LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

SESSION OF 2001

185TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 36

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 10 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (PATRICIA H. VANCE) PRESIDING

PRAYER

REV. JULIANN PUGH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives and pastor of Camp Hill Presbyterian Church, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

God of truth and grace, we wrestle ourselves to quietness; we fasten ourselves to stillness; and we force our minds to think of You and to seek the meaning of our lives in this world that You have made. We have pledged ourselves to be servants of this Commonwealth, and You know with what blendings of strength and weakness we have made that commitment, with what fusions of wisdom and folly, with what alternations of hope and despair for Your people and beyond.

Unabashedly we pray for ourselves. We ask for vision, that we may learn to separate fact from fantasy, truth from falsehood, right from wrong; and clearly comprehending fact and truth and right, may we firmly love what we have comprehended. We ask for restlessness, that the agonies of our constituents may not be distant from our hearts, that time may prove too precious to be wasted, and that we may quickly probe the cries of hurt until we find in them the call that justifies our calling. We ask for love, that our compassion may be as Your own and that liking the likable, we may not compound the world's hatred by hating the hateful. We ask for hunger of soul, that the horizons of earth may not be sufficient horizons and that preoccupation with good causes may not leave us blind to the cause of their goodness.

We pray especially now for our time spent together as leaders in this State. It is not easy to work with those whose opinions we so strongly oppose. We know that we shall understand and misunderstand each other; we shall like and dislike; we shall please and annoy; we shall be right and thought wrong, and we shall be wrong while sure that we are right. Be in truth and grace among us, and grant that in this place we may fashion with Your help those virtues in ourselves that we covet for this world. Teach us so to work together here that we give You no cause to regret that You have brought us together at this time in this place at this moment in history.

In wonder and uncertainty, we offer these our prayers to You. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill passed finally.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1498, PN 1823, entitled:

An Act amending Title 74 (Transportation) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for supplemental public transportation assistance funding.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It is my understanding the gentleman, Mr. George, has withdrawn his amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Dally.

Mr. DALLY. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

HB 1498, the numbers that are being allocated in that bill are not available to the members, and I would at least like to see what we are doing with this bill in terms of the public transportation funds that are being allocated to the different areas of the Commonwealth.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Hold, please.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Markosek.

Mr. MARKOSEK. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, HB 1498 would remove the cap from the supplemental transit funding. Act 3 of 1997 was passed 4 years ago that indicated that 1.22 percent of the sales tax would be dedicated to mass transit funding with a cap of $75 million. If we multiply 1.22 times the current sales tax estimates, there would actually be, if we did not have a cap, an additional $16.8 million that would be beneficial to the transit fund. This bill, HB 1498, would remove the cap, which would allow the transit funds to accept that money over the $75 million, which, as I indicated, is estimated to be $16.8 million.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Dally, for the second time.

Mr. DALLY. Madam Speaker, a question for the prime sponsor.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman agrees. You may proceed.

Mr. DALLY. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I have been handed a distribution of the funds under the proposed bill, and I notice that the Lehigh Valley area of Pennsylvania is receiving only a 4-percent increase whereas State College, for instance, is getting a 10-percent increase and the two urban areas, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, 30 and 33 percent respectively. I am wondering, is there a formula that is utilized to determine where these excess funds go?

Mr. MARKOSEK. Madam Speaker, there is a formula. These funds go into the transit formula and are divvied up that way. The formula will not change with the passage of this legislation. The only thing that will change is the amount of money that will go into the fund and be divvied up by the formula. So all of the transit organizations in Pennsylvania will receive the same percentage that they currently receive, but there will be a bigger pie that they will be able to receive it from. So all of the transit agencies will receive some increase.

Mr. DALLY. Okay. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

BILL REREPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

HB 1697, PN 2094

By Rep. PERZEL

An Act amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for the number of judges of the courts of common pleas in certain judicial districts.

RULES.

BILL ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The following bill, having been called up, was considered for the second time and agreed to, and ordered transcribed for third consideration:

HB 1697, PN 2094.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS AS AMENDED

The House proceeded to consideration of concurrence in Senate amendments to the following HB 41, PN 2106, as further amended by the House Rules Committee:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for simple assault.

On the question,

Will the House concur in Senate amendments as amended by the Rules Committee?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. On that question, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, the timing of this bill prevented the Democrats from caucusing on it.

Will Mr. Adolph consent to interrogation?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman agrees. You may proceed.

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, this deals with expanding the definition of "assault." Could the gentleman explain what this bill does?

Mr. ADOLPH. Yes. What this bill does, it criminalizes the willful intent to hide a hypodermic needle during an arrest, and if the police officer is stuck with the needle, it makes it a second-degree misdemeanor, which is a maximum 2 years in prison and a $5,000 fine. The change that was made in Rules Committee is it took out the word "recklessly," and the reason that was is because the administration had a problem with the adjective "recklessly."

Mr. COHEN. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I support this bill.

Mr. ADOLPH. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It has been moved by the gentleman, Mr. Adolph, that the House concur in the amendments.

Mr. REINARD. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, I have some comments I would like to submit for a matter of record.

Mr. Speaker, it is my privilege to bring to the attention of the Speaker and the members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives the name of Matthew Plechner, who has recently been awarded Scouting's highest honor - Eagle Scout.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to read to the members of the House of Representatives the following citation of merit honoring Matthew Plechner.

Whereas, Matthew Plechner earned the Eagle Award in Scouting. This is the highest award that Boy Scouts can bestow and as such represents great sacrifice and tremendous effort on the part of this young man. He is a member of Troop 5.

Now therefore, Mr. Speaker and members of the House of Representatives, it is my privilege to congratulate and place in the Legislative Journal the name of Matthew Plechner.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration as amended?
Bill as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On that question, the gentleman, Mr. Vitali, is recognized.
Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
Will the maker of the bill stand for brief interrogation?
The SPEAKER pro tempore. Mr. Civera has agreed to that and is recognized.
Mr. Vitali.
Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

My office and I would suspect other members' offices have received a number of calls on both sides of this issue, both from anesthesiologists and nurses, pro and con on this bill. My question really is, with these amendments, is there some agreement between those two factions, that what we are voting on now is acceptable to both of them?

Mr. CIVERA. Mr. Speaker, there has been an agreement on both sides, with the anesthesiologists as well as the nurse anesthetists; there has been an agreement made. The amendments that we just voted on were agreed upon, and on the final passage of HB 823, that has been agreed upon also. If you have anything specific that you want answered, I will be glad to answer it for you.
Mr. VITALI. No. Thank you. That concludes my interrogation.

GUEST INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair welcomes Sarah Hershey, a senior at the Baldwin School in Bryn Mawr and an intern in the office of Connie Williams and a guest of Connie Williams. She is recognized at the rear of the House.

STATEMENT BY MR. SEMMEL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Semmel, on unanimous consent.

Could we have some order.

Mr. SEMMEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for recognizing me at this time.

As chairman of Veterans Affairs and Emergency Preparedness, I certainly want all of us to remember today, the 57th anniversary of D-day, and perhaps we could just—

Mr. DeWEESE. Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority leader.

Mr. DeWEESE. Excuse me, but could we please have more order in the House for Mr. Semmel's remarks?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is entirely correct. The gentleman is most deserving to be heard. It is a very important topic, especially for our veterans.

Mr. SEMMEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Certainly I would be remiss if I would not ask all the members of the House today to reflect on the 57th anniversary of D-day and certainly the significance in our lives and future generations. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MR. PHILLIPS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Phillips.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would hope that every member here would remember this day what happened many years ago during World War II and this tremendous invasion that turned World War II around and all the veterans who gave of their lives on this particular day, all the veterans who were wounded during this time of action, and it is certainly a day that we should, as every member here, as every person, as every citizen of this great State and every citizen of this nation, should take time and reflect the reason that we are here today. The reason we have the freedom that we have today is because of the sacrifices that were made on this great occasion and when so many lives were lost and so many individuals were wounded.

Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Are there any other announcements?

By the way, there are no further votes.

VOTE CORRECTION

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Gordner.

Mr. GORDNER. Correction of the record, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized.

Mr. GORDNER. On final passage of HB 1498, I was not recorded, and I would like to be recorded in the affirmative. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The remarks will be spread upon the record.

STATEMENT BY MR. GANNON

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. Gannon, is recognized.

Mr. GANNON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, on unanimous consent.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized.

Mr. GANNON. Mr. Speaker, today the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee issued its report on the cost benefits of the mental health insurance coverage as required under Act 150 of 1998. This report is being issued and sent to the members of the Insurance Committee of the House and Senate, and I would urge every member of the House to obtain a copy of this report that contains very, very critical information about the impact of Act 150 with respect to mental health insurance coverage in Pennsylvania, and most significantly, it shows and demonstrates quite clearly the insignificant cost of expanding mental health coverage to those folks in need in Pennsylvania.

As you know, this issue has been vigorously resisted by the insurance lobby in Pennsylvania, and over the course of the past couple years, they have issued studies and reports showing astronomical cost increases if we require that mental health coverage be covered as equal as physical health coverage.

However, this report, this report belies all of those fabrications. This report is based on actual numbers, actual experience under Act 150. And, Mr. Speaker, it is time to move forward now in Pennsylvania and provide mental health parity coverage for every Pennsylvanian. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.
