LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

MONDAY, JUNE 4, 2001

SESSION OF 2001

185TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 34

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MATTHEW J. RYAN) PRESIDING

The SPEAKER. Before today's prayer, we will observe a moment of silence in memory of our departed friend and colleague, Italo Cappabianca.

(A moment of silence was observed.)

PRAYER

REV. JULIANN PUGH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives and pastor of Camp Hill Presbyterian Church, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Mighty God, pour upon us Your gift of guidance. You know our frailties even better than we know them ourselves. We seek truth, and we strain after wisdom. Yet so often we misread our own motives, so frequently think that we know all when we really know nothing. Most commonly, we seem to be most positive when most positively mistaken. Save us from doing the right thing for the wrong reasons. Save us more from doing the wrong thing for the right reasons. Engage our hearts in what we undertake, but do not disengage our minds. Let fact be balanced by compassion and compassion by fact. Guard us against ending with bad answers because we began with poor questions. Grant us courage in our convictions, honesty in our decisions, and charity in judging those who disagree with us.

We ask that Your healing love come into our world, which is in great need. We pray that it reach the Middle East where Israelis and Palestinians are poised for war. We pray for the children frightened in Idaho and all over this world, the victims of rape or terrorism, and the victims of loneliness or pain. We pray that Your love touch people in all corners of the earth, people whose names we do not know but whose lives are precious to You. We also pray for those whose names and lives we know so well. We pray for the Cappabianca family for the grief they are feeling over their loss. Be compassionate to them and fill them with Your love. Forgive us for our fear of the unknown, and give us the assurance needed when death comes, to rejoice in the hope of being promoted to something greater. Help us to smile through our tears, and grant us courage to believe in grace.

When the work of this hour is past and behind, so chasten our unruly tempers and so discipline our rampant wills that we close ranks, link arms, and move forward together for the common good of all.

You have heard the prayers that have been spoken in these moments and heard, too, the petitions unspoken in our hearts. Answer, we beseech You, as may be most expedient in Your sight. Hear this our common prayer. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Wednesday, May 23, 2001, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears no objection.

JOURNALS APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Journals for Tuesday, March 20; Wednesday, March 21; Monday, April 2; and Tuesday, April 3, 2001, are in print and will stand approved unless objected to. The Chair hears no objections.

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Geist, desires recognition. For what purpose?

Mr. GEIST. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to announce a committee meeting at the break. The Transportation Committee will meet at the back of the House to consider three bills – HBs 43 and 1670 and SB 508 – and we will do that immediately upon the break in the back of the House, the Transportation Committee. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

GUEST INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the hall of the House today Elaine Yurko, a summer intern in the office of Representative Harhai. Elaine is a student at the University of Pittsburgh, seated to the left of the Chair. Would she please rise.

IAN GARVEY INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Members, please break up the conferences and take your seats.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks County, Mr. McIlhinney, for the purpose of making an introduction.

Mr. McILHINNEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am very proud to have with me today Mr. Ian Garvey. Ian is an eighth grade student at New Hope-Solebury Middle School, and he is a winner of my "There Ought To Be a Law" contest in this district. Ian is here with his mother, Debra; his father, Steve; and his social studies teacher, Joanne Jones.

Ian won the law on a very interesting subject; it was the Election Code reform, and he came up with some rather innovative ideas that I am looking forward to adding to this year's discussion on the Election Code later on this year. So I am looking forward to the debate and the hearings that will be taking place in Bucks County as well. So I am pleased to have Ian here today with his family and his teacher, and I would like the House to give him a warm round of applause.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

CONTEST WINNERS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time recognizes the lady, Mrs. Harhart.

Mrs. HARHART. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today I have three students from my district who participated in my "There Ought To Be a Law" contest whom I would like to introduce along with their families. They are seated in back of the House floor. As I call their names, I would like them to stand with their families, and I will read all three at the same time and then we can applaud.

I would like to welcome Travis Silfies. Travis, his entry was the establishments that sell alcoholic beverages administer tests to patrons to determine their level of intoxication. Travis is a fourth grade student at Peters Elementary School in the Slatington area. Accompanying Travis on the House floor are his mother, his father, his brother, and his grandparents.

We also have with us Matt Henry. Matt, his entry was all-year-round school in Pennsylvania. Matt is a fourth grade student at the George D. Steckel Elementary School in Whitehall, and believe me, that really got a lot of attention from his schoolmates. Matt is accompanied on the floor by his mother, his father, his sister, his grandmother, and a friend.

I also would like to introduce Ryan Reeser. Ryan's entry was relieving landowners of liability for injuries to trespassers. Ryan is an 11th grade student at Northampton High School. Ryan is accompanied on the floor by his mother, father, and sister, and two uncles who are visiting from Florida.

I am very proud of these students, and I would like you all to give them a great big round of applause. They all did a very excellent job. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ABINGTON HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Ms. Bard.

Ms. BARD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Today it is my great pleasure to introduce students and chemistry teacher Tony Viscariello from Abington High School in Montgomery County. Mr. Viscariello describes the achievement of these students as phenomenal. He says a teacher dreams of one such student once in a career. To publish a paper in a scientific journal at the high school level is unprecedented. Yet these three young women, all Mr. Viscariello's students, have won first place in Pennsylvania's Junior Academy of Sciences competition for their research conducted at Temple University and at the Fox Chase Cancer Center. Their projects were chosen out of over 4,000 such entries. Two of the research projects have already been published and one is in preparation for publication.

Ja-Eun Huh, a junior at Abington High School, conducted her research, won her Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Sciences competition, and published on her work regarding drug delivery systems for the pharmaceutical industry.

Asia Mason, also a junior, focused her research on bone disorders, and Su Jung Park, a senior who will be attending Johns Hopkins University next fall, conducted her research on the use of radiotherapy in cancer cells.

I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing these important achievements and encouraging these students and their teacher to continue their important contributions to the State of Pennsylvania and to science. Thank you.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On the question of final passage as amended, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Perzel. Will the gentleman yield.
Conferences in the back of the House, please break up. Conferences in the back of the House, please break up. Sergeants at Arms, break up the conference there, please.

Mr. Perzel.
Mr. PERZEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am asking the members' support for legislation to help protect the people who put their lives on the line to protect us every single day. As they protect us, we have a moral obligation to do everything we can to protect them. They risk their lives for us every day. Unfortunately, hepatitis C is one of the risks that they face in saving lives.

Last year I had hoped that the city of Philadelphia would deal with this issue and accept responsibility for helping the professionals who protect everyone who lives in, works in, and visits Philadelphia. Unfortunately, the city chose not to. That is why we are here today, Mr. Speaker, to make sure that the job gets done. Thanks to Representatives Thomas and Belfanti and their amendments, we are going to help police, firefighters, paramedics, corrections officers from all across this Commonwealth.

I started this legislation with law enforcement officers, and then we added the firefighters, paramedics, and corrections officers. This legislation offers protections to our volunteers as well. In most communities, as you all are well aware, volunteer firefighters and paramedics are the backbone of our communities. We have a moral responsibility to these brave men and women.

The changes we are making in the workers' compensation law are simple. We want to make sure emergency responders and corrections officers are given legal presumption that if they contract hepatitis C, that it is considered job related.

As you know, some of the valiant heroes are here with us today, Mr. Speaker, in the hall. As first responders, these people deal with blood and exposure to disease virtually every day. They risk their lives for each and every one of us. It is simply unbelievable to think that someone would question them on this. To me the connection is clear.

Last September California changed its workers' compensation laws to do what we are trying to do here today. One of the examples that they cited as a reason for protecting their emergency responders was Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker.

The facts are clear. Our moral calling is clear. I ask the members to support HB 1633 on final passage. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

A majority of the members required by the rules having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?

Mr. BUNT offered the following amendment No. A2262:

Amend Sec. 2, page 1, line 2 (A2184), by inserting after "to" untested

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question of the adoption of the amendment, the gentleman, Mr. George.

Mr. GEORGE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I find no reason to object to the gentleman, Representative Bunt's amendment. All it does is it basically amends the amendment that was adopted a moment ago that I had proposed and that I had found through much mail and phone calls that there is a problem out there, and the problem is that there are people that are mixing other materials with sludge that are considered either residual or hazardous or whatever, and therefore, there should be something done about it. What Mr. Bunt's amendment does is simply insist that the word "untested" be provided, and I am in agreement thus far, and my opinion is that the important part of the amendment is in there and that it goes a long way to protecting those of our citizens in the Commonwealth in regard to materials being dumped that we do not know anything about, but yet we know automatically that they are either hazardous or they are of a residual nature and, therefore, could compound the problem.

So I am asking that we adopt this amendment also.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill passed finally.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

* * *

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1493, PN 1812, entitled:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, providing for the criminal offense of agricultural crop destruction.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. GEORGE offered the following amendment No. A2185:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 3310), page 1, line 10, by inserting after "damages" or adds hazardous or residual waste to sewage sludge that damages

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question of the adoption of the amendment, do you wish to be recognized, Mr. George?

Mr. GEORGE. If it would not impoverish you, I certainly would.

The SPEAKER. Impoverish me?

Mr. GEORGE. Yes.

The SPEAKER. You are not going to borrow money, are you?

Mr. GEORGE. I would hope. I might as well get something out of you this session; I have got darn little, if you know what I mean. You are grinning.

The SPEAKER. Of course I am. The gentleman is recognized.

Mr. GEORGE. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that 1493 creates a crime for the destruction of crops. Now, Mr. Speaker, if I go on your land and destroy something of value, there are at least three crimes - vandalism, trespassing, and agricultural vandalism - that you could be charged with. So HB 1493 does not change anything or change something that is not legal today, but it simply sets a new crime or this crime as a way to make tougher penalties. And I am not against this, but it is a fair question to ask why, and I think you would answer that you are doing this because you want to protect Pennsylvania farmers. Well, Mr. Speaker, I want to protect Pennsylvania farmers, too.

Just last week, Mr. Speaker, DEP (Department of Environmental Protection) reported that they think they caught a trucker who was trying to mix infectious waste with municipal waste and trying to hide it from that landfill and the regulators. So, Mr. Speaker, hiding waste and mixing waste, that is the type of problem that this amendment is trying to stop, and we can do something about it in this bill. All my amendment says is if you mix hazardous and residual waste with sewage sludge, and then if that combination destroys crops or hurts the land, you can be charged under this act also. So, Mr. Speaker, I say if you destroy our farmlands whether by fire or vandalism or, as my amendment proposes, through the use of dangerous chemicals, you should be charged, and if convicted, you ought to pay the price.

I ask that we adopt this amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?
