assembly to be able to override the Federal court, nor should it be our desire to get involved, conflicting with Federal court decisions.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Philadelphia moves that the Wogan amendment to HB 2272 is unconstitutional. The question of constitutionality is a matter to be decided by the House.

On the question,

Will the House sustain the constitutionality of the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the question of constitutionality, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Piccola.

Mr. PICCOLA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I think the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, is confused. This language in this amendment is specifically constitutional. In fact, to have racial and sexual quotas, the court decisions about what Mr. Cohen is describing, they have been declared unconstitutional. Had Mr. Wogan offered an amendment saying that we shall have quotas, then I believe the court cases that Mr. Cohen is talking about would have kicked in, and that would have been unconstitutional.

This is specifically permitted by the courts, and I would suggest that Mr. Cohen complete law school before he challenges this kind of constitutional amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Piccola would make a very difficult law school teacher.

Mr. Speaker, the Federal court decisions are that there cannot be quotas in the absence of specific proof in each and every instance in which quotas are used that there is discrimination. For instance, a municipality cannot say, we think there has been discrimination; we do not have any proof of it; and therefore, because we feel like we think it is right and just, we are setting up a quota system. But there are other cases in which there has been proven discrimination on the basis of race or sex or age in which the Federal court decisions allow quotas to deal with that proven discrimination. All the cases deal with where discrimination has not been proven, and the Supreme Court has set forth very rigorous standards of proof that have to be met, and many municipalities throughout this country and many States throughout this country cannot meet the rigorous standards of proof that are now required for the Supreme Court.

But this goes beyond that decision. It says, under any circumstances, there cannot be quotas, and under certain circumstances, they are justified. I would share Mr. Piccola's belief that under the vast majority of circumstances, they are not justified, but there are circumstances under which they may be justified, and we certainly cannot make every judgment on every circumstance here today on this piece of legislation that they are justified in no circumstance.

We simply have not studied the merits of each and every court suit brought against a State agency over the last two decades. We have not made the kind of rigorous examination that we ought to be making before we enter an area of conflict with the Federal courts.

Mrs. Rudy's legislation is straightforward. It ought to be voted on its merits. This amendment has serious constitutional problems with the 14th Amendment to the Federal Constitution. It will put us in direct conflict with the Federal courts. It will be the subject of much litigation. It will have tremendous fiscal costs as this is attempted to be litigated. It will cause people who have been the victims of discrimination a lot of problems.

I would urge this amendment to be declared unconstitutional. I have virtually no doubt, on the basis of my limited education in the law or my years of experience without having taken law school courses, that this is unconstitutional.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority whip.

Mr. HAYES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Would the gentleman, Mr. Cohen, according to the established practice of the House, indicate what provision of the Constitution is being violated by the amendment offered by the gentleman, Mr. Wogan?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, it is the 14th Amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Mr. HAYES. I thank the gentleman for that piece of information.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wogan, on the matter of constitutionality.

Mr. WOGAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Just briefly, I think Mr. Cohen was correct when he stated that in order for a quota to be upheld, one must show a manifest history of past racial discrimination. I do not think anyone has shown that in Pennsylvania today. In fact, for one to vote that my amendment is unconstitutional, you would have to be accepting as fact that both Governor Casey and Governor Thornburgh are guilty of running an administration that discriminates against women and minority groups, and I do not think that is simply the case.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia questioning the constitutionality of the Wogan amendment, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Linton.

Mr. LINTON. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman, Mr. Wogan, just assured this House that this amendment is unconstitutional. He just indicated that he agreed with Mr. Cohen, and in essence, that one must prove that there has in fact been discrimination. But the courts have found that they have established standards, and their standards indicate that if you can establish discrimination, you can in fact put in place an affirmation action program, and they have found that to be constitutional. All they did was establish what those standards should be.

Mr. Cohen is absolutely right. This amendment that is being proposed would in fact be unconstitutional, because it is going against the standards that have been established by Federal court. It states that in the future, any agency in this Commonwealth shall not establish any programs on the basis of racial or sexual quotas. When you put that in the context of in the future, you are in effect going against the Federal court. Therefore, this amendment is unconstitutional and we should vote likewise.

I encourage my members and the members of this House to vote that this amendment is in fact unconstitutional.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Those voting "aye" will vote to declare the amendment to be constitutional. Those voting "no" will vote to declare the amendment to be unconstitutional.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the constitutionality of the amendments?

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 11), page 5, lines 20 through 21, by striking out "THE MONETARY THRESHOLD LEVEL FOR THE AUTHORITY" and inserting ten thousand dollars ($10,000)

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On the question, the Chair recognizes Mr. Merry.

Mr. MERRY. Mr. Speaker, we are looking on our calendar very shortly at 11 bills addressing almost identically the same subject. I would like to make my remarks on amendment A1912. Mr. Speaker, these bill numbers appear on pages 12, 13, and 14, and I would like to ask unanimous consent that my remarks be made generally on the entire 11-bill package, because I have prepared 22 amendments, which are just two versions of one concept, and that concept is whether we will permit our authorities and municipalities to have the additional advantage of a higher cap before they have to advertise for bids.

I draw your attention to one piece of paper, and if you will work with me with the one paper that has a list of all the counties in Pennsylvania and a short note on the top of it from me, it will make this package of bills— It will be a great deal easier to understand the concept here if you will find this one paper that lists each and every county here and the impact of SB 741 and these other bills.

The problem is this: This series of bills, SB 741 through SB 753, which were approved by the Senate, would have provided a $10,000 cap before municipalities and authorities would have to advertise for bids. When the bills arrived in the House, they were amended in our Local Government Committee with a rather complicated formula that would provide for lesser amounts than $10,000.

The problem is this throughout our municipalities, and follow me through this: In 1978 we had a limit of $2,500 as a cap where municipalities would have to bid. In 1978 this was done so as to make all of our municipalities and authorities uniform in the $2,500 amount. Because of inflation, this amount was raised in 1981 and, for many of them, in 1982 to a figure of $4,000 as a cap.

I am asking today that these bills be restored to the $10,000 cap that was proposed by the Senate for these reasons: It is not unreasonable to expect that because of inflation from 1981-82 till now, in 1990, that $10,000 does not have a great deal more significance than $4,000 did at that time. For a municipality to be forced to advertise for bids above $4,000, it requires a great deal of expense for them, and many times the results are not meaningful. By that, I mean they have to, in many cases, get an attorney to write up the advertisement. It has to be advertised and paid for in your local media. Raising the bid limit to $10,000 will largely decrease the number of those bids that have to be advertised.

We are also told that this is very meaningful from an economic standpoint. Boroughs, cities, and townships have told me that they can probably get bids around 10 percent less from contractors if they do not have to bid it. A contractor proposing to furnish gravel or some other service to a municipality has to furnish a performance bond and many times has to engage an attorney to prepare those bids. So it has quite an advantage for the borough's economic health.

The bills as amended in committee, I say, come up with a complicated formula whereby your cap would be 1 percent of your annual budget. Now, this paper that I referred to, that I asked you to dig out between all these bridge bills and between the other amendments, shows that of the 1,459 municipalities in Pennsylvania, the bills before us, as now written, would only help 392. For instance, in that great county that has the only existing elk herd in Pennsylvania, Elk County, it has 10 municipalities and not a single one of them would be assisted by the bills as they presently exist. Take the county of Bedford with 25 municipalities. If we do not amend the bills, there is only one municipality that would be helped. The county of Clarion, with 22 municipalities, would get no help as the bills presently exist. If we can raise it to $10,000, it will help those smaller communities.

Mr. Speaker, I know that while these amendments look complicated, it is my purpose to offer amendment 1912 at this time, which seeks to raise the limit to $10,000 on SB 741. If this should successfully pass, the next bills will require no comment other than to say that we are trying to do the same thing. It is my hope that in an effort to keep these bills uniform, that SB 741 and the other ones addressing the municipalities, boroughs, townships, and counties would be amended in the same fashion.

Mr. Speaker, I urge the adoption of amendment 1912.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gamble.

Mr. GAMBLE. Mr. Speaker, I congratulate Mr. Merry on trying to put all of this together so that we can do it in an expeditious fashion. I, too, will address this entire package, and we will see if it does work.

We do have a package of bills that deal with good government, with good management in government, and that is the bidding process and the amount that is allowed to be put out for bid. Our committee did extensive work on the bills that did pass unanimously in the Senate and came over here, and our argument is this, and this is why we oppose Representative Merry's amendment.

The 11-bill package was to create a uniform system of determining the threshold above which municipalities and authorities must advertise for competitive bids. Presently, as Mr. Merry stated, the threshold is $4,000. As this legislation left the Local Government Committee, it would raise that threshold across the board to 1 percent of the total of all budgets administered by the municipality but in no case less than $4,000 nor more than $10,000. It is a simple formula. It treats everyone the same, and it protects the people from impropriety by their local officials.

Mr. Merry's proposed amendment is an invitation, I submit to you, to hanky-panky. It places even the smallest units of local government at the $10,000 level. In my own borough of Oakdale, for example, a $10,000 purchase equals exactly 1 1/2 mills of real estate taxes, and when my local council raises the millage 1 1/2 mills, half of the town shows up. So they should not be allowed to spend 1 1/2 mills without the townspeople knowing, and it is these smaller municipalities and authorities which have the least amount of scrutiny from the press and the public. It is these places with only a few hundred population where the governing body oftentimes meets in someone's house and no one else attends. It is these people who need protection from sweetheart deals between the governing body and their relatives or their buddies.

Remember, Mr. Speaker, that competitive bidding is designed to save money, in this case to save tax dollars. Last Friday the members got an absolutely absurd letter on this bill from one of the local government associations, and it stated in part: "By linking the bid threshold to the township's annual budget, this legislation seems to encourage municipalities to prepare and spend larger budgets....” Now, that is an absurd argument in favor of Mr. Merry’s amendment, because what government would inflate their budget, raise their taxes, so that they could put something out for bid at a higher rate? It makes no sense. The argument has no credibility.

I respectfully ask in the name of good government and in the name of common sense— It makes no sense, for a community where 1 mill of taxes brings in $5,000, to have a community be able to spend 2 mills of taxes and put them in the same category— For example, Oakdale should not be in the same category as Philadelphia or Pittsburgh with Punxsutawney. It should be based on the size of your budget, and I ask you respectfully to vote “no” on the Merry amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lescovitz.

Mr. LESCOVITZ. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am going to agree with Mr. Merry’s amendments on all these bills, not only just SB 741.

It seems to me that we should stay uniform with the current system. If we put a percentage in, the way the bills are currently written, under SB 741, different authorities are going to have different figures for thresholds. These bills came over from the Senate with a $10,000 maximum threshold. I believe that we should keep that figure in there instead of using a percentage figure which could change from year to year and from authority to authority. I believe it should be uniform, and I think we should agree with the Merry amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Godshall.

Mr. GODSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I also rise in opposition to the Merry amendments.

I think for the first time, we have a logical solution to the bidding procedure. It makes absolutely no sense at all, as I agree with Representative Gamble, to spend 2 mills of taxpayers’ money in a no-bid situation. I have some small municipalities in Montgomery County, also some very large. This addresses the needs of all and provides for a sliding scale. I think it is the right approach.

I ask for a “no” vote on the Merry amendments. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Columbia, Mr. Stuban.

Mr. STUBAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to support the Merry amendment.

I believe that we are complicating our local governments enough by setting out a percentage basis and trying to make things more complicated for them to do. I, for one, could say that the local government officials in my area are the conservative type. I think they are doing a good job, and I could trust them with a $10,000 bid, and I believe that this is what we ought to do and support the Merry amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gamble, for the second time.

Mr. GAMBLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take issue with the previous speaker on the complicated method. If there is a local official in the State who cannot figure 1 percent of a total budget, then he should be removed from office.

This is the simplest formula that could ever be devised. It is only logical that $10,000 means a lot more to small communities like my hometown than it does to communities like Philadelphia, that the bidding threshold should be flexible and should be related to the overall picture of local taxes and local spending. It should not be uniform, and if it is $10,000 for Philadelphia, to be $10,000 for a community of 1,000 people, that is not uniform. That is out of order.

I ask you to vote respectfully against the Merry amendment so that we will have a fair formula which is in the best interest of our taxpayers.

Remember that the bidding process, bidding on contracts, is done for one reason: to save money. In this case, it is to save tax dollars. To have the small communities put out for bids up to 1 percent of their total budget, that is about as fair a formula as anyone could devise, and I ask you to keep that in place, that we oppose the Merry amendment. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Billow.

Mr. BILLOW. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Merry amendment.

I represent 25 townships and boroughs in the 72d District, all under 5,000 population, and these people have been talking to me about the possibility of trying to get this raised to the $10,000 figure.

The only ones happy with the present system, really, are the newspapers. They are making a lot of money on small-bid items. Recently a small community wanted an access road put into a sewer right-of-way, and they negotiated with several contractors, and the lowest bid they could get was $4,100. They had to hire an engineer, draw up plans for bidding documents, put out the bids, advertise for bids, and when the lowest bid came in, it was $8,100. This represented a 100-percent increase in what they could have had this job done for, had they been able to negotiate with private contractors. A lot of contractors will not even go out and bid on a small project.

So I recommend that we support the Merry amendment and give these trusted, loyal supervisors and borough officials who were elected by the people in their community an opportunity to do the best job they can for their taxpayers.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Merry, for the second time.

Mr. MERRY. Mr. Speaker, in summation, it has been suggested by a previous speaker that the language in our present bill is logical, and I rather agree that it is, but logic goes slightly too far.

What it purports to do in permitting boroughs to establish a limit of 1 percent of their budget is, first of all, you will find out that each and every year your cap will change. Each and every municipality in a given county will have a different cap. It will be hard for attorneys, solicitors, every individual, to determine at one particular time exactly what the cap is.

Here is what I found out when I went home with the amendments that the Local Government Committee made, and I was one of those who voted for it. I went home and suggested that we would want to change the bill permitting a $10,000 cap and change it to 1 percent of their gross budget. The secretaries looked this up, and I was getting figures like this: Well, our budget is only $400,000; at 1 percent, you have not changed anything; it is still $4,000.

I had many of my boroughs and townships say the same thing. For instance, Crawford County has 35 municipalities. Only three of them can be helped by the language that is in the present bill. Erie County has 21. They could be helped in 10 cases. If a municipality had a budget of $1 million, well, then my remarks are moot. It makes no difference, because 1 percent of $1 million is $10,000, and that is what they are all seeking.

In no way does this amendment increase local spending. It will decrease local spending, because it enables the municipality to get rid of another State mandate, another area where we have interceded on local government and created an arbitrary cap.

I suggest that the cap at $10,000 is reasonable, Mr. Speaker, and I suggest the passage of this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

(r)

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Williams.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, this particular amendment is just a technical procedure where cities of the first class are allowed to participate in a program where bonds are floated to make repayment on self-insurance policies.

Currently, the maker of the bill in the Senate, Senator Stout, is in agreement with the changes; the county commissioners are in agreement with the changes; and the original maker of the bill, Senator Madigan, is also in agreement with the changes. So it is just a procedure that will allow Philadelphia County, as well as the other counties, to participate in the program.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question,

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes Mr. Clark.

Mr. B. D. CLARK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This changes the method that members of authority governing bodies are removed from office. Presently they are removed by taking them to court and showing cause why they should be removed. This allows the governing body that appoints them to remove them after giving them at least 10 days' notice prior to the vote and permitting them a public hearing if they so request. This streamlines the removal process and will help to solve a lot of problems that we have had with municipal authorities across this State.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.
