THE SPEAKER (H. WILLIAM DeWEESE) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer will be offered this morning by George P. Heberling, pastor at St. Paul's United Church of Christ.

REV. GEORGE P. HEBERLING offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Holy One, You have revealed Yourself to us in many and varied ways - as the giver of life; as the creator of all that has been, is, or ever will be; as the inspirer of dreams.

You challenge us to fulfill Your expectations of us. You have given us knowledge to make decisions and power to influence others. So may we, relying on Your wisdom and mindful of our power, use them not to our own advantage but to the good of the people we serve, enabling them to live securely with dignity and in hope.

Be present in the proceedings of this day that wisdom and power may reflect the best of ourselves for the well-being of this Commonwealth. Amen.

REPORT SUBMITTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pittsburgh, Mr. Dermody, who submits the report of the committee to draft articles of impeachment.

(The report was then numbered as HR 324.)

ALIQUIPPA HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes Susan Laughlin, one of our colleagues from Beaver County, who has a PIAA double-A State championship basketball team with her today. Will Susan and her guests please approach the podium.

The gentlelady is recognized.

Mrs. LAUGHLIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is with great pleasure that I present this House of Representatives citation to the Aliquippa High School boys varsity basketball team, better known as the running Quips, for their outstanding performance in winning the PIAA class AA State championship at the playoffs in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Under the expert guidance of Head Coach James Deep, they have earned this recognition through intense dedication and hard work. They have distinguished themselves as outstanding athletes and have brought great credit to themselves, Aliquippa High School, and their community.

As some of you may know, Aliquippa has produced some great athletes. For instance, Mike Ditka, the head coach of the Chicago Bears; Ernie Pitts, pro with the Canadians; Joe Maddrey, University of Niagara; Chad Calabria with the University of Iowa; and our own colleague, Representative Nick Colafella, a former baseball great from Youngstown State University. However, rumor has it that it was in Little League.

I would like to mention also that accompanying the team this morning are a number of individuals without whose support and encouragement this State championship would not have been possible. I would like to recognize the Aliquippa High School cheerleaders and their sponsor.

At this point I would like to ask Coach Deep to introduce the players, the assistant coaches, and cheerleaders. Would each of you stand and be recognized when your name is called. Thank you.

Mr. DEEP. Thank you, Mrs. Laughlin, and I would like to thank everybody here - the State Representatives - for inviting us up. It is a special day for us, and it is an honor for us to be here.

At this time I would like to introduce the important people who are behind me: my assistant coach, Marvin Emerson; our cocaptain, Shawn Hall; our other cocaptain, Mr. Charles Fisher. Chuck will be attending West Virginia University on a full athletic honor scholarship this coming fall. The rest of our team is back there. We have senior, Bernard Humbles; junior, Anthony Greer; sophomore, Draper Gilliam; junior, Eric Perry; sophomore, Marvin Mills. We have our statistician, Steve Mann; Jamar Moultrie, our scorekeeper; and our other statistician, Miranda Fiorvanti. Would our cheerleaders please stand up and be recognized, the best cheerleaders in the State of Pennsylvania. Ms. Margie Kakiou, cheerleading sponsor; our school board president, Mr. Arthur Piroli; another school board member, Mr. Casoli. Our athletic director is here, Mr. Robert Castagna.

Once again I would like to thank each and every one of you, and I will tell you what, one day I think I want to become a State Representative, too. Thank you.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill passed finally.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 2630, PN 3585, entitled:

An Act providing for signage near licensed limited farm wineries.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. FAJT offered the following amendment No. A1935:

Amend Sec. 3, page 4, lines 14 and 15, by striking out "INTERSTATE HIGHWAYS AND"

Amend Sec. 3, page 4, line 15, by striking out "ROADS" and inserting highways

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, the gentleman, Mr. Fajt, is recognized.

Mr. FAJT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment simply clarifies the types of highways in the Commonwealth that may be approved for the installation of directional signage for wineries.

Right now the way the bill is written, we can have directional signage on our interstate highways, and I am very concerned about the proliferation of alcohol. I do not think we need people pulling off the interstate highways so they can find a winery.

There are roads that will have signage for the wineries, but they will not be the interstates. There are two other States in the United States — New York and Virginia — that have a policy that is consistent with my amendment. The only State that has a policy that is inconsistent with my amendment is the State of Florida, and we have been in contact with them and found out that they are quite concerned about the proliferation of signs dealing with their wineries.

So this amendment, the whole intent of this is to say you cannot have directional signage on an interstate highway for a winery. Again, I am concerned about the proliferation of alcohol. I do not think we need to have people pulling off our interstates to go to a winery and then back on.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to ask everybody for their support for this amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Allegheny County and recognizes his colleague, chairman of the Tourism Committee, Mr. Gamble.

Mr. GAMBLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this amendment. The reason for the amendment, there is a threat from the Federal Government in Florida that they may have to remove those signs along their interstate highways.

What we are doing here is trying to promote tourism, and we have people go straight through our State, straight through our State on the interstates, and we think it would be a good thing for tourism if those few wineries in Pennsylvania could put ample advertising along the highway. We do not see a proliferation of signs along the highway. There are not going to be signs for flea markets and this and that and the other thing. This is an industry. This is a tourist attraction.

I would respectfully ask that you reject this amendment and pass the bill in its present form. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

For the second time, the gentleman, Mr. Fajt.

Mr. FAJT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Just quickly, this amendment is supported by PennDOT, for the information of the members. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Mr. Gamble is recognized also for the second time.

Mr. GAMBLE. My bill is supported by the tourism industry, and I would hope that you would vote "no" on the amendment.

The SPEAKER. On the Fajt amendment, the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Serafini, is recognized.

Mr. SERAFINI. Mr. Speaker, as the minority chairman of the Tourism Committee, I must agree with the chairman of the Tourism Committee that this amendment will not help tourism in Pennsylvania and it is not needed in this bill. This industry is trying to keep its head above water in a tough economic market, and we are just trying to give them the benefit that other States have given this industry.

I appreciate your rejection of the amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

RULES SUSPENDED

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Cappabianca, from Erie brings up HB 2707. In order to do this, the gentleman is moving to temporarily suspend the rules.

The gentleman is recognized.

Mr. CAPPABIANCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I appreciate this opportunity, and I thank the House, both sides of the aisle.

What we are attempting to do here is honor the memory of an individual from Erie, Pennsylvania, a Charles Buzzanco, who was the former business manager—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will yield momentarily.

Mr. CAPPABIANCA. Yes.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman should initially move that the suspension of the rules take place. Then the gentleman's debate would be in order.

Mr. CAPPABIANCA. I so move.

I would appreciate if the House would approve the motion to suspend the rules.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is under the impression that the minority side has also concurred in the gentleman's request.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION CONTINUED

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 2707, PN 3537, entitled:

An Act designating the interchange of I-79 and I-90 in Erie County as the Charles D. Buzzanco Interchange.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The gentleman from Erie is recognized at this point.
Mr. CAPPABIANCA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Once again I would like to thank the House for the suspension of the rules, and you are entitled to a brief explanation for why we are doing it.

We are attempting here to honor the memory of an individual who died in the Erie area, a Charles Buzzanco, who was the business manager of Local Union 603 of the Laborers' International Union of North America, as well as a leader in the community. And what we are attempting to do here is name an interchange at I-79 and I-90 in Erie County after Mr. Buzzanco.

It is my understanding that this interchange will be dedicated sometime this summer, and that is the reason for the rush of having this particular bill passed now. I would appreciate unanimous consent on HB 2707. Thank you very kindly.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

RESOLUTION

The SPEAKER. The gentlelady from Centre offers the following resolution, which the clerk will read.

The following resolution was read:

House Resolution No. 323

A RESOLUTION

Recognizing the week of May 22 through 28, 1994, as "Senseless Acts of Random Kindness Week" in Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, Children see thousands of random acts of senseless violence yearly on television entertainment programs and in movie theaters and learn from television and radio news programs and newspapers of such incidents in their neighborhoods and across the country; and

WHEREAS, Acts of violence in entertainment and news programs, movies and throughout the media or in communities may desensitize people, particularly children, to the pain, suffering and consequences that ripple through society from violence and may wrongly teach people, particularly children, that violence is a means to settle conflict; and

WHEREAS, Drive-by shootings, random street murders, domestic abuse and violent crime in this Commonwealth and across the nation have made many people afraid to go out of their homes at night, get to know their neighbors or get involved in community problems; and

WHEREAS, Incidents are on the increase in this Commonwealth in which students carry a gun to school for protection from conflict; and

WHEREAS, Many people throughout this Commonwealth and nation promote kindness through volunteer work in their communities, schools and churches by helping men and women in need, thus making the world a better place to live, work and raise a family; and

WHEREAS, Promoting kindness, compassion, mutual respect, understanding, diversity, negotiation, conflict resolution and good will can help stop violence; and

WHEREAS, This Commonwealth and the United States were founded, in part, on the principles of mutual kindness, decency and respect for others; and

WHEREAS, A national trend to promote senseless acts of random kindness, good will, mutual respect and dignity has grown from a class assignment that a professor at Bakersfield College in California gave to his students; and

WHEREAS, The assignment to commit one senseless act of random kindness, such as giving up a parking space in a busy mall, volunteering at a church or helping the Salvation Army taught the students that being kind to one's fellow men and women in turn promotes kindness, decency, good will and a true sense of satisfaction; and

WHEREAS, The lessons that the students learned quickly reached millions of people around the world, thanks to stories about their experiences that appeared in newspapers and magazines and on television programs like the Oprah Winfrey Show, The Crusaders and Primetime Live, prompting other groups to copy the idea; and

WHEREAS, The professor, Dr. Charles Wall, has worked to persuade Congress, State legislatures and local governments to designate "Senseless Acts of Random Kindness Week" to promote the idea of mutual respect and dignity in order to get adults, teenagers and children to discuss the values of respect and to learn how to solve their differences peacefully; and

WHEREAS, Schools as well as various groups and individuals in this Commonwealth can easily organize senseless acts of random kindness programs in their communities to encourage residents to take the time to get to know each other, organize and work together to take back their neighborhoods and change the emphasis in society from violence to kindness; and

WHEREAS, Similar campaigns such as "Just Say No" focused attention on the problems of drug use among teenagers and children in society and promoted similar efforts at drug abuse prevention; and

WHEREAS, Focusing attention on such efforts can promote kindness, understanding and mutual respect throughout this Commonwealth and defeat the fear that stops people from getting involved; and

WHEREAS, Defeating that fear can serve as the best antidote against violence; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the week of May 22 through 28, 1994, as "Senseless Acts of Random Kindness Week" in Pennsylvania; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives urge residents to commit at least one senseless act of random kindness every day; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives individually give special recognition in their districts to constituents who have committed special senseless acts of random kindness or make other efforts to bring attention to the need for mutual respect, dignity and care for our fellow men, women and our communities; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives urge the Governor and the Secretary of Education to issue special proclamations designating May 22 through 28, 1994, as "Senseless Acts of Random Kindness Week" and to give special recognition to any deserving individuals who have committed senseless acts of random kindness.
