LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

SESSION OF 2002

186TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 25

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (THOMAS M. TIGUE) PRESIDING

PRAYER

REV. JULIANN PUGH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Creator God, who lived and moved and had Your being before anything was or any of us existed, it is our intent to give You our undivided attention. As best we can, we let the business of our lives slide off our shoulders. We coax our bodies to relax. We allow silence to have its healing way with our bruised and battered spirits. Here we are, our King, attempting to be humble and penitent. Give us eyes and ears only for You.

Holy comforter, there are those among us today who carry burdens that are great. As they attempt to hold themselves together by focusing on budgetary issues, issues of State, and acts of legislation, grant them Your peace as their hearts are filled with pain over the worry about loved ones who are sick or as they deal with the recent loss of a friend or loved one. Guide them into the warmth of Your tender care, and teach them to allow themselves to be human and realize they do not have to carry all their burdens alone. Radiate through their lives with the light of Your presence, that renewed strength can truly be theirs.

For all of us who are at war – Palestine, Israel, the U.S., and many others – we know that we are all Your children no matter where we live on this earth. We pray that You would guide us in our grievances against one another so that truly peace will reign and Your good would prevail. Forgive us for our fear, keep us from being paralyzed by it, and give us the sheer willpower to reach up and take Your hand as You guide us through the landmines of life.

Thank You for the skills and talents You have entrusted to our care. May we see joy on Your face because we have been good stewards of Your gifts.

When the work of this hour is past and behind, so chasten our unruly tempers and so discipline our rampant wills that we close ranks, link arms, and move forward together for the common good of all.

You have heard the prayers that have been spoken in these moments and heard, too, the petitions unspoken in our hearts. Answer, we beseech You, as may be most expedient in Your sight.

Hear this our common prayer. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 2305, PN 3171, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 9, 1955 (P.L.323, No.130), known as The County Code, further providing for elected officers.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. LEH offered the following amendment No. A1119:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 401), page 3, line 25, by inserting after “class” having a population during the 2000 decennial census of not less than 371,000 and not more than 380,000

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 401), page 3, line 28, by striking out all of said line and inserting office of jury commissioner shall expire at the completion of the current jury commissioners’ terms of office.

Amend Sec. 2, page 3, line 30, by inserting after “on” or after

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will yield.
Please. Members, please take your seats.

On the question of the Leh amendment, the gentleman is recognized.

Mr. LEH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Amendment No. 1119 makes this bill population specific to the 2000 census to a population within a third-class county of 371,000 people or more but not more than 380,000 people. Also, the amendment allows a jury commissioner, which this bill is designed to deal with, the office of jury commissioner, would allow the jury commissioner to serve out his full length of term.

I would ask that the members of this body support this amendment, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. On the question of the adoption of the amendment, Mr. Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Would the maker of the amendment stand for brief interrogation?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Leh, will stand for interrogation. However, I ask him to yield.

Please. There is a debate on the floor and the members deserve your attention. Take your seats, please. Discontinue conferences.

Mr. Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just want to be clear about what this does. Am I understanding this correct, that in counties whose population is between 371,000 and 380,000, the amendment just applies to those counties?

Mr. LEH. Third-class counties within that population.

Mr. VITALI. And I am just guessing that that is just going to be one county?

Mr. LEH. I am not sure. I know one county that is within that population limit.

Mr. VITALI. Okay. And with regard to that county, the office of jury commissioner is eliminated?

Mr. LEH. No; this bill does not eliminate, and I realize, Mr. Speaker, I do not want to go beyond the latitude of the Speaker’s bench; however, this bill would allow the county commissioners to vote to eliminate the jury commissioner’s office. However, this amendment does not do that. This amendment just specifies that should the county commissioners decide to do that and should they by a majority vote of the county commissioners eliminate the office, the jury commissioner would be allowed to serve out his present term. Under the present language of the bill, the jury commissioner could either resign or finish out his term. There was a member of this body that felt that we should not even allow a jury commissioner to resign under that language, and his request was that we allow the jury commissioner to finish out his term, which is what the amendment does.

Mr. VITALI. Okay. So this simply gives an option to that at least one—

Mr. LEH. Yes; this is nothing mandatory. It is not a “shall”; it is a “may” provision, which will be revealed in the bill when we get to that.

Mr. VITALI. Okay. That concludes my interrogation. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY DEMOCRATIC LEADER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the minority leader, Mr. DeWeese.

Mr. DeWEESE. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

May I have some order, please?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. DeWeese, deserves to be heard. Could we please have some order in the hall.

Mr. DeWEESE. Thank you very much, Madam Speaker.

I thought I would take advantage of a comparatively slow day relative to legislative traffic to commend the Republican Caucus on their new leadership team. I would simultaneously like to use this afternoon as a fulcrum to further propel the idea of campaign finance reform.

There is not a man or woman in this hall who has not been buffeted over the past many months by unwholesome rumors about fundraising mechanisms within our own process, and I do not have to be specific; it certainly is not necessary and not appropriate. But one of the campaigns engendered on the Republican side of the aisle for Appropriations chairman was spearheaded by an ethos, Madam Speaker, that wanted to divide the appropriations process from a bald and unmitigated fundraising engine. I think that was a worthy pursuit.

I do not think that it can be said enough on this floor, Madam Speaker, that Representative Vitali, Representative Levdansky, and a squad of other members on the Democratic side of the aisle and some people, former Representative Al Masland and others, on the Republican side have tried desperately to pursue a campaign finance bill. My good friend and worthy colleague from the beautiful county of Jefferson, the honorable whip on the Republican side of the aisle, thank goodness, a few weeks earlier joined forces with us when he said we will come back here sometime soon and do a real campaign finance bill. I cannot think of a better time to recommit this chamber, Madam Speaker, to real campaign finance reform.

The former chairman of the House Republican Appropriations Committee vacated that seat recently, and we do not know why, but many of us have heard rumors and allegations of behavior that bordered on impropriety. Whether that was true or not true, we have a chance to have, what the Latins would say, a tabula rasa, a clean slate.

We should start today and commit ourselves to campaign finance reform, and the Republican Party should be way out in front on the issue. There should be no half stepping. We are not going to realize victory unless Mr. Smith's commitment of several weeks ago is crystallized by substantial legislative hearings in the next several weeks.

We have, as this process always has, a lot of spare time while the Appropriations Committee concentrates on the budget. We have essentially all of April, all of May, and part of June. Now is the time for the gentleman from Jefferson, my very good friend, the whip of the Republican side of the aisle, to come through on that campaign promise here on the floor of the House and say, we will have campaign finance reform; we will have a real good bill. Well, I do not want to have to wait until September or October or November. Now is not a time for sloth; now is a time for action.

I would welcome the cooperation and the fraternity that we have always had and ask the gentleman from Jefferson to refocus his caucus now that his elections are over, and I congratulate them, their leadership team, on their success. But nevertheless, at the nub of this whole Appropriations election on the Republican side earlier today was a feeling that we should divorce fundraising from Appropriations chairmen, that we should do something on campaign finance reform, and it will not be done unless the Republican leadership team and their rank and file commit themselves to this process.

Madam Speaker, thank you very much.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman have guests that he wishes to introduce? The Chair again recognizes the minority leader, Mr. DeWeese, for the purpose of an introduction.

Mr. DeWEESE. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Terry Murphy and Andy Masich of the Western Pennsylvania History Center are here in the hall of the House today advocating, as all of us like to do, the history of our great Commonwealth. So thank you for making them welcome in our midst.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentlemen please rise. Welcome to the hall of the House.

BILLS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, all remaining bills on today's calendar will be passed over. The Chair hears no objection.

ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the lady from York, Representative Mackereth.

Mrs. MACKERETH. Madam Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Tuesday, April 9, 2002, at 11 a.m., e.d.t., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to, and at 4:07 p.m., e.d.t., the House adjourned.
